CITY REACHES AGREEMENT WITH TROLLEY COMPANY

Reductions in Power and Lighting Made After Long Conference.

SUPPORT OF 26 MEMBERS OF COUNCIL IS PLEDGED

Seven Concessions Granted by Georgia Railway and Electric Company Officials—Alderman McClelland Says That Settlement Is Farcical. Consumer Not Benefitted.

P. C. CASHMAN.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN CITY AND TROLLEY COMPANY

Rates for electric lights reduced 9 to 7 cents per kilowatt hour, net.

Rates for electric power reduced from 5.40 to 4.50 cents per kilowatt hour, net.

Made minimum for electric lights $1 instead of $2.

Made minimum for electric power 50 cents instead of $1 per horse power.

Street car company to pay for 16 feet instead of 11 feet of street paving where there are double tracks, and for 11 feet where there are single tracks, as at present.

To string wires and install electric service 200 feet for any customer without charge.

To protect the city's water supply at the river.

The city to consent to the merger of the Georgia Railway and Electric Company and the Georgia Railway and Power Company.

The city to withdraw petition from the railroad commission for an investigation of electric light and power rates.

The fight for lower street car fares to be stopped in council.

The special council committee and the officials of the Georgia Railway and Electric Company and the Georgia Railway and Power Company reached an agreement last night at 11 o'clock after a second conference, which lasted three hours.

The basis of the agreement is given above. The corporation officials had to be assured by a subcommitte that at least twenty-six members of council would ratify the agreement. This makes it practically assured that the agreement will be approved by council next Monday afternoon, and as the mayor was a member of the subcommittee he will doubtless give the action of council his approval.

So it seems that all negotiations between the city and the public utility companies have come to an end with the result stated.

Submit Eleven Propositions.

The special committee, composed of the members of the three council committees on electric and other railroads, electric lights and tax, submitted eleven propositions to the officials of the two companies. The propositions which

TRAVELING MEN FOR UNDERWOOD

Cashman Changes From Wilson to House Leader.

Well-Known Atlanta Member of T. P. A. Tells of Remarkable Amount of Underwood Enthusiasm He Meets on His Trips Through the State.

Perhaps no member of the T. P. A. in Georgia is more generally known than P. C. Cashman, of Atlanta. For many years Mr. Cashman has been one of the leading spirits of the T. P. A. organization in this state, having been prominently connected with local and state organization. He was also editor and publisher of The Southern T. P. A. Journal.

Mr. Cashman is a traveler who travels and who observes things as he goes, and he has an interesting way of telling it. He is manager of the traveling salesmen's department of the Southern Saw Works, of Atlanta.

Leaves Wilson for Underwood.

To a Constitution man he was telling yesterday of the result of his observations on the presidential situation with reference to the democratic nomination, and he said:

"I started out in this campaign thinking I was for Woodrow Wilson for president, but now that Oscar Underwood, the son of our sister state, has gotten into the race, I have changed my mind and I am going to support him with all my heart and soul.

"More than that," continued Mr. Cashman, "this sentiment seems to prevail everywhere I have been during the past few weeks. I have never seen anything like it, and if Underwood does not sweep Georgia just as

LETTER TO WIFE PLAYS BIG PART IN GRACE CASE

Reported It Would Have Proved Alibi for Her, Had Her Husband Died.

SHE MUST SOON MAKE INVENTORY OF PROPERTY

Under Pennsylvania Law Mrs. Grace's Time for Making Report Is Nearly Up. Reuben Arnold Declares Shooting Was Deliberately Planned by Wife.

A letter which fell into the hands of Eugene H. Grace's relatives instead of reaching Mrs. Daisy Grace, is the new evidence discovered in the mysterious shooting case of last Tuesday, which caused her rearrest, which took the support of the family away from her, and which leads Reuben R. Arnold, their attorney, to say that enough evidence has already been gathered to convict the beautiful woman charged with attempting to kill her husband.

Report has it that this letter was either written by Mrs. Grace and purporting to be from Grace, or was extorted by her from her husband through threats or promises. It endeavored to prove an alibi for her and would have done so if Grace had not dragged himself to the telephone and summoned aid.

Have Changed My Mind.

"I have changed my mind about going to Philadelphia and will not go till Wednesday. A friend will spend tonight (Tuesday) with me at the house," is the significant portion of the letter.

After it was written, it is charged that Mrs. Grace mailed it to herself at Newnan. Had Grace died the letter would have reached her safely there. It would have showed that her husband had been killed after her departure. His body would not have been discovered until Friday, when she was due to return from Newnan to Atlanta, and the mystery of his death would in all probability have been laid to the unknown "friend" mentioned in the letter.

But Grace did not die. Instead he pulled himself across the bed in his agony, and groping for the telephone he summoned police aid. It was firmly established that he had been shot some hours before he called at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Grace, therefore, was forced to return from Newnan that afternoon. She had not received the letter at all, and when it was delivered there it was immediately forwarded back to Atlanta.

Locked Up Without Bond.

A strange mischance of fate sent it into the hands of Grace's relatives, and when it was opened by the proper authorities it was seen to be of such a nature, it is alleged, that steps were at once taken to have Mrs. Grace locked up without bond, pending the outcome of her husband's injuries.

Two stories of the authorship of the letter were going the rounds Friday. One was that Mrs. Grace secured it from her husband after the shooting, and that he wrote it under threats of violence, or that he was promised immediate assistance if he did so. After securing it, at any rate, it is believed that Mrs. Grace, thinking herself secure in event of his death, locked the house with a view to preventing any aid reaching him, stuffed the telephone with cotton, according to charges made by Grace's attorneys, and left for Newnan.

The postmark of the letter will be one of the hinge points of whatever trial may result. That it was mailed in Atlanta after the time that Grace would have been able to post it, that it would have been a physical impossibility for him to have mailed it at all, owing to his paralysis, is expected to be shown by this.

Message to Lawrence.

It is also believed that this theoretical plot will also explain an alleged message to Grace's partner, J. C. Lawrence, in which it is said Grace, or someone, notified Mr. Lawrence that he would be unable to go to Philadelphia that day, but would go Wednesday.

It was this letter which Friday led Reuben R. Arnold to state to the press that he had investigated far enough to know that Mrs. Grace is overwhelmingly guilty.

"That negro story is just a drowning man grasping at a straw," he said. "There is no doubt in the world who committed the deed, or that it was done in cold blood, from a purely sordid motive.

"It was premeditated and hatched up. It was carefully thought out and planned out.

"New evidence has been discovered which is absolutely indicative of this. I can't tell you of this now. No, I can't tell you even if it is a letter, but we have it and will produce it at the right time."

Attorneys Won't Talk.

Lamar Hill, the other attorney for the family, was also asked about the matter.

"I am sorry, but I cannot say anything about the matter," he replied.

"Will you confirm the fact that it was a letter which is the new evidence, and that it caused Mrs. Grace's re-arrest?"

"I cannot say."

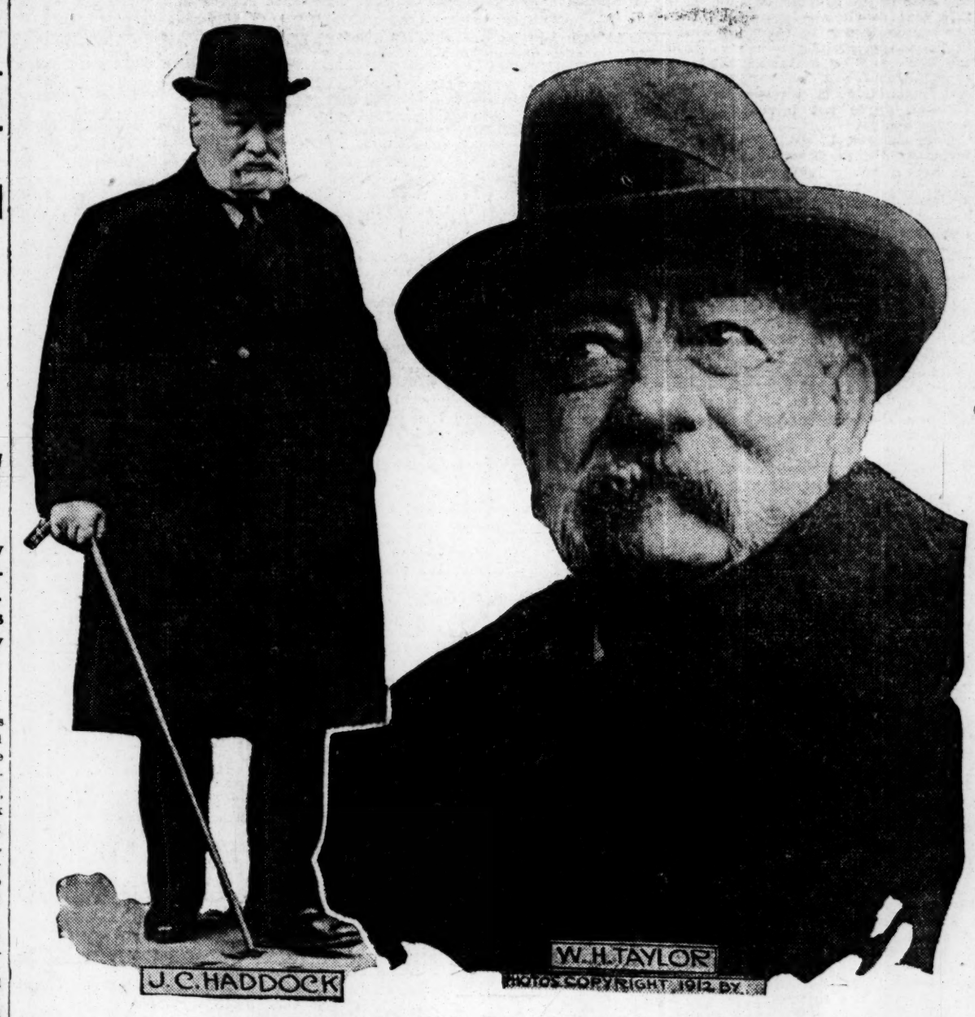

"Will you simply deny that it was a letter?"

"No; I cannot say anything along those lines at all."

S. L. Hill, Grace's step-father, who accompanied Mrs. Grace on her return here the day of the shooting, and who excitedly said to reporters when told

TWO OF THE HEADS OF COAL COMPANIES WHO VOTED TO REJECT MINERS' DEMANDS

A flat rejection of all their demands will be the answer the representatives of the miners will get from the anthracite coal operators at the conference to be held in New York on March 13. This action was decided upon at a conference of the operators here which lasted just one hour. While the action taken does not necessarily preclude further negotiations should the miners subsequently decide upon a modification of their demands, it heightens the prospects of a strike. None of the operators at the conference cared to talk for publication, but several of them privately expressed the opinion that there would be a strike in the anthracite regions. All the indications at the present time, it was said, seemed to point that way. Among the forty-four operators who attended the conference were W. H. Taylor, of the St. Clair Coal Company, and J. C. Haddock, of the Plymouth Coal Company.

TEDDY'S POLICIES SOUNDLY RAPPED BY WILLIAM TAFT

President Knocks Roosevelt's Proposal for Recall of Judicial Decisions.

MEASURE IS REACTIONARY NOT PROGRESSIVE, HE SAYS

Crude, Revolutionary, Fitful, Unstable and Utterly Without Merit or Utility Are Terms Used by Chief Executive to Describe Colonel's Pet Plan.

Toledo, Ohio, March 8.—President Taft made answer here tonight to the propaganda for the recall of judges, and for the more recent proposal for the recall of judicial decisions. His topic was, "The Judiciary and Progress." He made no direct reference to Colonel Roosevelt, nor to the latter's speech at Columbus, but referred freely to some of the policies that were enunciated by the former president before the Ohio constitutional convention.

Utterly without merit or utility, and reactionary instead of progressive; crude, revolutionary, fitful and unstable were the terms in which the president referred to the recall method of reversing judicial constructions of the constitution.

"I have examined this proposed method of reversing judicial decisions on constitutional questions with care," President Taft said. "I do not hesitate to say that it lays the ax at the foot of the tree of well-ordered freedom and subjects the guaranties of life, liberty and property without remedy to the fitful impulse of a temporary majority of an electorate."

The Best Government.

The president began with a reference to the development of representative government in the United States. The best government, he said, and that which was most certain to provide for and protect the rights of every class, was that government in which every class had a voice.

"Government by unanimous vote of the electorate," he said, "is impossible, and therefore the majority of the electorate must rule. We find that government by the people is, therefore, under our present system, government by a majority of one-fourth of those whose rights and happiness are to be affected by the course and conduct of the government. This is the nearest to a government by the whole people we have ever had. Women's suffrage will change this, and it is doubtless coming as soon as the electorate can be certain that most women desire it, and will assume its burden and responsibility.

"It was long ago recognized that direct action of a temporary majority of the existing electorate must be limited by fundamental law; that is by a constitution intended to protect the individual and the minority of the electorate and the non-voting majority of the people against the unjust or the arbitrary action of the majority of the electorate."

Quoted From Webster.

President Taft quoted at length from Daniel Webster's speeches on the necessity of maintaining checks and balances in a constitution to secure the guaranty of individual

DIXON DESIRES PRIMARY FICHT

Roosevelt Leader Again Challenges Leader of Taft Campaign.

Asks McKinley if He Is Willing to Join in Movement to Get Expression of Choice of the Republican Voters for President.

Washington, March 8.—Senator Joseph M. Dixon issued the "challenge" from the Roosevelt national headquarters tonight to Director McKinley, of the national Taft bureau, upon the subject of presidential primaries. Replying to Mr. McKinley's letter of last night, Senator Dixon characterizes it as a "flat refusal" to aid in getting presidential preference primaries, and he makes a new demand upon the Taft managers.

Director McKinley, in his reply to Chairman Dixon, last night, said he was "in absolute accord with the selection of the delegates to the national convention by the primary system wherever primaries are or may be legally provided, fairly conducted and surrounded by the restrictions of the law."

Dixon's Letter.

Senator Dixon's letter, sent to Mr. McKinley tonight, is, in part, as follows:

"Dear Mr. McKinley: Your flat refusal to aid in securing for republican voters an opportunity directly to name the candidate they desire to support in the approaching campaign is received. Your decision must be regretted by everyone who has at heart the success of the republican party next November. In your letter to me of March 5 you stated you had been asked by President Taft to act as director of a bureau with headquarters in Washington, organized for the purpose of securing his renomination for a second term.

"I am forced, therefore, to the conclusion that in refusing to join with me in an effort to secure an expression by republican voters as to the candidate they want, you are announcing a decision of your chief, and that Mr. Taft refuses to trust the voters to determine the question of his candidacy, and he is willing to become a candidate of his party even against the wishes of the majority of his party."

Rules of the Game.

Senator Dixon expresses regret that Mr. McKinley referred to "changes in the rules while the game is in progress."

"I regret that you regard the selection of a republican candidate for president as a 'game,'" says the letter. "Evidently you lack comprehension of the dignity with which the people invest the presidency of the United States so to designate a function which is preliminary to the election to that high office. Colonel Roosevelt, it is hardly necessary to say, is engaged in no 'game.' But if you insist on designating it a 'game' my desire is to eliminate marked cards and loaded dice. Mr. Roosevelt and his supporters will

ATLANTANS BUSY CLEANING YARDS

Crusade Enlists Cooperation of Hundreds of Citizens.

Is Your Back Yard Clean, and Have You a Good Garbage Can? the Two Questions Being Asked Now—Sanitary Inspectors Hard at Work.

The all-absorbing question just now in Atlanta is:

"Is your back yard clean, and have you a good garbage can?"

Since the crusade for a cleaner Atlanta was started, many hundreds of citizens have realized what the city's greatest need really is, and are at the same time doing their part to remedy it.

The sanitary inspectors are now busy inspecting back yards, and as there is no telling when they will turn up in any particular section of the city, everybody who wants to obey the law and who has an aversion to appearing before the recorder and getting fined, is taking the necessary precaution to be ready to meet the inspector without fear or trepidation.

People Thoroughly Aroused.

CITY EXTENSION BRINGS ON FICHT

Strong Opposition Develops at Committee Meeting.

Citizens Speak Against the Annexation of Ormewood. Sentiment Divided in Some Localities—Committee Meets Again on Tuesday Night.

Strong opposition developed against the proposed extension of the city limits at a public hearing before a special committee of council yesterday afternoon.

Those who opposed the extensions claimed that it was too soon after the last extension, when a large area was taken in, to now again extend the city limits, and that the city was not able to take care of its present limits with proper fire and police protection, with paving for streets, with water and with sewers.

On the other hand, those who wanted an extension claimed that there were outlying territories which were thickly populated and should be annexed for sanitary regulations and to make citizens pay for benefits which they were securing from the city by being on the outskirts.

The Proposed Extensions.

The territory that it is proposed to

IF EUGENE H. GRACE DIES, LEGAL BATTLE MAY CENTER ON ANTE-MORTEM STATEMENT

The mooted point of the admission of a dying declaration from Eugene H. Grace into the trial of his wife for murder, should such a contingency arise, has never before been involved in any legal contest in this state. It is absolutely unique in the legal history of Georgia and is one of the most widely-discussed points of the recent tragedy now holding the center of public attention.

Since the question has never arisen before, it has never been decided by the supreme court of Georgia. Opinions from prominent lawyers, differing widely, were first printed in The Constitution, showing that a legal battle of note will take place in the event of such a trial.

Lawyers Differ on Matter.

The state code in section 1037, paragraph 4, prohibits any husband from testifying for or against his wife in any criminal proceeding. One lawyer, J. D. Kilpatrick, thinks this likewise bars his dying declaration, because that would be his testimony. W. A. Fuller, saying that he had not looked the matter up recently, thought in a murder trial the dying statement would be competent.

Reuben R. Arnold, attorney for the Grace family, supports Mr. Fuller, and Friday said: "I believe that the courts will decide that such a declaration is admissible and will consider it. In the event of such a trial we will introduce it."

Supporting this opinion are several decisions, all from other states, but so similar that they are quoted in support of the opinion, as follows:

"The dying declaration of a husband is competent evidence against the wife on her trial for murder, to show her guilt. Moore v. State, 12 Alabama, 764; People v. Green, 1 Denio (N. Y.), page 164; Pennsylvania v. Stoop, add. (Pa.) 381."

Dying Declarations Admissible.

Also, "Dying declaration of one, husband or wife, who has been murdered are admissible in the trial of the other for murder. Rex v. Woodcock, 2 Leach (English Common Law Cases), decided by twelve judges, State v. Belcher, 13 South Carolina, 459."

With these as authority, in states where the laws [illegible] similar to those of Georgia, it is believed that Grace's dying accusat[illegible] his wife, which the police say [illegible]has signified his willingness to m[illegible] will be admitted against her in eve[illegible]of her trial.

If Grace gets we[illegible]

So far this phase of the question has not been spoken of by the officers. Although his life hangs by a thread, there is a chance for him, in which case he will not be allowed to testify. Any statements made by him against Mrs. Grace are barred by statute. The most important evidence is unavailable.

That is, if she is brought to trial. It is not unlikely that in event of his recovery there will be no trial. He may refuse to prosecute her altogether. The question of prosecuting Mrs. Grace would then devolve on the state, or the insurance companies or Grace's family.

Family Support Withdrawn.

The support of the wounded man's family has been withdrawn from his wife. It is said they no longer believe her innocent. It is further stated on good authority that evidence of the most damaging nature against Mrs. Grace has been turned over by them to the officers. But it cannot be said that they would bring her to the bar of justice to answer for the shooting if Eugene H. Grace survives.

The insurance companies, the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company and the Life Insurance Company of Virginia, might bring action against her, because in attempting the death of her husband, if she did attempt it, she attempted to defraud the companies of the face values of his insurance policies. It is hardly likely that such action will be taken, however.

The prosecution, then, would devolve on the state, meaning the local police who have worked up the case. Again there is a strong possibility that nothing would come of it.

Therefore with Grace improving, although she stands accused before the world of attempting to murder him, Mrs. Eugene H. Grace would very likely never face a jury.

DID WIFE FEIGN NIGHTMARE AS EXCUSE FOR SHOOTING?

Did Mrs. Daisy Grace for three weeks feign violent nightmares in an endeavor to lead up to the shooting of her husband in a supposedly accidental manner?

Did she carry out the ruse even after the mysterious shot was fired, and then abandon the plan when Grace was found not to be mortally wounded, and showed signs of rapidly recovering his faculties?

These two questions, involving one of the strangest and most uncanny stories ever revealed in the city, were the central items of interest in the minds of all Grace's friends Friday, and, indeed, in the public interest, since it was first suggested in The Constitution that there had been such a possibility.

Confirmation of Story.

Confirmation of Mrs. Grace's alleged plot was had Friday afternoon direct from the wounded man himself, lying almost at death's door in St. Joseph's infirmary, through Reuben R. Arnold, the attorney retained with Lamar Hill by the Grace family to represent their interest in recent developments.

For three weeks prior to the shooting of her husband, Mrs. Grace is said by him to have talked constantly of her violent nightmares, in which her former husband, Opie, was trying to reach her.

So vivid were her dreams, so realistic her terror, that she wanted to fight with all her strength, and she was nervous lest some night, in one of her agonies, she might "accidentally" injure her present husband, trying to protect herself from a former one, now dead. Indeed, it has been authoritatively learned that she mentioned the fact to Grace one morning after she said she had been suffering from her dreams.

"I might kill you at any time, Gene," Grace says that she told him.

On the morning of the shooting, when Grace awoke with the strange numbness in his side, which he thought was acute indigestion, he turned toward his wife at once for aid. At his movement, he says, his wife suddenly commenced to talk wildly, waving her arms about, apparently suffering torture from some subconscious fear of her former husband.

"Take him away; oh, take him away," she is reported to have moaned; but in a distinctly audible voice, unlike the ordinary tones of a sleep-talker.

"That's Opie; he's trying to get in; oh, take him away," she continued, as she rolled from side to side.

After she was awakened, and Grace, not dead, but very much alive, and recovering his senses from the mysterious stupor which enveloped him, no further mention was made of the nightmare.

Talked of Evil Dreams.

"Grace says that for possibly three weeks before last Tuesday, when he was shot," said Mr. Arnold in his office yesterday afternoon, "his wife talked constantly of her dreams, and how much she suffered in them.

"Opie, her former husband, was the central figure. He always appeared to be trying to get at her, to harm her, or something of that sort, sufficient, she said, to make her fear him. She impressed her husband that she was subject to these nightmares, and had no control over her actions.

"'Why I might kill you any time, Gene,' she told him one morning. On the very morning of the tragedy, so he tells me, when he awoke with that numb pain in his side, he heard her moaning apparently in her sleep.

"'Take him away; there's Opie about to get in,' was what she was saying. These nightmares must have been put on, surely, and her previous talk was for the purpose of leading up to the final moment."

rights and well-ordered liberty, and then led up to his discussion of the judiciary.

"It is a complete misunderstanding of our form of government," the president said, "or any kind of government that exalts justice and righteousness, to assume that judges are bound to follow the will of a majority of an electorate in respect of the issue for their decision.

The judiciary, he said, was not representative in the sense that the executive and the legislators were, whether judges be appointed or elected, because they must enforce the law as they found it.

"In many cases before the judges that temporary majority is a real party to the controversy to be decided," the president continued. "It may be seeking to deprive an individual or a minority of a right secured by the fundamental law. In such a case if the judges were mere representatives or agents of the majority to carry out its will they would lose their judicial character entirely and the so-called administration of justice would be a farce."

Judges Not Perfect.

At this point the president repeated his former declarations that the judicial system was not as perfect as it might be made and called attention to his speeches and messages to congress urging reform in procedure. He spoke of delays and the costs of litigation.

"But these humdrum defects and their tedious remedies," he declared, "are not of the spectacular character to call for political discussion or to attract effort from politicians in the passage of remedial legislation. The formidable attack upon our judiciary now is that the judges do not respond sufficiently to popular opinion. It is said that courts are interposing their obstructive power to the enforcement of legislation looking to the relief of the oppressed by declaring laws unconstitutional and by so-called judicial legislation in interpreting into statutes words not intended by the legislature."

Such charges, if reduced to specific instances, the president thought could be shown to be unfounded for the most part, but for the purposes of his discussion he might admit that courts had erred in that regard, had unduly broadened constitutional restrictions to invalidate useful statutes or had given to statutes a wrong construction.

"Indeed, I do not hesitate to say that I do not concur in the reasoning of certain courts of last resort as to the constitutional validity of certain social reform statutes, and I am very anxious that the remedies proposed in those statutes should be given effective operation."

The president then took up the proposed remedies, first the recall of judges and later the recall of judicial decisions. Than the recall of judges, he declared, there could not be a system better adapted to deprive the judiciary of "that independence without which the liberty and other rights of the individual cannot be maintained against the government and the majority."

Proposes Tribunal.

If the impeachment were too cumbersome a proceeding to apply to corrupt judges, he proposed a tribunal for the removal of judges for cause.

Of the recall of judicial decision President Taft said in part:

"This is a remarkable suggestion and one which is so contrary to anything in government heretofore proposed that it is hard to give to it the serious consideration which it deserves because of its advocates and of the conditions under which it is advanced.

"What this recall of decisions will amount to if applied to constitutional questions is that there will be a suspension of the constitution to enable a temporary majority of the electorate to enforce a popular but invalid act."

President Taft pointed out that the right of habeas corpus might be affected, or that a rich corporation seeking privileges in the development of a state—and he cited Alaska—might use such a condition to advantage.

"A most serious objection to the recall of decisions is that it destroys all probability of consistency in constitutional interpretation. The majority which sustains one law is not the majority which comes to consider another and the obligation of consistency of popular decision is one which would sit most lightly on each recurring electorate and the operation of the system would result in suspension of application of constitutional guaranties according to popular whim.

"We would have then a system of suspending the constitution to meet special instances. But the main argument used to sustain such a popular review of judicial decisions is that if the people are competent to establish a constitution they are competent to interpret it, and that this recall of decisions is nothing but the exercise of the power of interpretation.

A Fallacious Argument.

"This is clearly a fallacious argument. The approval of general principles in a constitution on one hand and the interpretation of a statute and consideration of its probable operation in a particular case and its possible infringement of a general principle on the other hand, are very different things.

"The one is simple, the latter complex; and the latter, when submitted to a popular vote, as already pointed out, is much more likely to be turned into an issue of general approval or disapproval of the act on its merits for the special purpose of its enactment than upon its violation of the constitution. Moreover, a popular majority does not adopt a constitution, or any principle of it, or amend its terms, until after it has been adopted by a constitutional convention or a legislature, and the final adoption is, and ought to be, surrounded with such checks and delays as to secure deliberation.

"Can it be that the power of a temporary majority of the electorate by a single popular vote to do away with rights secured to individuals which have been inviolable for seven hundred years since the days of the Magna Charta, approves itself to those who love liberty and who hold dear its sacred guaranties?

"Would we not in giving such powerful effect to the momentary impulse of a majority of an electorate, prepare the way for the possible exervise of the greatest tyranny?

"Finally, I ask what is the necessity for such a crude revolutionary, fitful and unstable way of reversing judicial construction of the constitution? Why, if the construction is wrong can it not be righted by constitutional amendment?

Dishonesty Assumed.

"An answer made to this is that the same judges would construe the amendment and defeat the popular will as in the first instances. This assumes dishonesty and a gross violation of their oaths of duty on the part of the judges, a hypothesis utterly untenable.

"I agree that we are making progress, and ought to make progress in the shaping of governmental action to secure greater equality of opportunity, to destroy the undue advantage of special privilege and of accumulated capital, and to remove obstructions to the pursuit of human happiness; and in working out these difficult problems we may possibly have, from time to time, to limit or narrow the breadth of constitutional guaranties in respect of property by amendment.

"But if we do it, let us do it deliberately, understanding what we are doing, and with full consideration and clear weighing of what we are giving up of private right for the general welfare. Let us do it under circumstances which shall make the operation of the change uniform and just, and not depend on the feverish, uncertain and unstable determination of successive notes on different laws by temporary and changing majorities.

"Such a proposal as this is utterly without merit or utility, and, instead of being progressive, is reactionary; instead of being in the interest of all the people and of the stability of popular government, is sowing the seeds of confusion and tyranny."

Taft in Chicago.

Chicago, March 8.—President Taft will be busy during his visit here tomorrow and Sunday.

The program for Saturday includes a political conference, an address to the students of Armour institute, a short speech at the Clay Products' Exposition at the coliseum, a noon reception by the Taft Club of Illinois, a reception at the Union League Club, a non-political address at an opera house mass meeting, a brief talk at the Press Club, an address to the Swedish-American League at a reception and memorial dinner. Sunday he will attend religious services in the morning and make two addresses, one to Polish childen, and another to the Bohemian Society in the afternoon.

The special train carrying the president will arrive at 7:40 a. m. Saturday and leave at 5:30 p. m Sunday.

On Arbitration Treaties.

Touching matters outside his prepared speech, President Taft told of his disappointment over the senate's amendment of the proposed arbitration treaties with Great Britain and France. He said:

"The senate's action makes it doubtful whether the treaties will be accepted by the countreis with which they are designed to deal and also makes it doubtful whether the chief executive of this country should proceed with them.

"The whole subject probably will have to be gone over again. I am not discouraged. I am merely disappointed. I believe the people were in favor of ratifying those treaties as they were. War is such a horrible method of settling controversies that the people want none of it if they can help it."

President Taft's appearance at the coliseum was attended by prolonged cheering and waving of myriads of small flags held up by the seat holders. Crowds of people were turned away because of the lack of seats for them.

CITY EXTENSION BRINGS ON FIGHT

annex includes the following sections:

Land lots 1 and 53, in the seventeenth district of Fulton county, and land lots 1, 2 and 243 in DeKalb county in the Druid Hills neighborhood; the settlement known as Ormewood to the southeast of the city; Capitol View, to the south of the city between the Central railroad and Stewart avenue; Lakewood Heights, to the south of the city; part of West End Park; six land lots in the Battle Hill district; the stockyard district, to the west of the city.

Hamilton Douglas and Judge E. C. Kontz spoke against any annexation at all at this time.

The following citizens spoke against the annexation of the Ormewood district: H. E. Stockbridge, E. L. Worsham, E. M. Horine, Dr. C. D. Coker, H. C. Blake.

Jeff Palmer spoke for the annexation of Ormewood.

Those who spoke against the annexation of the stockyard district were J. W. Patterson, of the Miller Union Stockyards; W. S. White, Jr., of the White Provision and Packing Company; H. S. Harper, of Harper Brothers. These gentlemen all claimed that they had been forced to move out of the city to carry on their business and now to take in their property would simply mean to confiscate it.

Councilman Chambers replied to this that a special law could be passed which would give the stockyard men and the packing houses the right to maintain their business in the territory after it was annexed.

Sentiment Was Divided.

The sentiment in regard to the annexation of the Capitol View settlement seemed to be divided. Dr. Clarence Stocks spoke for annexation and characterized those who live on the outskirts and make their living in the city and oppose annexation because of a little taxes, as "selfish and contemptible." John Shannon said he wanted to do what the majority wished. Mr. Freeman said that if a majority of the Capitol View people wanted to be annexed they certainly wanted the city to give them something in the way of improvements.

Nobody appeared either for or against the Lakewood Heights and the Battle Hill propositions.

W. E. Hancock spoke against the annexation of the Druid Hills district.

The strongest fight was made against the annexation of Ormewood, a thriving village of some 400 or 500 people. A petition was presented which showed that a large majority of the property owners in Ormewood were bitterly opposed to coming into Atlanta at this time. They claimed that Ormewood had a school which the city couldn't provide for, and that there would be no sewers or water pipes laid for several years. Most of the property owners, it was stated, were paying for their homes on the installment plan and were not able to pay taxes and yet get no city improvements.

Committee Is Split.

In the discussion that followed among the members of the committee it seemed that they were divided. Some wanted to annex a part of the territory under consideration. Others wanted to annex it all, while still others didn't want to annex any.

There were present Chairman Harvey Hatcher, Aldermen Warren, Raggsdale and VanDyke, Councilmen J. M. Wood, J. D. Sisson, A. D. Thomson and Aldine Chambers and Captain R. M. Clayton, the chief of construction.

Another meeting will be held next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, when the committee hopes to come to some agreement.

BODY OF MISSING BOY FOUND BY BOY SCOUTS

Florence, S. C., March 8.—The fate of Andrew Jackson, the 8-year-old boy who has been missing since Wednesday, was made known this afternoon, when boy scouts found his body in a freight car, on a disused track in the local yards of the Atlantic Coast Line railway. There are marks of violence on his body, but so far there is no clue to the perpetrator of the crime.

The body was found some six feet from the door of the car, as it had been thrown into the car. On the boy's back was a bruise as if from a heavy blow, while marks on the lad's throat indicated he had been choked to death after being knocked down.

A jury of inquest has been empanelled, but has made no progress in clearing up the mystery.

ATLANTANS BUSY CLEANING YARDS

oughly aroused to the necessity of cleaning up, thanks to the timely move made by The Constitution. He says that, having only twelve men to inspect yards, he could not have had worked such a unanimous moving on the part of the people but for the campaign started by The Constitution.

Now, have YOU a clean yard and a good garbage can?

If you have not, don't lose any time getting your yard clean and providing yourself with a can such as is required by the sanitary laws.

Mr. Hawkes Approves.

The Constitution is in receipt of the following strong communication from one of Atlanta's most progressive and public-spirited citizens:

"Editor Constitution: I read with unusual interest the editorial in your paper of March 5, giving your views of Atlanta needs, and believe, as you have expressed it, that civic improvement is not what is most needed in Atlanta at this time, although I would not discourage enterprise. Health comes first. Clean up the city. Our sidewalks are a disgrace to our great commonwealth. One-half of these should be condemned as dangerous, unsightly and insanitary. Our principal streets are filled with debris, dirt and filth, and if allowed to remain will be taken up by our prevailing winds, the air filled with deadly germs and breathed by the thousands of pedestrians that crowd our principal thoroughfares. I reiterate that Atlanta's greatest need is health and cleanliness. We are trying to run our great city on too cheap a scale. Atlanta has enough prosperity for the present; let us make a better city of what we have. The city ought to buy the block of property bounded by Jackson street and the Boulevard and owned by Mr. Coker, then beautify it for a children's public park. We should devote more time and thought to beautifying Atlanta, making it more attractive to visitors, and not emphasize so much the importance of commercialism. The city ought to be better lighted, particularly the business portion. Excepting Peachtree street, Whitehall, Marietta and Forsyth, the business portion is in almost total darkness. There are a hundred of other improvements that Atlanta needs, but the above, I think, are the most important.

"Yours very truly,

"A. K. HAWKES."

he has already swept Alabama, I will be very much surprised.

"The truth is," continued Mr. Cashman, "now that Mr. Underwood has been forced into the contest by the very logic of the situation, there is absolutely nothing for the south to do but to stand by him, for if he is not nominated it can be for no other possible reason than that he is a southern man. Thus if he is penalized it will be the whole south that is punished, and it is not like the south to join in the slapping of its own face.

The Logical Leader.

"As the leader of the democratic house and as the author of the Underwood tariff bills, which everybody concedes will be the main issue this year, he is naturally the man to lead the party in the national campaign, just as he was the man to lead the majority in getting these bills through the house.

"In what sort of a position would the south put itself if, after these bills are passed and the republicans begin to attack them, we should say that we cannot put the father of the bills to the front as their champion because he is a southern man? It would be a humiliating confession, and I for one do not believe the people of Georgia are willing to make it.

"If the Underwood bills are right, then Underwood was right in putting them through the house, and if he was right when leading the fight for them on the floor of the house, he is the right man to meet the attack against them in the forum of the nation.

Principle Nominated McKinley.

"It is that very thing that gave William McKinley the republican nomination for president. He was the author of the McKinley bill and he was the man who had to defend that bill before the people in the national campaign that fall. The republicans put him in the position where he could lead the fight before the nation, just as he had done in the house. Now the same thing is exactly true of Oscar Underwood, and if, as The Constitution has so often said, Underwood came from any state north of the Ohio river, there would not today be a single name mentioned against him for the democratic nomination.

"I am tired of such humiliating sectional abasement, and the strangest part of the whole thing is that you never hear this kind of an argument in the north. You have to come south to get it.

"While the T. P. A. is not in politics, and while I am not, of course, authorized to speak for anybody but myself, I can say that I have met any number of my brothers on the road who take exactly the same position. It certainly looks to me as if there was an Underwood fire all through Georgia, and that it is sweeping everything before it."

MISSING GIRL IS TRACED HERE

Athens, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—Louie Harris, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harris, of this city, who disappeared from home a few days ago, has been traced as far as Atlanta, where she bought a ticket for Cartersville. There has been no other word received from her or about her.

Miss Harris left home to go to a dentist's office and never reached the office. It is feared by her parents that she left to join a young man who recently left Athens and it is suspected that they are married. The mother is heartbroken over the disappearance of her daughter.

TRIED TO HOLD HIM UP, SAYS GEORGE APPLETON

A wad of $90, representing part of money he collected on a life insurance policy, inspired a trio of highwaymen to hold up George Appleton, of 59 Wyman street, in a dark spot on South Boulevard shortly after 7 o'clock last night. As the result of the adventure Millard Stephens, white, is locked up at central headquarters charged with attempted robbery, and is suffering from a slight bullet wound in the fleshy part of the right leg. Appleton says he inflicted the wound after he had been knocked down. The police are searching for Lester Moore, a brickmason; Nolan Morris, unknown occupation, and Bob Klines, a well-known police character.

"That hold-up story is a joke," Stephens said while being booked by Patrolmen McWilliams and Palmer "That guy was drunk, and someone hit him because he was cursing everybody out. No one tried to hold him up."

Appleton tells a different story. He went to the bank in the afternoon, drew $90. Later he displayed his roll, and Stephens and his pals followed hih, he says. He was knocked down by Stephens, he claims, but he got out his pistol and fired up at his assailant.

Mr. Carrington Weems gives in the February World's Work some sane facts about the coal situation in Alaska—his information based on a recent visit. Concerning the actual amount of coal in the region he says:

"Only one-fifth of Alaska has ever been surveryed geologically. How much coal the rest may contain no man can guess. From many scattered points within this area prospectors have reported coal discoveries. Upon well-established data, the head of the geological survey in Alaska states that the minimum of coal resurces should be placed at 150,000,000 tons, although the actual tonnage is likely to be many times that amount. There is good reason to believe that the coal deposits of the Arctic slope are more extensive than all the other fields combined, covering roughly 3,000 square miles. Of course, the large part of this coal, which is not easily accessible from the Pacific, is practically non-existent, as far as export trade is concerned, in the near future."

NEW YORK CITY SUES PENNSYLVANIA STEEL

New York, March 8.—The city of New York will endeavor to recover $2,890,000 from the Pennsylvania Steel Company, which built the big Queensboro bridge across the East river, for breach of contract. Papers filed in the United States district court here charge that the bridge is not up to contract specifications, and will require an additional expenditure of $2,500,000 to make it strong enough to bear the load contemplated by its designers. The city attorney characterizes the steel company's final certificate of acceptance as "false, untrue and fraudulent."

The amount thus far paid to the steel company for the bridge is about $5,900,000. The company is suing for a balance due on its contract of construction.

Long Staple in Texas.

Waco, Texas, March 8.—The success of long staple cotton experiments in the Texas black land sections was announced today by Maurice Falkner, well-known in Texas. He announced the sale at 19½ cents per pound of three bales of this cotton in New Orleans. His seed came from Terreon, Mexico, where the United States government has made some experiments in seed development.

UNITED STATES VIEWED AS THE "BIG POLICEMAN"

Chicago, March 8.—The United States as viewed by continental Europe is the "big policeman," according to United States Senator William J. Stone, of Missouri, in a speech here last night, so far as the destruction of life and property in Mexico are concerned.

Commenting on European opinion, the senator said he did not believe that there was cause for immediate intervention by the government in Mexican affairs. He also said that the United States must insist on protection not only of Americans and other foreign subjects, but of property. In conclusion he said:

"I do not see that anything can be done by this government so long as life, liberty and the rights of foreign subjects are not menaced."

Premonition Fulfilled.

Louisville, Ky., March 8.—While his wife was preparing his lunch Jack Combs, who had worked as a switchman in local yards here for 23 years, without an accident, told her he had a premonition that something was about to happen to him. Fifteen minutes after he reported for work last night he was picked up by a switching crew and found to be fatally injured. He had fallen between two box cars of a moving train.

TO FIX VALUATION OF ALL RAILWAYS

Bill Is Introduced Empowering Commerce Commission to Keep Tabs on Roads.

Washington, March 8.—Chairman Adamson, of the house commerce committee, today introduced a bill providing for a physical valuation of all the common carriers of the United States by the interstate commerce commission.

The bill authorizes the commission to employ such experts and help as may be necessary in a complete inquiry of the ownership of all railroads and other carriers. The bill is to discover the original investment in the carriers and its growth.

The names of persons who own stock, who serve as directors and their original investments and present holdings are to be inquired into. Stock and bond issues, bolding companies, transfers, mergers and every other point of modern industrial organization are enumerated as subjects to be investigated.

The commission is directed by the bill to get the valuation up to date and to keep it that way. The commission is empowered to subpoena persons and papers and to go into the business secrets of the railroads.

CLARK LEAVES FOR KENTUCKY

Speaker Will Deliver Campaign Speech Before the State Legislature Today.

Washington, March 8. — Speaker Champ Clark left Washington this afternoon for Frankfort, Ky., where he will make before the Kentucky legislature tomorrow one of the first set speeches of his campaign for the democratic presidential nomination. The speaker had delayed until today his decision to go to the Kentucky capital because of the possible press of public business.

Senator-elect Ollie James, of Kentucky will preside over the house during the speaker's absence.

Mr. Clark expects to return to Washington Monday.

Just before leaving the capitol to take a train for Frankfort the speaker appeared on the floor of the house. He held a modest reception in front of the rostrum, a number of members who were unable to congratulate him yesterday because of his hasty retreat from the floor, pressing forward to shake his hand.

"Well do you feel older today, Mr. Speaker?" inquired Representative Rucker, of Colorado.

"Not a solitary bit," replied Mr. Clark, patting him on the shoulder. "I'm younger than I ever was."

Two Convicts Escape.

Columbus, Ohio, March 8.—Sawing the bars of the window of their room on the fourth floor of the Columbus state hospital, Frank O'Neil, serving a life term for murder, and Charles Klein, who has served several terms for counterfeiting, escaped today. FREE RAW WOOL IS CONSIDERED

Indications Are That Bill Will Be Ratified by Democratic Caucus.

Washington, March 8.—Free raw wool to follow free sugar was reported today to be the program of house democrats. Although Chairman Underwood, of the ways and means committee, has been for a downward revision bill such as was passed last summer and vetoed by the president ,it is said a majority of the democrats of the committee insist that a free raw wool bill be submitted to the caucus and indications are that such a bill will be ratified.

With the $53,000,000 revenue which would be lost from sugar, provided for for by the proposed excise tax, the democrats are free to provide a duty on raw silk or rubber for the $20,000,000 estimated loss by placing raw wool on the free list.

Republican leaders have assailed the democrats for withholding a wool bill after the tariff board had reported. It is now explained that the democrats who insisted on a free raw wool bill were so much in the majority and so insistent that some means had to be found to obviate all the difficulties.

Democratic Leader Underwood and other members of the ways and means committe decline to discuss the plan just as they did in the raw sugar tariff deliberations, but that such a plan is under consideration was admitted by members in touch with the situation.

G. W. PEACE MAY WIN AUDUBON PIGEON AWARD

A reward of $1,500 offered by the National Association of Audubon Societies for the finder of a single nest of the passenger pigeon, may be won by G. W. Peace, who is in charge of the "ad" room of The Constitution.

"I have located the haunt of a pair of passenger pigeons," Peace declared returning from a hunting expedition on the Yellow river, near Haynes creek, recently. "Am I sure the birds were the much sought after passenger pigeon? Well, my father was an authority on birds, and from what he taught me, and the fact that I have seen the wild pigeon years ago, I am certain that the pigeons I saw were of the passenger variety."

The birds were seen by Peace on February 29, last, in Newton county, about 3 miles from Covington. They were flying toward Covington, and paused several times. The birds did not appear to be wild, a characteristic of the passenger pigeon, declare bird experts. He succeeded in getting within 60 feet of the birds.

The description given by Peace is almost identical with the hand books of the Audubon Society. He declared that the birds were not quite as large as the common pigeon. Their color was brownish gray, with long tail feathers of black, brown and white.

Peace sighted the birds at 10 o'clock, and followed them a considerable distance.

The reward has been standing two years. It closed on December 1, 1911, but will be reopened. There is only one passenger pigeon in captivity, and it belongs to the Cincinnati Zoological Gardens. It is an 18-year-old female. Peace is confident that the birds can be caught. He is not seeking the reward, and will gladly give all information possible to the Audubon Societies.

3 KILLED, MANY HURT IN WILMINGTON WRECK

Wilmington, N. C., March 8.—In a head-on collision in the local yards of the Atlantic Coast Line here early tonight between an in-coming passenger train from Fayetteville, N. C., and a relief engine being sent out from the shops to the assistance of a train disabled on another division, H. B. Goodnight, foreman of the railroad shops in this city, in charge of the relief engine, and Engineer J. B. Williams and his fireman, Bordon Branch, white, all of Wilmington, were instantly killed. The fireman of the relief engine is missing, and is certain to be buried in the debris. A score or more passengers on the in-coming train were badly shaken up, but none seriously injured. Responsibility for the wreck has not been placed.

WHITE SLAVE CASE MADE AT TAMPA

Tampa, Fla., March 8.—Marion Lawrence, who conducts a questionable resort here, pleaded guilty to a charge of violating the "white slave" law today in the federal court. Judge Locke announced that he will sentence her Monday. Ethel Evans, a sister of the accused, who was jointly indicted with her, was nolle prossed.

The charge against the Lawrence woman grew out of the detaining of Pearl Snyder, of Louisville, Ky., who said she was induced to come here to work in a boarding house by Edna Shelley, cashier at a moving picture show, who pleaded guilty in Louisville and was fined $200.

NAVY OF GERMANY TO BE EXPANDED

Sixty-One Instead of 58 Big Ships, With 40 Protected Cruisers.

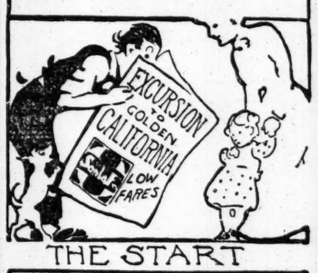

Cologne, Germany, March 8.—The text of the proposed new naval law is published today in The Wolks Zeitung, which declares it received the information from clerical members of the reichstag. Under its provisions the German navy is to be expanded from fifty-eight to sixty-one big ships, with forty protected cruisers instead of thirty-eight.

The new law provides for:

A battle fleet consisting of a flagship and five squadrons of eight battleships each, ten first-class cruisers and thirty protected cruisers. The fleet for service in foreign waters is to be composed of ten first-class cruisers and ten protected cruisers.

Three active squadrons and one reserve squadron, together with a flagship, making in all thirty-three battleships, are to be kept constantly in commission. Two extra armored cruisers are to be stationed abroad.

THOMASVILLE PARTY ON MOTORBOAT TRIP

Thomasville, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—William Miller and his son, Graham, who made the trip on the Ochlocknee river from Thomasville to the gulf in a motorboat, have returned and report a very pleasant trip.

Mr. Miller says that the only drawback was that the river was almost too high, as in two places it was impossible to get under the railroad trestles crossing the river and they were forced to get the boat out and carry it around. He thinks that when the river is only moderately full the trip can be made with the greatest ease and comfort.

Another Increase in Oil.

New York, March 8.—Standard Oil Company, of New York, today advanced refined petroleum in cases twenty points to 10.10 cents per gallon and in barrels ten points to 8.20 cents. No change was made in the bulk price—4.60 cents.

Berck Plage, France, March 8.—Henri Salvey, who yesterday traveled in his monoplane from London to Paris, a distance of 222 miles, in 2 hours and 57 minutes, and then started on the return journey from Paris to London, but was compelled to land owing to the violence of the wind, started again this morning to cross the channel for England.

Wants Divorce From Two.

Louisville, Ky., March 8.—Mrs. Marie M. Lewis is seeking legal separation from two husbands in the circuit court here. She filed suit for divorce yesterday against Clyde E. Lewis, of Paris, Ill., to whom she was married September 1, 1909, and instituted proceedings to annual an alleged subsequent marriage to George F. Rude, of Indianapolis. She said she was 16 when she married Lewis, a lawyer, who she said told her that on account of her age the marriage was void. She alleges that she married Rude in July, 1910.

WICKERSHAM'S JIM-CROW ASSUMPTION.

Common boorishness and wanton misuse of the prestige of his high office struggle for mastery in the attempt of the United States attorney general to foist the negro Lewis upon the American Bar Association. Exhibiting a total lack of the ordinary proprieties, he is using the official stationery of the government for circulars with which to bombard officers and members of the association with clamorous and sophistical appeals for the reinstatement of Lewis, who was, very properly, dropped from the membership rolls after the executive committee discovered he had been elected under a misapprehension. This being presidential year, it is needless to look far for the attorney general's immediate motive. But it would seem that the appointment of Lewis as an assistant attorney general of the United States had sufficiently satisfied political exigencies. The attempt to thrust him bodily into a national organization that is preeminently jealous of its dignity and its social standards, and to employ the influence of the nation's legal department as a lever to that end, is a display of petty jim-crow politics as unique as it is indefensible.

Under the simple style of "W. H. Lewis," and with a careful avoidance of any parade of his race, the attorney general's favorite assistant was slipped past the executive committee of the American Bar Association. It was not long before multiplying protests from lawyers of distinction, irrespective of section, apprised the committee of the imposition practiced upon it. Since, to quote the attorney general himself, one of the primary purposes of the association is to "encourage cordial intercourse among the members of the American bar"; and since no "cordial intercourse" is possible where a considerable majority of the members are unalterably opposed to social equality between the races; and since social equality would have been inevitable in the social functions which form so distinct a part of the association's state and national gatherings—the committee had no alternative other than to rescind its action.

No sooner had the committee thus placed itself on record, than the attorney general instituted a systematic campaign for the reinstatement of his assistant. In the nature of the case he must be aware that his effort will be unsuccessful. But, in the meantime, he is playing to the negro electoral grandstand, unwarrantedly perverting the prestige attached to his high office in the pursuit of purely political ends. He even goes so far as to intimate that in the event Lewis is not reinstated he will himself resign from membership in the association. Conclusive as is the sentiment against letting down the racial bars in the association, it is open to debate if the members, given the choice between the attorney general and his protege, would not accept the latter. They would be almost justified as an expression of their resentment at witnessing the kicking about of the ideals and precedents of their organization for cheap political capital.

COVINGTON'S COMMENDABLE EXAMPLE.

How the towns and cities of Georgia are catching the wholesome contagion of the "clean up and keep clean" idea, demanded by The Constitution for Atlanta, is indicated in a letter from Mayor George T. Smith, of Covington.

Through co-operation between the Woman's Civic Improvement Club and the municipal authorities, March 14th has been fixed as the day upon which the entire town transforms itself into a scrubbing brigade, in behalf of health and in antagonism to dirt and disease. An unusual and effective plan is that whereby prizes are offered young boys who bring in the largest number of old cans and bottles and other rubbish to a designated place. The enlisting of young America in the cleaner town movement is a happy thought, and might well be adopted by other cities. Get the youngsters interested, and there will be such an overturning of the ancient and disease-inviting accumulations in back yards and old fields as has not occurred in many a day.

Covington's activity should be duplicated in every town, every city, every hamlet and county in Georgia. The Constitution has already warmly commended the plea of Dr. H. F. Harris, secretary of the state board of health, that all Georgia unite in such broadside sanitation as will banish the typhoid fly and the malarial mosquito, not to mention other sources and conveyors of diseases innumerable. Were the Covigton plan followed scrupulously and universally, the death rate in Georgia would be destined to a vigorous application of the pruning hook.

MR. BRANTLEY'S RETIREMENT.

State-wide regret willl be manifest over the announcement that the Hon. W. G. Brantley, for many years representative of the eleventh Georgia congressional district, has decided not to stand for reelection. As an incisive and indefatigable student of national affairs, familiar with legislative machinery and independent in action, he has created for himself a unique place in the confidence, not only of the people of Georgia, but of the whole country.

Mr. Brantley has served with ability and distinction upon the leading house committees, notably the committee on ways and means and the committee on judiciary. To the vital problems constantly demanding the attention of both bodies, he has brought a quick and well equipped mind and a vigilant fidelity to duty. On the floor of the house his reputation as a strong debater and an apt parliamentarian has been reinforced by an intellectual poise and fearlessness at once rare and effective. His district, the state and the party lose a valuable and energetic servant in his retirement to private life.

The good will and esteem of his associates and of the people of Georgia generally will follow him in his return to the practice of law, in which exacting profession he has earned for himself a rating fully commensurate with his high standing in the realm of statesmanship. His long service in the house and the prominence of his part in its deliberations has deepened and ripened his legal knowledge and better than ever equipped him to take his place at the very forefront of his profession.

CHINA AND THE WORLD'S PLEDGE.

Almost coincidentally with the passage by the house of representatives of the Sulzer resolution congratulating the Chinese people upon the attainment of self-government, England, Russia, Germany and Japan signified their intention of co-operating with the United States in preserving the integrity of what has now become the Chinese republic. It is cause for gratification that the initiative in this matter came from our own government. Since we have consistently proven our disinterested friendship to the Chinese, and since it was America that gave civilization its first great demonstration of popular government, it is appropriate in every respect that America should take the lead in sponsoring China in those trials incident to an epochal change of government.

What will be the effect of the agreement it now appears will be reached between these five world-powers is problematical. The diplomatic note from Washington, upon which preliminary action has been taken, suggests that in all movements involving foreign intervention the powers signatory shall not work to individual advantage and shall adopt no course menacing the present integrity of the country. It remains now to be seen if this understanding will enjoin the land-hunger of Europe, and also of Japan.

The latter nation, as well as Russia, lately assumed an attitude that could plainly be construed as an attempt to take advantage of internal dissensions in China to precipitate the long-prophesied dismemberment of that nation. If the initiative of the United States shall prove successful in curbing the predatory instincts of these two powers, and the Far Eastern ambitions that both Germany and England are known to be nursing, the destiny of China as an independent state is secure.

Apparently, moreover, the clearing up of the foreign attitude toward China has come at a moment particularly propitious. All factions in the new republic appear nearer agreement than at any time since disaffection has been manifest. The next few months, years rather, will be those in which constructive Chinese statesmanship will be confronted with its most important tasks. If the specter of foreign intervention and rapacity is safely dissipated, these four hundred million-odd people will be left to work out new and huge problems free of interference, save of the most friendly nature.

"Just From Georgia"

The Race Track Squad.

Such a racing! Bless yer soul—the racers we're not timing;
Put a office on a greasy pole, they all would go to climbing!

It's "Rise and run
To beat the band,
While there's one office
On Jordan's stormy
Banks they stand,—
They're hurricanes at runnin'!

The roarin' rivers are to cross, the ferryboat's in place, sir;
No Georgia or Kentucky hoss can run so fast a race, sir!

It's "Run, boys, run
And raise the sand,
And foot the big bills
For the band;"
On Jordan's stormy
Banks they stand,—
They'll beat the winds a-runnin'!

Letters to Congressmen.

Following is a letter from a Billville constituent to his home congressman:

"You hain't been seen in these diggin's more'n twice since you were elected,—an' even then you 'lowed you wuz on 'a flyin' trip,' an' couldn't stop only long enough to lay in a good dinner, an' this is to let you know that I superintended the fixin' of yer fences, which were in bad need o' repairs, an' I figger that the work is worth a dollar a day anyhow, an' it foots up 'bout three weeks, at this writin'. As we see by the papers that congress ain't a-doin' of nuthin' now, we think you might come down an' help us plant the seed you sent us, though to tell the God's truth, we don't believe ary bit of it'll come up. You don't seem to know much about seed up there, an' it's the gin'rul opinion that you wouldn't send a package if you had to pay the freight. Howsomever, we have no more hard feelin's to'rds you than usual, an' wish you as well as could be expected, under the circumstances. The world owes every man a-livin', an' here's hopin' you'll git what's comin' to you. The folks in your district say you shore will!"

The Word of the Wilderness

To hopes that cheat us, more or less,
Not forever clinging,
The ax so bright keeps, day and night,
The wilderness a-ringing!

Day and night
This word rings right:
"Hew the pathway to the light!"

Not for the drowsy, dreamy race
The flowers all fine are springing;
Keep—if it be your dwelling place,
The wilderness a-ringin'!

Dark or bright,
This word rings right:

COVINGTON IN THE VAN OF "CLEANING-UP" MOVEMENT

Editor Constitution: Your editorial in Tuesday's paper in regard to cleaning up Atlanta streets and yards for the protection of the health of your city is timely and certainly very important.

Our little city had already started such a movement through the Woman's Civic Improvement Club in conjunction with the city authorities.

The prizes that we are offering the boys for the largest number of old cans and bottles have set the boys afire with enthusiasm, and while the announcement is only three days old, I am informed that some of the boys have already collected over 2,000 old cans.

The ladies have become dismayed at the immensity of their job of counting cans and bottles and are seeking a way by which they can measure them by the bushel or barrel. The boys have dubbed it "Tin can day."

What do you think of starting, through your paper, a movement to set a date for all Georgia to have a general cleaning up? I believe it feasible, and if all will help we can present Georgia to the world as a clean state, in that respect at least.

I just wanted you to know that Covington is with you when it comes to cleaning up.

GEORGE T. SMITH,
Mayor.
Covington, Ga., March 7, 1912.

JAMES JEFFERSON GETS RESPITE TO MARCH 29

Governor Brown yesterday granted to James Jefferson, of Columbus, sentenced to be hanged on March 13, for the murder of Policeman Marion Marchant, a respite until Friday, March 29.

The governor granted this respite of his own initiative in order that he might have full time to examine into the case before reaching a conclusion as to whether Jefferson's sentence should be commuted to life imprisonment.

The case has been hard fought on both sides. While a strong array of citizens and friends of Jefferson's family has sought clemency in his behalf, it has been strongly opposed by the police of that city who employed a lawyer to present an argument against it.

FIGHT OF "IRONCLADS" TO BE COMMEMORATED

Washington, March 8.—Tomorrow being the fiftieth anniversary of the battle between the Monitor and Merrimac, the American Society of Naval Engineers will make its annual dinner to be given here tomorrow night, a celebration of the event which revolutionized naval warfare. If possible, a survivor from the crew of each of the first real "ironclads," will be present.

Secretary of the Navy Meyer will be one of the speakers and the diners will include, besides all of the bureau chiefs of the navy department, many senators and representatives and others prominent in civil life.

JUDGE PARKER WILL BE IN CONGRESSIONAL RACE

Waycross, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—Upon his return to Waycross tonight from Coffee county, Judge T. A. Parker authorized the statement that he will be a candidate for congressman from the eleventh district and will make his formal announcement shortly.

Judge Parker has had the matter under advisement for some time and has flattering promises of support from all parts of the district. The announcement from Congressman William G. Brantley that he would retire came as a great surprise to many, but had been known to his close friends here for several months.

PRICE THANKS FRIENDS; IS IN THE RACE TO STAY

Hon. J. D. Price, of Farmington, Oconee county, in thanking his friends for the support given him in connection with his application for appointment as commissioner of agriculture, takes occasion to state that he is in the race for that position to the finish, and proposes to make as thorough a campaign of the state as possible between now and the state primary.

"I want to say that my many strong friends over the state came promptly to my support in connection with my application for appointment as commissioner of agriculture, and I am most gratefully appreciative of their support. I thank each one of them.

"While Governor Brown saw fit not to appoint me, I do not feel at all chagrined, as I could not have accepted under the condition which, I understand, was imposed, namely, that the appointee should not be a candidate for the office in the coming primary.

"I shall continue to push my candidacy for the long term subject to the primary in August, and I earnestly ask my friends to give me their support in the election. If elected, I shall endeavor to give a fair and progressive administration of the affairs of the department. I have all my life been a farmer and have no other interests now. I feel that we must especially look after the needs of the "one-horse farmer," who is one of the great mainstays of the state. It is my ambition to render the state my best service in her future development along these lines."

Saturday is "Man's Day" All Over America

By J. R. HAMILTON

ON Saturday the merchants of every city are more finical about pleasing the man than any woman could be.

Thousands of men are reading this page now. How many of you, or how few of you, realize the effort that has been expended merely to attract your eye.

Buyers have gone all the way to London and have tramped up and down Bond Street till their heels were sore, just to find something different in silks for your new spring tie. Chemists and mechanics and manufacturers and merchants have schemed and plotted and planned for a year to lower the price of a pair of socks for you. The clothes you are going to buy today have formed the very crux of the tariff fight on wool.

Long after many of you were asleep last night windows were being trimmed and retrimmed under critical eyes in order that you might stop and look for a moment this morning as you walked along.

Artists and writers and buyers have racked their brains to do the thing that will please you most.

And here in this paper you are reading now are the stories of what they have done. Their advertising news on page after page is a report to you of their efforts.

Every line is worthy of your attention and vital interest. Some merchants have saved you money; others have given you better goods; some of them, for real business reasons, have cut the profit on their own goods clear down to the quick.

There is no advertisement in this paper too small for you to notice. The thing that the small merchant has to offer may be the best of all. There is no advertisement too large for you to study carefully, because the big merchant has to put big thought upon what he has said and done.

So look them over, page by page, these advertisements, and make your choice from here. For these are the men who will give you the most or the best for your money---these men who advertise. They are the master merchants of this city, large and small; the men who had the courage to dare---and the ability to accomplish.

But this is not all a "man's day"---never fear,
For a "woman's day" is every day in the year.

Little Items of Georgia Cities

Want Better Service.

Waycross, Ga., March 8.—(Special.) Much interest is being taken in the approaching "transportation convention" to be held in Waycross March 13. Quite a number of cities of this section will be represented and officials of several roads will attend. The movement for better passenger train service, especially between Florida points and Waycross, has strong support, and will probably result in some action looking to additional service.

Big Chautauqua Planned.

Waycross, Ga., March 8.—(Special.) In addition to the usual program furnished by chautauquas, the one to be held in Waycross in June will have a large number of local and district contests. Two big days are being planned, one to be known as "governor's day," and the other as "military day." The program will extend over a period of seven days.

35 Miles of Sidewalk.

Waycross, Ga., March 8.—(Special.) Work is now well under way on the city's 35-mile job of cement sidewalks. Streets in the fourth ward are getting attention first and others will be cared for as rapidly as possible. The contract will probably be increased to some extent, as quite a number of parties living on streets not included in the sidewalk paving ordinance have asked to be included.

Georgian Is Honored.

Waycross, Ga., March 8.—(Special.) Former Senator George W. Deen today accepted the appointment as chief speaker on the subject of drainage at the approaching Southern Commercial Congress convention at Nashville. He was named by Governor Brown to tell of the drainage work in Georgia, and will also deliver the same address at the National Drainage Congress in New Orleans in April.

New Home for Prisoners.

Waycross, Ga., March 8.—(Special.) Sheriff Pittman today moved all prisoners from the old to the new county jail, just completed at a cost of $35,000. The jail is connected with the courthouse by an overhead bridge, and is convenient in all appointments. The structure is a three-story one, perfectly sanitary. Connected with the jail is a home for the jailer.

Another Boys' Corn Club.

Griffin, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—A meeting will be held at the county courthouse in this city Saturday morning for the purpose of organizing a boys' corn club for Spalding county. Much interest has been manifested, and it is probable that the corn club will start off with a large membership.

New Well at Griffin.

Griffin, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—Griffin has just finished boring a third well which has proven a success, giving a continuous flow of water, which, together with the other bored wells and the spring, gives a flow of 400 gallons of pure water per minute, furnishing an adequate water supply to the city for several years to come.

378 Have Hookworm.

Moultrie, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—That the first estimate of the number of hookworm cases in this county was not exaggerated is borne out by the number that are now under treatment by Dr. Abercrombie, of the state board of health. During the three weeks that he has been giving his time to the treatment of cases he has prescribed for and treated 378 persons, and has examined more than a hundred suspected cases.

Anti-Spitting Law.

Moultrie, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—The city council has passed on the first and second reading an ordinance prohibiting spitting on the sidewalk or on the floors of public places. This has been an evil that the ladies of the city have complained of for some time, and in response to a request from the Worth While Club the ordinance was introduced.

U. C. V. Officers Named.

Lyerly, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—At the annual meeting of Camp John S. Cleghorn, No. 422, United Confederate Veterans, all the old officers were re-elected, as follows: H. A. Brownfield, commander; G. A. Ragland, first lieutenant; T. J. Anderson, second lieutenant; A. F. Hamilton, third lieutenant; W. H. Owings, fourth lieutenant; G. J. Moyers, adjutant; T. K. Weathers, quartermaster; Dr. R. Y. Rudicil, surgeon; Dr. J. C. Calhoun, assistant surgeon; M. A. C. Bennett, chaplain; H. V. Rambo, treasurer; W. H. Strain, color sergeant; G. J. Wilson, sergeant major. Delegates to the annual reunion, to be held in Macon, May 7-9, were elected as follows: J. N. Tallaferro, F. F. Maxey, T. J. Wosham. Alternates, G. J. Moyers, W. H. Atkinson, R. H. Johnson. E. N. aMrtin was elected honorary member of the camp.

Dalton Boy Scouts.

Dalton, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—Will Sapp left this morning for Chattanooga in charge of a large number of "Boy Scouts." They go to attend the Christian Forward Movement.

Fowler Wanted at Rome.

Rome, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—Robert G. Fowler, the aviator who made the trip from the Pacific to the Atlantic ocean, may come to Rome for one day. The date he is wanted here is March 22.

Big Mass Meeting.

Griffin, Ga., March 8.—Special.)—Rev. John S. Jenkins, missionary secretary of the North Georgia Conference, who is conducting a whirlwind canvass of the districts in the North Georgia Conference, assisted by Presiding Elder Walton and Pastor King, will hold a great mass meeting at the First Methodist church in Griffin Monday night, March 18. Delegates will be here from various parts of the district, and homes are already being secured for them in the private homes of the city.

Big Sign Company.

Rome, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—The latest addition to Rome's list of industries is a sign making factory. The United Sign Manufacturing Company will be incorporated next week with $25,000 capital. The incorporators are Charles E. Thurman, of Los Angeles, Cal.; C. S. Sparks, of Rome, and Frank Sparks, of Chattanooga. They will select a lot suitable for the purpose and erect their own building.

J. A. CRAWFORD NEW DALTON POSTMASTER

Washington, March 8.—(Special.)—J. A. Crawford was today confirmed as postmaster at Dalton.

RECKLESS FIRE HAD NO CHANCE

This Blaze Broke Out in General Fire Extinguisher Building.

The bravest fire Atlanta ever knew broke out in a Marietta street building Friday morning.

Few, indeed, have been the fires with hardihood sufficient to break out in a fire engine house, but Atlanta can now lay claim to an even more reckless blaze—one that had the temerity to make its appearance in a building occupied exclusively by a fire distinguisher company. The fire didn't last long enough to become serious, to be sure, but it showed its good intentions, nevertheless.

The building at 276 Marietta street is occupied by the Atlanta agency of the General Fire Extinguisher Company, and it was here that the fire broke out. On the fourth floor of the building there was a large quantity of tar-covered jute and hemp, and in this the fire originated. Two floors below, the employees of the company were entirely ignorant of what was taking place, but the automatic sprinkling device, of which the company makes a specialty, was on the job instanter.

Then the Fire Perks Up.

With no one to interfere the fire perked up considerably, and in a very short time the temperature of the room had risen considerably. When it reached 135 degrees, however, the automatic sprinklers got busy and, by the time the employees were attracted by the volumes of smoke that began to pour from the building, the smoke was all that was left of the fire.

The sprinklers are attached to water pipes running along the ceiling of the building. A temperature of 135 degrees will melt out a plug in the sprinkler and turn on the water. This is what happened in the company's office, and checked the fire in its incipiency.

Had it not been for the automatic sprinklers, the fire would, most probably, have spread to dangerous proportions, as the smoke emitted from the burning jute and hemp is so dense as to make the fighting of fire from this material indoors all but impossible.

Another Strange Flrt.

Another of the strangest fires Atlanta has ever known—strange because it caught, threatened a whole block in the heart of the city, and was put out without anyone's ever knowing of its existence until hours afterwards—was handled by the automatic sprinklers of the General Fire Extinguisher Company. This was a fire which gained a little headway in the rear of Chamberlin--Johnson-DuBose's store when Oscar Barnes' store just in the rear burned. The fire in the department store made little headway because it originated almost immediately under an automatic sprinker, and was entinguished as soon as it caught. That the store had been seriously menaced was not known for some time afterwards.

MILLS WILL GIVE 7 PER CENT RAISE

Others to Follow Lead of the American Woolen Company in Lawrence.

Lawrence, Mass., March 8.—The average increase of 7 per cent in wages promised by the American Woolen Company to striking employees will be equaled by most of the other textile mills here. Readjustment of the wage system at the Pacific mills will provide an average increase of possibly 8 per cent, it is learned.

These facts have not been communicated officially to the strikers, however, except by the American Woolen Company. President Wood, of that company, will confer with a committee of striking employees in Boston again tomorrow.

Guido Mazzarelli, an organizer for the Industrial Workers of the World, was brought here from Lynn today by the state police, charged with being an accessory to an assault with intent to kill two metropolitan police officers, February 26. Salvatore Bruno is held as the principal in this shooting, in which several volleys of revolver shots were poured from tenement house windows into a detachment of officers. Mazzarelli, who addressed a mass meeting the day before the shooting, is charged with having incited Bruno by advising the strikers to arm themselves.

ESCAPE OF CONVICTS THWARTED BY NEGRO

Lawrenceville, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—A wholesale delivery of prisoners in the Gwinnett county jail was narrowly averted here today by the timely discovery of the men at work. A negro cook, in passing the rear of the jail heard a noise on the inside and reported the matter to the jailer's wife, who promptly telephoned Sheriff Garner at the courthouse, where court was in session. The sheriff found the prisoners had dug a large hole almost through the wall, using a piece of wire and some sharp sticks to remove the brick and mortar.

There are six white men and four negroes in the jail and during the day they are allowed to use corridors, but since their attempt to escape have all been locked in cells.

NEW GAS COMPANY ORGANIZED AT ATHENS

Athens, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—The Athens Gas Company is being reorganized and an application has been filed for charter for the Athens Gas, Light and Fuel Company, capitalized at $250,000. The petitioners for incorporation are John Gribbel, F. Newburger and W. H. Roberts, all of Pennsylvania. They will take over the present gas company, which is owned largely by a few Michigan capitalists. The new company will double the plant and extend the line and in the increased territory they expect to reach they will be able to reduce the rate.

WALKER DENIES GUILT TO LAST

"Jesus, Save Me," Were Last Words of Alleged Wife Murderer.

Macon, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—At four minutes after 11 o'clock this morning William B. Walker, a white man 40 years of age, died on the gallows in the Bibb county jail for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Alma Walker. She died on Sunday morning, August 21, 1910, as the result of burns. Walker was convicted in the Bibb superior court of having poured gasoline on her, then applying a match.

The man was baptized by a Catholic priest this morning and was in communion with him for more than an hour. If he confessed the world will never know, since the clergyman declines to talk.

However, on the gallows Walker repeated his protestations of innocence. "Have you anything to say?" he was asked by the sheriff. "I've said it all before, Jimmy, and I say it now," he declared in a strong voice. "God bless you. May we meet in heaven. Lord, forgive them, for they know not what they do. Jesus save me," were his dying words. After the fall the body did not quiver. Death was instantaneous. The neck was broken at the base of the skull.

Pursuant to Walker's last request the undertaker declined to allow a morbid crowd to view the body. The body was taken to Milner, Ga., on the 1:30 o'clock Central of Georgia train and will be buried there tomorrow morning beside the dead man's mother, who died six days after he was convicted. For two hours before the hanging, which was in strict privacy, there was an immense crowd around the jail, probably more than a thousand persons.

Bids for Mercer.

Macon, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—The mayor and council have been asked by L. R. Chester, of Columbus, chairman of the Mercer removal committee, to submit a bid for Macon for Mercer university. The mayor will submit the letter to council Tuesday night, but it is hardly likely that any action will be taken. In fact, it is practically certain that Macon will not submit a bid for the university and will not resist its removal to another city, should such be decided upon. The letter stated that the committee was now open to receive bids from any city in Georgia.

FOUR ROME BOYS ARE AT MINES IN MEXICO

Rome, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—Rome people are particularly interested in Mexican affairs on account of the fact that three young men left here for the Ladura mines, in the state of Chihuahua, early in January. They were Joe Fahy, Albert Fahy, sons of Thomas Fahy, of this city, and Horace Park, a resident of East Rome. The last word received from any of the trio was January 28. Since then nothing has been heard, and their friends and relatives in Rome are naturally uneasy on account of the disturbed state of the country. The mines are located nine days' journey from the railroad over a trail impassable except for burros. When last heard from they had accomplished about one-fourth of the difficult journey from the railroad station to the mines. Since that time nothing has been heard from them.

BIG RAID MADE ON MOONSHINERS

Rome, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—One of the biggest distillery raids of the past twelve years in north Georgia was made Thursday morning in Walker county, near the Gordon county line, in what is known as the "pocket," by Revenue Collector A. J. Spence and Deputy Marshal W. L. Cape.

They captured a huge still, confiscated 200 gallons of wine and destroyed 1,000 gallons of beer, arresting four of the operatives. Three of them, W. W. Stansell, L. B. Ramsey and W. W. Townsend, were brought to Rome today by officers and taken before United States Commissioner J. C. Printup. Each of them were held under $200 bond to appear at the next term of the federal court. All of their bonds were made and the parties returned to their homes.

One of the four captured was a 15-year-old boy, son of W. W. Townsend, who was brought to Rome. The boy was allowed to go free. All of the men own considerable property, each of them being worth about $3,500. The huge copper still was cut to pieces by the officers and the beer and wine destroyed.

MRS. EMMET BROGDON, Dist. Sec.
MRS. ALONZO RICHARDSON.

To Miss Marjorie Brown.

One of the most beautiful of the season's debutante parties was the supper given by Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Arnold last night at the Capital City Club in compliment to Miss Marjorie Brown.

The supper followed a theater party to see John Drew, and the guests, who occupied several boxes, were: Miss Diane Tate of New York, Miss Marjorie Brown, Miss Harriet Calhoun, Miss Esther Smith, Miss Mary Traylor, Miss Sarah Rawson, Miss Passie May Ottley, Miss Alice May Freeman, Mr. Arthur Clarke, Mr. Stuart Witham, Mr. Saunders Jones, Mr. James Harris, Mr. Horton Matthewson, Mr. Joe Colquitt, Mr. Charlie Cox and Mr. Ernest Ottley.

The table decoration was an airy and exquisite expression of the "butterfly-debutante" idea, and the colors, which seem to belong, of right to the debutante—pink and white—prevailed in elaborate detail.

The large central decoration and minor pieces at each end were mounds of double pink murillo tulips and double white stocks. Bows of pink tulle were caught in the midst of the flowers and poised on invisible wires in the tulle were pink butterflies flecked with silver. The stems of compotes and wine glasses were tied with little bows of pink tulle, on which the butterflies fluttered, and the place cards were butterflies.

Mrs. Arnold was a lovely hostess, her gown a French model in yellow chiffon veiled with gold lace, the drapery caught with French rosebuds.

To Visitors.

Miss Laura Cowles was hostess at afternoon tea yesterday at the Piedmont Driving Club, her guests including an attractive group of visiting young women and their hostesses—Miss Lucy Hoke Smith, Miss Annie Lee McKenzie, Miss Marion King of Washington, Miss Laura Ansley, Miss Diane Tate of New York, Miss Marjorie Brown, Miss Anne Barnett of Washington, Ga., Miss Elizabeth Brown of Pittsburg, Miss Emily Winship and Miss Pearl Wilkinson of San Antonio.

The tea table had artistic decoration in green. The centerpiece was of ferns, the silver candlesticks had green shades, and the ices and candies were green.

Miss Stephens Entertains.

Miss Nan Stephens' bridge party yesterday afternoon was a delightful occasion, and a compliment to her attractive guest, Miss Marjorie Mulford, of New York.

The hospitable atmosphere of the occasion was brightened by an artistic use of flowers, and delicious refreshments were served after the game at the card tables, each table lighted by a pink-shaded candlestick. The candles and ices were pink and white. Pink hyacinths and begonias growing in baskets and jardinieres decorated the music room; potted primroses were used with quaint effect in the dining room; jonquils were an inviting suggestion in the hall, and in the library were growing pink and white begonias.

The bridge prizes were brass basket jardinieres holding jonquils, and the guest of honor was presented a book.

Miss Stephens was becomingly gowned in cream poplin embroidered in blue and black. Miss Mulford wore blue marquisette embroidered.

In the evening Miss Stephens invited a small party for tea to meet Miss Mulford.

GRIFFIN CENTER OF POULTRY INDUSTRY

Griffin, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—Spalding and adjoining counties have become the poultry-raising center of middle Georgia, following the poultry show held here last November. There are in 20 miles of Griffin scores of progressive poultrymen energetically engaged in the pleasant and profitable occupation of breeding fancy poultry for which they find a constantly increasing demand. There are hundreds of chicken farms in this county which are prospering, and which are visited daily by scores of interested people. The most popular breeds are the Barred Rock. Everybody is getting ready for the great poultry show which is to be held in Griffin next fall by the Spalding County Poultry Association.

GOOD PEACH CROP LIKELY AT LYERLY

Lyerly, Ga., March 7.—North Georgia fruit growers are expecting a good crop of peaches this year. The several months' cold weather has kept the buds from putting out and thus avoided being killed. In a few days the blossoms will be appearing, and if there is not another cold snap the latter part of this month, it is safe to say that north Georgia will have a good crop of peaches.

STRIKE FEVER SPREADS INTO EASTERN PRUSSIA

Berlin, March 8.—Strike fever has spread to the Silesian coal fields in eastern Prussia, where the socialist, the Christian and the Polish miners' trades unions, representing all the organized miners in the district, today presented to the employers a demand for 15 per cent increase in their wages.

The government is trying to find a basis for settlement of difficulties which have arisen in the Westphalian coal fields. It is doubtful whether the efforts will be successful. The most optimistic believe that at least 150,000 out of the 350,000 Westphalian coal miners will declare a strike on Monday next. The mine owners are already assembling non-unionist workers.

MILITARY OFFICERS CALL ON GOV. BROWN

Brigadier General Clifford L. Anderson, his staff and the field officers of the Fifth regiment infantry, yesterday paid a formal call on Governor Joseph M. Brown in the executive office at the capitol. While it was the customary military call upon the new governor, the occasion was an especially interesting one. Those in the visiting party besides General Anderson, all of whom were in their full military regalia, were Colonel E. E. Pomeroy, Lieutenant Colonel O. H. Hall, Major J. W. Preston, Major I. T. Catron, Major-elect W. C. Hendrix, all of the Fifth infantry; Major J. O. Seamans, of the cavalry, and Major J. D. Dunwoody, of General Anderson's staff.

ROASTS MONEY SHARKS WHO ATTEND CHURCH

Chicago, March 8.—Loan agents who let out their money at usurious rates and attend church were pictured yesterday as hypocrites by Judge K. M. Landis, of the United States district court.

A defendant before Judge Landis had admitted nefarious methods in the conduct of his loan business and the court inquired of him if he attended church on Sunday.

"Yes, every Sunday," replied the loan agent.

"Well, you don't let your religion interfere with your business; you are a hypocrite," was the comment of the court.

MORE ECONOMY BY POSTOFFICE

Magazines in Southeast Will Be Handled by Freight After June.

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, March 8.—(Special.)—Beginning July 1 the postoffice department will inaugurate a new policy in the southeast in line with the department economy program as the result of which monthly magazines and other periodicals published bi-weekly or at less frequent intervals will be handled by freight instead of in fast mail cars.

At the office of the second assistant postmaster it was stated that this plan will result in a great saving in the administration of the department. It has already been put into effect in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and the middle west.

Under the new order a delay of from seven days to two weeks will be occasioned in the receipt of the monthly magazines unless the publishers advance the date of publication and issue instructions to postmasters to hold the periodicals until a specified date

TUBERCULOSIS MEETING DELEGATES APPOINTED

New York, March 8.—It was announced today by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis of the names of six delegates designated by the United States government through Huntington Wilson, acting secretary of state, to represent the United States at the seventh international congress on tuberculosis to be held in Rome, April 14 to 20. The delegates appointed are:

Dr. Henry Barton Jacobs, Baltimore, secretary of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis; Dr. Livingston Farrand, New York, executive secretary of the association; Dr. Charles L. Greene, St. Paul; Dr. G. Walter Holden, Denver; Dr. Gerald B. Webb, Colorado Springs, and William H. Baldwin, Washington, all directors of the national association.

Dr. Ferrand will present the official report for the United States.

An exhibit on tuberculosis showing what the United States has accomplished in tuberculosis has been sent to Rome for display during the congress.

LONDON NOT SURPRISED AT ACTION ON TREATY

London, March 8.—Although the action of the United States senate in connection with arbitration was anticipated in official circles, keen disappointment is felt that it should be found necessary to amend the treaty, thus nullifying the work of months; for as it stands, it is considered that an agreement is practically useless.

There is no resentment, however, officially felt or expresstd, as the British government did its best both to secure a good treaty and its indorsement by the United States senate.

The evening newspapers do not express any surprise at the action of the United States senate in emasculating the arbitration treaties so as to eliminate from their operation the Monroe doctrine, immigration and state debts.

The Pall Mall Gazette says that such treaties are only possible between nations which are never likely to fight, and there is no need to sign and seal a declaration of love and affection for one's brother. The Japanese must, says the newspaper, be laughing in their sleeves at seeing that the little piece of sugar by which the renewal of the alliance with Great Britain was secured has all melted away.

The Westminister Gazette attributes the action of the senate to political exigencies.

ONCE A MILLIONAIRE NOW HELD AS VAGRANT

New York, March 8.—Colonel Wayne Belvin, once a millionaire and for several years president of the Port Angelus and Eastern railroad, is under arrest here today charged with vagrancy. His arrest followed an appeal for alms to a plain clothes detective who was walking on Broadway.

Belvin was a conspicuous figure in New York for many years. He inherited $600,000 from his father and with it came from Richmond, Va., to New York about 1887. He was for a time successful in stock operations but by 1899 his luck had swung so far in the other direction that he was arrested for a debt of $143. In the course of the next few years he was arrested in Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago for threatening suits against various wealthy men.

PRESIDENT WON'T SUBMIT TREATIES

Roosevelt Denounces as Forgery Alleged Telegram on Arbitration.

Washington, March 8.—Summing up the action of the senate yesterday in stripping the proposed arbitration treaties with France and Great Britain of their vital features, government officials who followed the negotiation of the two pacts agreed today that participation by the United States in general arbitration of international difficulties was a dead issue so far as this session of congress was concerned and probably for many years to come.

There is little thought that President Taft will submit the treaties in their mangled form to either of the powers for possible approval. The amended treaties, sent to the white house today, will await the return to Washington of President Taft and if routine is followed he will send them to the state department. Secretary Knox, who is today due at Amapala, on the west coast of Honduras, will be advised of what has happened and, as a matter of form, some consultation must be had between the president and the secretary before the next step can be taken.

Denounced as Forgery.

Senator Joseph M. Dixon, campaign manager for Colonel Roosevelt, denounced as a forgery a telegram published in a local paper this morning purporting to be the text of a message sent by Senator Dixon to Colonel Roosevelt yesterday. The supposed telegram was as follows:

"Theodore Roosevelt, New York—The senate has ratified your contention in regard to the treaties. Our democratic friends have come to our rescue.

"JOSEPH M. DIXON."

"No such telegram nor any telegram of similar import was sent by me to Colonel Roosevelt," said Mr. Dixon, in a statement given out by the Roosevelt headquarters.

"I only sent a brief wire apprising him of the vote of the senate. There can be no excuse for this most flagrant and evidently premeditated forgery."

Commnting last night on the senate's action, Senator Dixon said:

"The vote of the senate upon section three of the treaties must be considered as absolutely ratifying the principle Mr. Roosevelt had been contending for, that the constitutional perogatives of the senate should not be encroached upon."

WANTS DEEPER PROBE OF EVERGLADE CASE

Washington, March 8.—Governor Gilchrist, of Florida, protested today against the alleged discrediting of his state by the investigation of the Everglades reclamation project. The governor complained that the scope of the house inquiry was being limited, although much to the discredit of Florida and much in defamation of its Everglades lands had been put in the record. He came here to present the other side, if possible, but is chaffing under the limitations of testimony.

Today he presented a letter to the committee, the relevancy of it to the case to be decided later.

In his letter the governor invited the committee to visit Florida and see what drainage was being done and what might be accomplished by the plan being put into execution by the state. He cited many authorities intended to substantiate the claim that the soil of the Everglades was fertile and rich, and could be reclaimed.

DOCTOR GIVES HIS $50 REWARD TO CHARITY

New Orleans, March 8.—Dr. Oscar Dowling, president of the state board of health, who Wednesday night was given $50 for assisting personally in cleaning up a well-known restaurant here which he had ordered closed because of unsanitary conditions, yesterday rested from his labors, spending most of his time in apportioning the $50 among charitable institutions which he visited. The manager of the cafe offered the doctor $1.50 per day in jest, and it was promptly accepted, but his work was so thorough he was given $50. Three restaurants were allowed to reopen yesterday. Dairies were inspected today.

When Your Hair Turns Gray

When a woman's hair turns gray, the world expects her to step back from the lime light. Active and abreast of the times she may be, with a wide experience, but—she has grown old and gray headed. Fortunate, indeed, is the woman whose hair retains its color through her forties.

But what of the woman whose hair begins to fade, maybe as early as 25 or 30, the woman in the midst of the active business world? "We don't want old women!" She feels it all around her.

Don't let your hair turn gray. But be careful. Very few hair stains are absolutely pure and harmless. There are some reliable preparations; our Robinnaire Hair Dye is one. Made here in Atlanta, in our own laboratory, and we guarantee it to be pure and positively non-injurious to either hair or scalp. It makes the hair soft and keeps it in fine condition, and no one can detect that a hair stain has been used. It is not a vulgar bleach or artificial coloring. It is a natural restorative that puts back life and color into the hair. No one need hesitate to use it. Non-sticky and does not stain skin or scalp.

No woman need have gray hair undesired. But don't pull out the white hairs, two will grow in immediately for every one you pull out. Use Robinnaire's Hair Dye at once, and don't let people call you old. It is prepared for light, medium and dark brown and black hair. Trial size, 25c, regular large size, 75c, postpaid. STRIKERS AGREE TO CONFERENCE

Little Hope, However, That English Labor Difficulty Will Be Solved.

London, March 8.—After extended talks with committees representing coal mine owners and their striking employees today, Premier Asquith invited representatives of both sides to hold a joint conference "with a view to a free discussion of the whole situation."

The official report explains that the government considers the proposals placed before both parties offer the fairest means for reaching a settlement, but progress is difficult without a mutual discussion. What the government's proposals are has not been divulged.

The miners replied that they had undertaken to reassemble the national conference of miners, but with the reservation that they would not recommend acceptance of the government's invitation except on the understanding that the principle of a minimum wage should be excluded from discussion. As the whole dispute hinges on this point it is difficult to see how anything can be accomplished by a joint conference. The national conference of miners cannot be assembled before Monday.

It was announced late tonight that the joint conference will take place at the foreign office, but no date has been fixed.

The effect of the strike is growing increasingly serious. The admiralty has issued orders enjoining the severest economy in the use of coal by the navy, and such precautionary notices have been given employees on railways, in iron works and industries of all kinds that employers may be forced to terminate their engagements. Notices even have been given employees of all London newspapers in anticipation of cutting down the size of newspapers should the strike be prolonged.

Marseilles, March 8.—The French line has cancelled its weekly freight service between Marseilles and Tunis on account of the British coal strike.

Anxiety in Genoa.

Genoa, March 8.—The British coal strike is causing some anxiety here and at other ports. Although sufficient coal to last until the end of April was brought into the country before the strike started, it is feared the price will rise before the miners return to work. Coal importers have decided that if it becomes necessary to import coal they will order it in Germany owing to the high freight rates that would have to be paid on the American product.

LAWRENCE STRIKERS MAKE DEMONSTRATION

Lawrence, Mass., March 8.—Striking textile workers made a big, although quiet, demonstration this morning prior to the time for opening the mills. Thousands of men and women crowded Essex street and the approaches to the factories were lined with pickets, but no serious trouble occurred. Five arrests were made.

One woman was assailed by a striker, and a razor was found on a foreigner, who was taken into custody for disorderly conduct. No perceptible increase in number of employees resuming work was noted.

NEW YORK WOMAN HELD FOR SMASHING WINDOWS

New York, March 8.—Miss Annie Glisman, a 22-year-old suffragette, is under arrest here today for emulating the London suffragettes by breaking windows in a number of residences. She began her long campaign by smashing a window in the house of an alderman to whom she announced after ringing the door bell that she was a suffragette and wanted her rights.

While the alderman was telephoning the police she succeeded in putting stones through a dozen windows in neighboring houses. The young woman will be examined as to her sanity.

SAVANNAH CLUB WON'T GO AFTER BIG RACES

Savannah, Ga., March 8.—The Savannah Automobile Club, at its annual meeting last night, decided that it would not make any effort to secure a big automobile race for the famous Savannah course this fall. If overtures should be made the club it might consider a race, but it will not take the initiative toward securing one. The resolution adopted states that the club "will hold itself in readiness to consider any proposition which may be submitted for running the events this year."

Harvey Granger was re-eleted president, with the distinct understanding that no race is to be undertaken. The club also decided upon a spring run to Columbus, Ga., probably in May.

CARLISLE SUES FOR $1,360,000

Case Grows Out of Organization of Georgia Power Company.

A suit for $1,360,000 was filed in the Fulton superior court by W. A. Carlisle, of Atlanta, against C. Elmer Smith, of York, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene L. Ashley, all parties to the organization of the Georgia Power Company, late Thursday afternoon.

Carlisle claims that the sum was due him for his part in organizing the company, and that instead he was offered a certificate for 100 shares of the company, worth $10,000, which he refused. Mr. Ashley and Mr. Smith are the chief promoters of the Georgia Railway and Power Company, which includes many of the largest water power and electric interests in the state, the Georgia Railway and Electric Company, of Atlanta, being included.

Carlisle, who was for years the chief engineer of the North Georgia Electric Company, as well as being a stockholder in both that organization and the Etowah Power Company, claims that when the two companies went into bankruptcy he, Smith and Ashley entered into an oral agreement to reorganize them and to share the profits equally. This was effected when the Georgia Power Company took over the old companies, the profits being $3,700,000 of the common stock of the new company and $400,000 in cash. It was then, Carlisle asserts, that his partners declared he had no legal right to share with them and offered to pay him merely for his services.

Carlisle declares that in organizing the Georgia Power Company, which is now a part of the merger known as the Georgia Railway and Power Company, he acted as chief engineer, as well as secured the consent of the stockholders in the North Georgia Electric Company and the Etowah Power Company to the reorganization of those companies. Smith attended to the financing, while Ashley, as attorney, directed the methods of procedure, Carlisle alleges.

Smith and Ashley were temporarily enjoined them disposing of the stock, which they claim as profits, for his share of which Carlisle asserts the two entered into a conspiracy to defraud him. Mrs. Ashley was made a party because Ashley's stock was taken in her name. The case will be tried before Judge Bell.

John Drew, in a drawing room comedy which is essentially Drewesque in every detail, supported by an excellent company, delighted one of the largest audiences of the season at the Atlanta theater last night. To those who have seen John Drew on more than one occasion—and it is safe to say that a majority in the audience had—no explanation of the term "Drewesque" is necessary.

John Drew was, of course, the same inimitable John Drew, looking particularly fit in anything he wore and carrying himself with ease and grace through the four drawing room acts, none of which called for any great acting on his part. His portrayal of the busy, absorbed man of letters who in a certain sense has had his day and has been too full of fashioning heroes and heroines to marry, but who comes to with a start when he realizes that he is 43 and still unmarried, was admirably done. He made Robin Worthington a very likable human sort of a chap—nothing booky or posey or pedantic about him.

Miss Boland created a very convincing and charming character in the part of Miss Heseltine. Her beauty—but why dwell on the obvious? She shared honors with Mr. Drew and to her skillful acting in the trying scene at the conclusion of the second act a large measure of the enthusiastic applause was due. In this scene she handled a difficult situation with deftness and consummate art.

Just a word or two about the play. Robin Worthington is a successful writer. It dawns on him one day that he is 43 and unmarried—dawns on him with such sudden force that he decides to marry as precipitately as possible. In casting his eye about his attention is caught and held by a chit of a girl who is young enough to be his daughter. Buoyant, fresh, full of illusions and chock full of the joy of living he sees in Maggie Cottrell a fancied ideal. Her youth appeals to him. It is the yearning for his own vanished youth more than anything else, but he doesn't stop to analyze the situation. The years have rested lightly upon him, and like a certain gentleman who played a tragic role at Reno on a certain hot summer day, he imagined he could come back. He becomes engaged.

His sister-in-law had other plans. She invites her dearest friend to visit at the house in the hope of landing Robin high and dry without a struggle. Such is the situation disclosed as the action begins. Robin has a typist, Miss Heseltine, who has copied his manuscripts for years. She is charming, but he hasn't made a note of that fact; she has become indispensable to him, but he has never given it a thought. His eyes have been momentarily dazzled by a star.

Maggie is nothing but a child. She is a hard tennis player, who can top off a hotly contested set with a romping game of hide and seek, and then be fresh for some new frolic. All very charming and refreshing, this romping with children. Bet your life it is! But Worthington soon sees that he is only a quarter horse after all and can't go the route. He is carrying weight for age and the handicap is hopeless.

The manner in which this is borne in upon him is very skillfully wrought out, and if the mirror was not held up to the eyes of more than one creaky jointed, wrinkled-faced bachelor it was not—

But, pshaw! What's the use? Was it ever held in such a position that it did any good—was it ever, now?

How Worthington doesn't marry the child, how the designing Louise Parker, the sitser-in-law's "dearest friend," turns out to be not so very dear after all and angles in vain, and how Worthington realizes that his typist is the woman he really needs, are told in the second and third acts.

The comedy is at all times pronounced and the lines are clever. Mr. Drew was surrounded by a thoroughly capable company.

There will be a matinee and the concluding performance tonight.

SIDNEY ORMOND.

"The Flirting Princess."

At the Grand.

The prettiest girl in musical comedy, of all the shows that have come to Atlanta this season, is Gretchen Hartman, playing the part of Drusilla Peck in the "Flirting Princess," at the Grand, and who with Harry Bulger is just about the whole of that quick-scrambled musical farce. In the grotesque "Gloomey Glooms" number, Miss Hartman was at her best. She dances well and sings acceptably, but even these are lost sight of when she smiles across the footlights.

Harry Bulger, as Sport Bangs, was droll, and kept the audience in a roar all the time he occupied the stage. His witticisms were distinctly of the American vaudeville stage brand, and "got over" well.

Miss Dale Fuller, as Araminta Bangs, expressed well that modern stage stunt of making a show of ungainliness, in which a premium is put on face and body contortion. Her efforts at ugliness pleased the audience.

Beauty was almost wholly lacking from the chorus, nor, as an aggregation, was it particularly noted for graceful dancing. It served, however, as background to the solo numbers.

"The Flirting Princess" pleased Friday night's audience; the frequent applause left no doubt of it, though it did shy at one or two slightly florid jokes Bulger pronounced. "The Flirting Princess"—by the way that young woman herself, as undertaken by Helen Darling, was pleasant to glance at, wore some good looking clothes, or lack of them, in her first super-harem skirted appearance. The musical numbers were bright, without any danger, however, of being whistled up and down the street.

Repeated tonight and at matinee this afternoon.

"Everywoman."

(At the Grand.)

Preparations for the reception of the big scenic production of "Everywoman," the dramatic spectacle which Henry W. Savage will send to the Grand next Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, were begun upon the stage of that theater yesterday morning. The stage furnishing for "Everywoman" is as heavy and as intricate as was ever provided for a dramatic production in this country, and one of the scenes, which shows Broadway, New York, upon New Year's Eve, is so extensive and of such complex construction that the services of a specially instructed stage crew are necessary to arrange the stage for its proper setting.

"The Girl in the Taxi."

(At the Lyric.)

The matinee today and tonight's performance will close the engagement of that swiftest of all comedy complications, "The Girl in the Taxi." It is safe to say that no attraction that has visited the Lyric this season has drawn larger audiences or been better received. It provides two and one-half hours of amusement that is a sure cure for the blues. Don't miss "The Girl in the Taxi" this week at the Lyric.

Ward and Vokes.

(At the Lyric.)

The Lyric theater will present for public favor next week, starting next Monday night, one of the strongest attractions which the entire season will produce. Reference is made to Ward and Vokes and their company of fifty singers, dancers, comedians and pretty show girls in their musical comedy success entitled the "Trouble Makers." This farce will have a cast that contains such names as Lucy Daly, who in the part of Babbling Bess, will have as her feature songs, "I Want a Man to Marry Me," "A Different Phase of Life," "Oh, Look Who's Here." Hazel Gilmore, who resigns the office of president of a woman's suffragette club in order to be married. Adelia Barker and Susie Kerwin, two suffragette agitators; Charles "Sandy" Chapman, Richard Barry, Lottie Robinson, Lillian Boles and a pany ballet of twelve charming young misses.

"TIZ Reminds Me of My Barefoot Days"

"My Feet Never Get Sore, Tired or Chafed Now, Because I Use TIZ."

"TIZ makes me feel like a boy again. Nothing would hurt my feet in those days, even when I'd run around barefooted with Rover, over rocks and pebbles and sticks.

"To be able now to have feet that never ache, never get tired, blistered, swollen or chafed, or have corns, callouses or bunions, is a glorious recompense for all the other aches and pains one suffers in the winter of life. TIZ makes the feet feel young, and young feet make you feel young all over.

"I've tried many things for my poor old tired feet, for those bunions of 20 years, and for those corns that have added wrinkles to my face. I've tried plasters, powders and salves—and nothing has ever given the relief that TIZ has. My feet are now strong and vigorous, they never get tired or swollen. I have no corns, callouses or bunions any more—they are boy's feet on an old man!"

TIZ gives instant relief and cures all foot troubles. It operates on a new principle, draws out all the poisonous exudations that cause foot miseries.

Don't accept a substitute. An elderly man especially, has a mind of his own; see that you get TIZ.

TIZ, 25 cents box, sold everywhere, or sent direct, on receipt of price, by Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill. Recommended by all Drug Stores, department and general stores.

GENERAL SALAZAR MOVES ON REBELS

Rrmored Train Leaves to Relieve City of Torreon.

Reports Indicate Continued But Disorganized Activity on Part of Revolutionists--General Figueroa Denies Report That He Has Revolted.

Mexico City, March 8.—General Jose Gonzales Salazar, who retired from the war ministry to take active charge of the forces in the field against the rebels around Torreon, left today with a special train of armored cars carrying machine guns, artillery and ammunition.

The day's news reports in the republic indicate a continued but disorganized activity on the part of the malcontents in widely separated regions. In Chiapao, bridges have been burned on the Pan-American railroad, but the disorders there are asserted to be only local in significance. In the state of Puebla there has been hard fighting around Acatlan, which was beleaguered for three days. Two hundred Zapatistas and twenty-seven defenders of the city are reported killed. Villages in the vicinity are looted. Atlixco, a cotton manufacturing town, is said to be threatened.

What purports to be a signed telegram from General Ambrosio Figueroa, Madero's chief of arms in Guerrero, was published here denying the report that he had revolted. He maintains his loyalty is unshaken.

No News From Torreon.

Although the government stated yesterday that communication with Torreon had been re-established by way of Saltillo, no news from that point has reached this city for five days.

A statement issued by a brother of Governor Abraham Gonzalez, of Chihuahua, says that the latter has established state headquarters at Ciudad Guerrero, 85 miles west of Chihuahua, where he has gone with Francisco Villa and the remaining loyal Maderistas. He was said to be enlisting additional men for an attack on Orozco.

The Orozcos, father and son, after having failed previously to receive approval by the department of finance of claims for 100,000 pesos, were paid half that sum by Emilio Vasquez Gomez, then minister of the interior, on July 20, without proper proofs of expenditures or losses, according to the statement of federal officials here.

Jose Diego Fernandez, president of the claims commission established by the Madero government, is authority for the statement that early last year, Orozco, Jr., after claims for 50,000 pesos each had been submitted by father and son, requested that payment be made secretly and that the claims be not made a matter of record. He was informed that this could not be done and was advised not to embarrass the commission by pressing the claims unless substantial proof could be furnished. They were not pressed, but instead application was made, with success, to the interior department. There a receipt signed by Pascual Orozco, Sr., is on record for 50,000 pesos in which it is admitted that "it is impossible to give proofs in due form."

Damages to Orozcos.

The memorandum of damages suffered by the Orozcos filed with the minister of finance, include money alleged to have been advanced to the extent of 26,000 and 20,000 pesos, respectively, by the Orozcos senior and junior, and various items for corn, horses, rifles, claims paid for revolutionists killed, etc.

Diplomatic representatives of all nations having any considerable number of citizens in the capital, met today to discuss methods to be pursued for the protection of such persons and their property. They prepared an inquiry to be presented to the federal government as to what measures have been taken for the protection of foreigners.

Patriotism Aroused.

A spirit of patriotism appears to have been aroused within the last forty-eight hours. It is finding expression in the posting of placards by labor and political organizations calling upon members to volunteer for military service. Similar action is reported from Puebla, Guadalajara and other cities. An exportation by women of the higher class of society was published urging Mexicans to unite for the salvation of their country.

A thousand prisoners in Belom, the famous Mexico City prison, have petitioned to be allowed to enlist. Many of those serving short terms will be accepted.

A mass meeting of citizens has been called for Sunday in the Pasee de La Reforma, the principal boulevard, as a demonstration of patriotic citizenship.

Laredo, Texas, March 8.—About 200 passengers from Mexico, more than half of them either Europeans or Mexicans, passed through here today northbound. Chief Surgeon Goodman, of the National Railway Lines of Mexico, brought his family here in his private car. He himself will return to Mexico today.

The American consul general at Mexico City, Arnold Shanklin, was among the passengers. Asked for a statement as he paced the platform of his car, he replied:

"I know absolutely nothing. You know I cannot talk."

An American who left Torreon February 11, but who has been in communication with friends there since then, says there can hardly be more than seventy-five Americans left at Torreon, nearly all of them employees of either the smelter or the rubber companies. He said that but five or six American women and children now remain there. At Gomez Palacio, near Torreon, he said there are about twenty-five Americans.

Humorous features of the exodus developed today. An Englishman and his wife with a pet dog left the train here going to a hotel and asking for outside rooms adjoining a gallery on which they might tie the dog. When informed that the dog must be left with the hotel porter they departed indignantly, the Englishman remarking that if the hotel was not good enough for the dog it was not good enough for them, and they took a northbound train immediately.

There were ninety-three peons among today's passengers, all bound for San Antonio. The immigration officials made quick work of their examination, having them hop over benches on the station platform to determine whether they were lame, blind or halt. All hopped successfully and were passed.

Rebel Army Moves.

Chihuahua, Mexico, March 8.—The vanguard of the insurrecto army here departed for the south in two trains today. It was the real beginning of the campaign against the City of Mexico, although the immediate destination of the column was announced as Jiminez, half-way between here and Torreon.

Six bridges between here and Jiminez must be repaired by the troops as they proceed and it is thought the trip will require at least two hours. There were about 800 men in the detachment. This leaves a thousand men here, but General Orozco states that recruits are joining him in crowds. During the next week, he declares, 2,000 men will be entrained for Jiminez. Most of the men now at Juarez under General Rojas will be brought here.

Labarra to Return.

Paris, March 8.—Francesco De Labarra, former provisional president of Mexico, today reiterated his previously expressed intention to return to Mexico soon and aid in bringing about peace in the republic. In an interview today he declared that patriotism alone prompted this decision, as he has no personal ambitions to serve.

"I shall soon leave for Mexico," he said. "I think it is my duty to my country during this delicate situation with its possible complications. I have not been called home, but am forced to return, as I feel it is the duty of every true Mexican to contribute his efforts toward finding a solution for the existing problems there.

"I am ready to do whatever comes to hand. I have no personal ambitions and will work with the government to restore peace."

PREACHER WANTS MEN WHO "KNOW"

Striking Address Made by Dr. Inwood at Bible Conference.

"I am sick and tired of Christians who simply have a label on attesting their Christianity, which, in the slightest spell of adverse weather, is washed off. Be filled with the Holy Spirit, men and women, and you will have the same triumphant certainty of faith in the twentieth century that the disciples did in the first century, after Pentecost."

Dr. Charles Inwood, of London, was the speaker at Friday night's session of the Tabernacle Bible conference, and to a large audience preached from the text: "Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed?"

"There are two chief results of the infilling of the Holy Spirit," Dr. Inwood said. "These are purity and power. The practical results in your lives after Pentecost are, freedom from doubt; victory over hostile environment; a new quality of obedience, and a consuming passion for the extension of the kingdom of Jesus Christ.

"It is no longer a case of 'I believe,' or 'I hope.' It is, 'I know,' with those who have experienced the intaking of the Holy Spirit.

"Every century has had its intellectual difficulties, but it is just as possible to be sure of the truth of the Christian religion now as in any one of those nineteen past centuries. The great need today is men and women who know. You won't gain this certainty by the reading of books filled with denials of the supernatural, nor by the reading of Ingersoll and Tom Paine; nor yet along the line of intellectual research. Resign your hearts to the Holy Spirit, and you will know."

Dissenting sects among native Russians was the subject of Dr. MacArthur's address Friday afternoon. He spoke principally of the Stundists and the Dukohbors. He spoke, also, of the connection of Tolstoi with the latter sect, and gave a most graphic word painting of the death of Alexander II of Russia, assassinated in 1883. The speaker likened the effects of this act to Russia as being much the same as those resulting from the murder of Abraham Lincoln in this country.

Resolutions expressive of the sorrow of the Tabernacle Bible conference at the departure of Dr. Len G. Broughton for the pastorate of Christ church in London, England, were read at the afternoon session.

The necessity of strong teaching and the implanting of ideas that will stick was illustrated by Mrs. A. A Lamareaux, specialist in Sunday school pedagogy.

Mrs. Lamareaux addressed a meeting of young women between the ages of 16 and 30 at a meeting Friday night in Hawks hall, at which, between 600 and 700 girls were present. She is to address a mass meeting composed of men and women in the Tabernacle auditorium at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, her subject being "The Young Girl Problem."

Dr. Stevens, from China, will hold the last devotional hour service of the conference at 9 a. m. today; at 10 a. m. Dr. Cobern will speak; at 11 a. m. Dr. Inwood. There will be no afternoon nor night services. Dr. W. R. Moody will deliver the Sunday morning sermon.

BOB LA FOLLETTE BREAKS SILENCE

Senator Makes Statement on Candidacy of Col. Roosevelt.

"In Presence of Great Problems, Personal Attacks on Candidates Should Have No Place—Candidates Should Offer Solutions," He Says.

Madison, Wis., March 8.—Senator La Follette's silence on the candidacy of Colonel Roosevelt was broken today by the published declaration "that in the presence of great problems personal attacks on candidates should have no place."

The statement is called forth by the repeated declaration of some newspapers that Colonel Roosevelt urged La Follette as "the ideal man to make the fight against President Taft."

Text of Statement.

The following is the text of the statement:

"February 26, a New York dispatch in The Washington Post said:

"'Politicians who have been following the national situation say that La Follette will shortly make an attack on Colonel Roosevelt, showing that representations were made to him by friends of the colonel to the effect that he (La Follette) was the ideal man to make the fight against President Taft.'

"It is not a matter of great importance to the public why I became a candidate.

"The issue of this campaign is the right of the individual, the farmer, the worker, every man who pays the tribute to free himself by lawful means from the unjust exactions of the tariff, the railroads, the trusts, the money power controlling capital and credit and every form of oppression by special privilege.

"In the presence of these great problems personal attacks upon candidates should have no place. But to determine the fitness of a candidate to perform a particular service, the public has a right to require the candidate to state each problem and offer his solution of that problem.

Record of Candidate.

"The public has the further right to know what the candidate has actually done toward solving the problem, whether his course of action and the whole gives assurance of profound conviction and ability of judgment, whether he is best equipped by patient investigation and practical experience to deal with these problems constructively in the public interest.

"It will, therefore, be necessary during this campaign to discuss the records of candidates as well as the remedies proposed by them to correct existing social and political evils. But such discussions cannot be distorted into an attack upon the candidate.

"ROBERT M. LA FOLLETTE."

SENATE ON PRIMARY BILL IN MASSACHUSETTS STATE

Boston, March 8.—The lower branch of the legislature split with the senate today on the presidential preference primary bill, and unless one branch recedes soon Massachusetts will select its delegates to the Chicago and Baltimore conventions under the old system.

Yesterday the house amended the bill passed by the senate to include the selection of delegates at large as well as district delegates by primaries and today killed an amendment that would have altered the bill in conformity with the senate provisions.

The enlarged bill now goes back to the senate, which recently defeated a proposition to include delegates at large. Friends of the presidential primary plan fear the measure will fail.

A Joke by Accident.

(From The London Chronicle.)

You may wrong the child by the name you give it. In this matter the girl baby has the advantage of the boy. She can change it at maturity. A friend of mine whose name was Cremer had a daughter who was christened Constance—very thoughtlessly. A good name for a baby, perhaps, when you put them together. But it took her twenty-three years to change it and spoil the joke.

Browning at Picture Show.

A pretty compliment to the Browning class which has been studying "The Blot in the 'Scutcheon," was the running of the story at the Vaudette theater yesterday morning for their special pleasure. The members of the class had received the invitation at their meeting the afternoon before, with complimentary tickets, and there were present at the show fifty ladies or more who witnessed a beautiful performance. Afterwards the class, of which Mrs. Merrill Hutchinson is leader, were invited by Mrs. Henry Inman, one of the members, to her apartments at the Georgian Terrace, where dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. Frank Beck and Miss Marguerite Beck, who have been abroad for some time, arrived in New York by the Hamburg-American line on yesterday. They will arrive in the city on Saturday by the vestibule on the Southern, and will be at the Georgian Terrace.

TWO DELEGATIONS FROM LOUISIANA

Officeholders for Taft and Oppose State Primary.

"Roosevelt" Republicans Highly Displeased at Action of State Committee — Declare Teddy Is Popular Favorite With G. O. P. of the State.

New Orleans, March 8.—Two delegations will be sent to the national republican convention in Chicago from Louisiana—probably a solid Taft delegation, bound by the unit rule, to be selected at a state republican convention to be held in Alexandria April 8, and a Roosevelt or divided delegation to be chosen in a preferential primary.

This announcement was made tonight in a signed statement given to the press by the "Roosevelt committee of Louisiana," and followed the meeting today of the republican state central committee, which indorsed Taft, tabled a resolution for a primary, and provided for the selection of national delegates by the convention methods.

Eleven members of the state central committee, including Chairman Williams and Secretary Thilboerger, absented themselves from today's committee meeting on the ground that it was irregular, and that the committee as constituted under a so-called compromise agreement of February 19 by which eleven contesting members of the "black and tan" faction were seated, was without authority.

The statement issued tonight by the Roosevelt committee, composed of Pearl Wight, national republican committeeman; Hugh Suthen, republican nominee for governor; W. J. Behan and Henry McCall, follows:

"We are very much disappointed that the so-called state committee, composed almost entirely of officeholders, which met today, did not see fit to submit the issues to the people in a square and fair manner. Had they submitted the election of delegates to the state convention to primaries, instead of the partisan methods of mass meetings, which may be held at inaccessible, out-of-the-way places, and the time of which, under their call, would be known only to the committee directing it, order might have been brought out of chaos, and one delegation to the national convention might have resulted. However, this is now impossible, for, believing, as we do, that the friends and supporters of Colonel Roosevelt are largely in the majority in Louisiana, it is necessary that they be afforded an opportunity to declare themselves."

RICE RATE HEARING BEFORE COMMISSION

Washington, March 8.—Rice growers of Texas and Louisiana, who seek lower freight rates from the rice fields, were heard today by the the interstate commerce commission.

Sam H. Cowan, for the Mutual Rice Trade and Development Company, of Houston, and C. C. Oden, traffic manager for the Houston Chamber of Commerce, argued that the rates on rice south of the Ohio and west of the Mississippi were discrimatory in favor of New Orleans and should be lowered; also that the rates to Pacific coast points, which are the same from New Orleans and Houston, should be lower from Houston.

Representatives of the New Orleans board of trade and of the Rice Growers' Association, declared that there was no discrimination in favor of New Orleans, and asked for lower rates on rough rice than on clean rice.

Beaumont, Texas, representatives claimed that the railroads had carried out the recent interstate commerce commission decision that Beaumont was entitled to a 3-cent lower rate to eastern and northern points than Houston, only by raising the Houston and other point rates in proportion, instead of reducing any rates.

Representatives of the railroads concerned argued that the existing rates were neither unjust nor discriminatory.

NONE WOULD HOLD OFFICE IN NYACK

Nyack, N. Y., March 8.—The five highest elective offices in this town are vacant, and not one can be found to accept a nomination. Republican and democratic caucases were held this week, each nominating for president and trustees the same men, all acceptable to both political organizations and the voters generally. The five nominees absolutely decline to stand as candidates and the two committees to fill vacancies are unable to induce anybody to accept the offices.

The reason is that the previous acts of the board of trustees resulted unsatisfactorily to many taxpayers, and brought criticism upon individual members.

ROBERT MATHER'S HEIRS HAVE WILL SET ASIDE

New York, March 8.—With the consent of all the heirs of Robert Mather, at one time president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company, who died on October 24 last, a court order is on file here today declaring Mr. Mather's will invalid.

The will provided that Gwendolyn Duck, of Windsor, Ontario, and Leila Russell, of Chicago, should receive no part of the estate until certain beneficiaries under the will had died. The effect of the suit decided here is to set aside at once $50,000 for the two women.

PUBLIC BUILDING BILL LEFT FOR NEXT SESSION

Washington, March 8.—The house committee on public buildings and grounds met today and took action which amounts to somewhat of a backdown on the threat made a few days ago that it would demand a general public building bill if the naval committee reported in favor of a battleship appropriation.

The committee adopted a resolution providing for hearings before subcommittees, each congressman to designate one particular bill he desired to have considered.

"This does not mean," Acting Chairman Burnett said, "that there will be a public building bill this session. It will get the matter in shape, however, so that it can be handled readily in the short session."

BLEASE'S NAME CONNECTED WITH CHARGES OF GRAFT

Columbia, S. C., March 8.—Allegations that Governor Cole E. Blease before and since his election to the governorship, had been in close association and full sympathy with dispensary grafters and statements that charges by him against the Ansel dispensary winding-up board were "false and outrageous" were features of the testimony given by Dr. W. J. Murray, of Columbia, and J. Steele Bryce, of Yorkville, today before the legislative committee which is investigating the manner in which the liquidation of the former state dispensary has been conducted by two successive boards.

Dr. Murray was chairman and Mr. Bryce a member of the first or Ansel winding-up commission, summarily dismissed by Governor Blease for "incompetency."

Mr. Bryce categorically denied charges, made by the governor in messages to the general assembly, that the Ansel board was "incompetent" and had benefited unlawfully from its work. He demanded to be confronted by his accuser. Senator Wharton, of the investigating committee, said that Governor Blease had been asked to appear, but had refused.

The committee has not, so far, exercised in Governor Blease's case the power conferred on it by the legislature to "send for persons and papers" and to rule for contempt. Mr. Bryce recalled statements by Governor Blease while a member of the state senate, that the men accused of grafting in connection with the dispensary were his friends; that he would stand by them through thick and thin and if anyone of them were convicted he would put on stripes and accompany them to the penitentiary. Mr. Bryce said one of these friends, John Black, had been convicted and Governor Blease had promptly pardoned him. Dr. Murray, asked whether his board had discussed Governor Blease, said:

"He was unworthy to be discussed. He was not fit to tie our shoes."

A MAN, A MAID AND SOME RAIN; UMBRELLA, MARRIAGE LICENSE

Miss Daisy Norris left the Terminal station at 4:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. W. R. Harvey left the Men and Religion Forward Movement meeting at the Grand Opera house at the same time. Miss Norris walked down Mitchell street toward Pryor. Harvey walked down Pryor street toward Mitchell. Harvey owned an umbrella, while Miss Norris had none. They had never met or seen one another before.

Suddenly it began raining. Harvey raised his umbrella and quickened his steps. Miss Norris began to run. Harvey rounded the corner at Pryor and Mitchell streets and ran into the young lady. Down went his umbrella, and with upraised hat he stood in the driving rain gazing upon the flushed cheeks of the dark-eyed girl.

"I beg your pardon. I could not see," he cried.

"It's all right. I am not hurt," she answered.

"But you are getting wet. Let me lend you this," he offered.

"Then you would get wet," she refused.

He thought for an instant. He was decidedly attracted by the young brunette, who is hardly more than 19.

"Let me hold it over you until you get home," he finally said.

For an instant she looked squarely into his eyes, then liking what she saw in their blue depths, assented.

"My name's Bill Harvey. I'm a flagman on the Southern," he introduced himself.

"I'm Daisy Norris. I have come to visit my sister. I live in Birmingham," she offered.

Then they returned to Whitehall street and to a soda fountain. Where they went after that even they do not know, but finally they found that marriage licenses are not issued on Sunday.

Monday morning they visited Judge Wilkinson, and a few moments later became Mr. and Mrs. Harvey, Judge Orr being the presiding officer.

AGED MAN FATALLY HURT WHEN SELECTING HIS BURIAL PLACE

Thomasville, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—W. L. Bibb, of this city, died last night at the home of his son, W. H. Bibb, death being the result of an accident a few days ago in which Mr. Bibb sustained a fracture of the hip.

Mr. Bibb was 89 years old. A singular coincidence connected with his death was that a few days ago he went out to Laurel Hill cemetery and selected a burial lot, telling the sexton where he wished to be laid. On leaving he made a misstep in getting into his buggy and fell, breaking his hip, he living only a few days after the accident.

Mr. Bibb is survived by two sons, W. H. Bibb, of this city, and James Bibb, of Waycross.

GAVE UP ARMY JOB TO REMAIN WITH GEORGIA STATE TROOPS

Captain J. W. Quillian, of the Fulton Fusileers, one of the new companies of the Fifth regiment infantry, has decided that he would rather remain with the Georgia National Guard than have a position with the United States army.

A short time ago Captain Quillian, who is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, passed the examination and was appointed a second lieutenant in the United States coast artillery. He had accepted the position and was getting ready to report for duty.

Upon consideration of the matter, however, he decided he would prefer to remain with the Georgia National Guard, and accordingly sent in his resignation to the war department. Captain Quillian is with the Southern Bell Telephone Company. He will now continue to give his attention to the Fulton Fusileers.

HOKE SMITH COMPLAINS ABOUT PENSION BILLS

Washington, March 8.—The six or seven omnibus special pension bills, including several hundred claims for original or increased pensions, which had been held up by the senate for the past month or more to permit Senator Smith, of Georgia, to present injunctions to them, were taken up today.

Mr. Smith complained that the tendency was to favor some claimants at the expense of others. He said 13,235 private pension bills had been passed by the last congress and that it must have been quite impossible to give careful attention to all these cases.

Chairman McCumber, of the pension committee, explained that in cases not vouched for by senators on personal information there was careful investigation by experts.

Mr. Smith stated his only desire to be to present the facts in the hope of showing the necessity for a pension system different from the granting of special allowances.

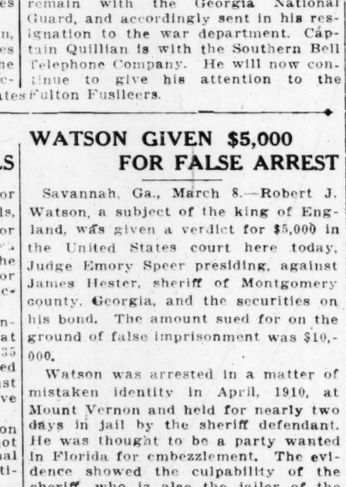

WATSON GIVEN $5,000 FOR FALSE ARREST

Savannah, Ga., March 8.—Robert J. Watson, a subject of the king of England, was given a verdict for $5,000 in the United States court here today, Judge Emory Speer presiding, against James Hester, sheriff of Montgomery county, Georgia, and the securities on his bond. The amount sued for on the ground of false imprisonment was $10,000.

Watson was arrested in a matter of mistaken identity in April, 1910, at Mount Vernon and held for nearly two days in jail by the sheriff defendant. He was thought to be a party wanted in Florida for embezzlement. The evidence showed the culpability of the sheriff, who is also the jailer of the county. The jury in arriving at a verdict for the amount named assessed both general and punitive damages. The case was on trial for five days.

BACON PRESIDES OVER U. S. SENATE

Georgian to Serve During the Absence of Vice President Sherman.

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, D. C., March 8.—(Special.)—Senator Bacon, of Georgia, was today elected president pro tem. of the senate to serve on Monday and Tuesday of next week during the absence of Vice President Sherman.

Having abandoned the hope of electing a regular republican to succeed the late president pro tem., Mr. Frye, the senate now usually selects Senator Bacon to discharge the duties of the presiding officer during the absences of Mr. Sherman. President Taft and the house of representatives are always formally notified of this action.

While serving in this position in the past, Mr. Bacon has signed a number of bills of importance.

ORGANIZED BANDS ROB NEW YORK MERCHANTS

New York, March 8.—That ten organized bands of criminals are robbing silk importers and dry goods wholesalers in the warehouse district of New York city of merchandise worth $250,000 every month is the assertion made by officials of the Team Owners' Association. According to merchants and truck men the losses in the last six months have been double what they ever were before. Though several truck thieves and loft burglars have been arrested in that time there has been no apparent decrease in the number of robberies.

The thieves have little difficulty in marketing their loot, and it is difficult to identify the goods after they have been taken from the original packages and disposed of. The robbers, it is said, receive less than 10 per cent of the actual value of the stolen goods. In order to cope with this reign of crime the team owners have organized a detective force which will co-operate with the detective force of the city. The method was described as follows:

At a conference the leaders decide to rob a certain firm and five or six members of the band are selected for the work. They take up positions near the firm's warehouse and watch the work of loading the trucks. They follow certain trucks until the driver leaves to deliver a package, and then one of them mounts the driver's seat and takes the entire load of goods to the headquarters of the band. When emptied the stolen truck is abandoned.

RECEIVERS ARE NAMED FOR MEXICAN RAILWAY

Kansas City, March 8.—A formal order placing the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Railway Company in the hands of receivers was made in federal court in Kansas City, Kan., today.

Edward Dickinson, of Kansas City, vice president and general manager of the company; J. O. Davidson, a banker and capitalist of Wichita, Kan., and M. L. Turner, an Oklahoma City banker, were named receivers.

PITNEY MAY NOT BE CONFIRMED

After Accepting Taft's Nomination, Senate Rescinds Action.

Decision of Appointee to the Supreme Court in Glass Bottle Blowers' Case May Cause Trouble for Him — Bacon Suggested Delay.

Washington, March 8.—The senate today confirmed President Taft's nomination of Mahlon Pitney, chancellor of New Jersey, to succeed the late Associate Justice Harlan on the supreme court bench and then set aside its action for further consideration because of opposition to Chancellor Pitney which developed in the executive session.

The discussion was sufficient to arouse friends of Chancellor Pitney and to make some of them apprehensive that the nomination might be rejected. His sponsors, however, expressed the belief that he would be confirmed soon.

The nomination was among a large number laid before the senate as soon as the executive session convened late today. It was quickly confirmed in the routine way. Suddenly Senator Bacon asked its status. Vice President Sherman announced that the nomination had been confirmed. Senator Bacon then suggested that the confirmation should be held up until Senator Culberson was present. Senator Culberson, who has been inquiring into the decisions made by the chancellor, came into the chamber a moment afterward and joined the debate.

Bottle Blowers' Strike.

Senator Culberson called attention to Chancellor Pitney's decision in what is known as the glass bottle blowers' case; that of the George Jonas Glass Company against the Glass Bottle Blowers' Association of the United States. A lively discussion followed.

In that case Chancellor Pitney, speaking for the majority of the court, sustained an injunction restraining the bottle blowers from coercing or persuading other workmen to break contracts with employers or from interfering in any way with persons willing to work, or from picketing strikers or enforcing boycotts at places where employees had struck.

Dissenting Opinion Read.

The court held that the act relating to persons who combine or encourage others to combine does not legitimatize an invasion of private rights nor prevent the party injured from having full redress. A dissenting opinion by Judge Garettson disagreeing with the injunction against workmen who peaceably persuade employees not under contract to leave employment, was read.

Both Senators Briggs and Martine, of New Jersey, spoke in behalf of Chancellor Pitney.

Other senators said they wanted to know more about Chancellor Pitney's decisions. Finally it was agreed to defer action and the nomination may come up again tomorrow.

Roosevelt Reports for Jury.

TENNESSEE LIMESTONE USEFUL AS FERTILIZER

Nashville, Tenn., March 8.—Governor Hooper today is sending invitations to the traffic officials of railroads operating in Tennessee to meet here in conference April 8 to discuss with the agricultural department and experiment station officials reduction of rates on pulverized limestone to the end of extending its use as a fertilizer on farms. There is an unlimited supply of this commodity in the state, and Governor Hooper thinks its enlarged use will increase the crop yield in Tennessee.

And put J. P. to rout,
The fans would howl in all their glee;
The managers would shout.

OH FOR A LITTLE SUNSHINE

Whiffs

Is Atlanta Jonah?

THE YANKEES came very near losing their ball park a few days ago, when a fire broke out in the wooden grandstand of the club. It is coincident that when the Washington Club was training here during the 1911 season that fire destroyed their plant completely. Wonder if it is a Jonah for a big league club to train here? Looks that way, doesn't it, at least from a fire standpoint.

Knows Him Well.

PETE O'BRIEN, the veteran infielder who is here for a try-out with the Crackers is not an unknown quantity to Manager Hemphill by any means. O'Brien and Hemphill played on the St. Paul team in 1905 and with the St. Louis club in the following year. Both had good seasons in that year.

Stole Our Thunder.

PRIZE FIGHTERS have other entitlements in the ring other than their real cognomen, was the basis of a story in The Constitution about a week ago. The Chattanooga News did us the honor to reprint it in full. Now along comes The Birmingham News with the same story, giving The Chattanooga paper credit for originating the idea. Such is fame.

Is Well Satisfied.

GEORGE STOVALL is pleased with his berth with the St. Louis Browns during the coming season. He says, "Sure I'm satisfied with my new job. I'm always satisfied and I will work just as hard in St. Louis as I did in Cleveland or any other place. I'll give the Browns all I've got."

Guide Is Out.

THE THIRTY-SIXTH issue of Spalding's official baseball guide is just out. Both in picture and text the guide continues to improve over the previous issues and does credit to its publishers.

Are Game Bunch.

LOCAL SOCCER players are the gamest sporting organization on the face of the map today. You have got to doff your lids to them. In the face of the strongest opposition, with the game of soccer a newcomer in this section, they have stuck manfully at it, paying their own expenses and boosting the game. The result is that ... club is well organized, playing good ball and when the game grows like it is sure to, the local socers are due the credit.

Named Scorer.

JACK NYE, sporting editor of The Nashville Tennessean and American, has been named official scorer for the Nashville club during the coming season. Congratulations.

Claims Welter Title.

RAY BRONSON, the Indianapolis fighter, is claiming the welterweight title. He is making faces at Mike Gibbons, who has also claimed it and has posted a $1,000 forfeit to meet the St. Paul lad. Bronson claims that Gibbons has no right to raise the welterweight limit to 145 pounds and he is willing to meet Mike at any time and any place provided they fight at 142 pounds the correct welter weight.

Tears For Packey.

PACKEY M'FARLAND is one of the worst abused lightweights in the ring. Every one takes a punch at Packey. Ever since Kid Burns blackened his eye, the cry has been, "He's going back." But is he? Why should any tears be shed for the stockyards champ? What he did to One-Round Hogan at New York recently was enough to brand such a statement as a lie of the full cloth. Poor old Packey.

Will Beat Out Ty.

JOE JACKSON has one ambition. That is to beat out Ty Cobb. "I am going to get my legs and arms in shape before I touch a bat," said the Nap slugger. "I will need batting practice too, but I am a better batter than a runner and thrower. I will work to bring to my all around playing. Then I will notify Ty Cobb. If he slows up a bit, they'll be talking of Joe Jackson."

HARRY DAVIS WILL NOT PLAY

Mobile, Ala., March 8.—Manager Harry Davis announced today that he would not wear a uniform this season with the Cleveland American Club and would direct affairs from the bench. Of course, this means that in the event that it is absolutely necessary he will get busy.

Morning practices of the Naps was called off today on acount of rain. If the conditions are somewhat improved this afternoon it is possible some light work will be done by the bunch.

Pitcher N. G. Cock, of Blowing Rock, N. C., an army recruit, joined the team today.

Pitcher Gus Fisher arrived today, completing the pitching staff that is now training here. The practice was called off this afternoon on account of rain, making the second day they have lost. Manager Davis and some of the team played golf this afternoon in a sprinkling ... The second squad arrived th... evening, in the party being ... Birmingham, Bronkie, Graney, ... Ball, Peckinpaugh, Stansbu... ohnhorst and Butcher.

ITALIAN WRESTLER HURT BY THE TURK

Battle Creek, Mich., March 8.—Plestina, the Italian wrestling champion, suffered a broken ankle in a bout here last night with Yussif Hussane, the Turk.

Hussane was trying for a toe-hold when he backed the Italian into the ropes and the ankle snapped. Neither had secured a fall when the accident occurred.

Atlanta v. Morris Brown.

Atlanta university will play its first game of baseball this afternoon at 3 o'clock on their field. Morris Brown will be their opponents. A close game is expected.

SEVENTEEN CRACKERS HERE, FIFTEEN MORE TO ARRIVE

Walter Miller, Vedder Sitton, Jules Watson, Arlie Britton and Harold Johns Were Friday's Arrivals. Found Twelve Others on Job—More Due Today and Sunday.

By DICK JEMISON.

Five of the veterans of the 1911 Atlanta Baseball Club blew into Atlanta during the morning Friday, bringing the number of men now on hand up to seventeen, with fifteen more yet to report.

Friday's arrivals were Pitcher Walter Miller, Pitcher Harold Johns, Pitcher C. Vedder Sitton, Pitcher Albert Arlington Britton and Outfielder Jules C. Watson. They all arrived during the morning, no arrivals being registered during the afternoon.

The men now on the job are:
Outfielders—Hemphill and Watson.
Infielders—Jordan, Sykes and O'Brien.
Catchers—Kerr, McMurray and Luck.
Pitchers—Atkins, Mayer, Hogue, Dessau, Gentle, Johns, Sitton, Britton and Miller.

The fifteen men who are yet to report are:
Pitchers—Revelle and Paige.
Catchers—Russell, Wells, Menafee, Miller and Mayer.
Infielders—Howard, Alperman, Phelan, Wolfe, Warner and Joynes.
Outfielders—Bailey and O'Dell.

The arrival of Harold Johns was a surprise to every one. He had not signed nor had he been sent transportation by the local club and it was not expected that he would report. In fact, the local mogul had asked waivers on the twirler with the intention of selling him.

But Harold is here, ready to work, looks to be in good shape and believes he is going to have a grand year. When he is working right, Johns is one of the best southpaws in the minor leagues. He has had more hard luck that any pitcher in this league in the past, especially during the past season.

Giving bases on balls is more fatal to Johns than to any pitcher who ever hurled in this league. Let him give one base on balls and it always results in a run, where some other pitcher, not half as good a twirler as Johns, would give four or five and not have a tally registered against him.

It's up to Manager Hemphill to give Johns a try-out, which he probably will, and the chances are that if Johns shows anything he will be given the chance, as Manager Hemphill is not going to play any favorites.

The five veterans talked things over upon their arrival, took a trip to the grounds to look things over, although the rain prevented them from doing any work. All five of them expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the dugouts for the players this season, instead of the old benches they sat in, right in view of all the fans.

The raising of the home plate also made a hit with the veterans, this feature draining the ground more rapidly.

All of the veterans were not surprised to run into rainy weather in Atlanta, as they left inches of snow in their home towns.

Weather permitting, and it is very doubtful if it will, the big squad of Crackers, which is sure to be augmented by several arrivals late last night and in the early morning today, will have their first genuine work-outs at the park.

And if they do, the division of time as agreed upon between Managers Hemphill and Wolverton will be put into effect.

The Crackers will have the field from 9 a. m. to 11 a. m. and from 12:30 p. m. to 2 p. m.

The Yankees from 11 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. and from 2 p. m. to 4 p. m.

With the exception of E. A. "Whitey" Alperman, the veteran infielder, Catcher Charlie Miller and Outfielder Harry Bailey, all of the players will be on hand by Sunday. Bailey and Alperman will report on Monday, and Miller the latter part of next week.

One thing is certain, the Crackers are going to be a bunch of big men during the coming season. There are very few little men in the entire bunch.

The team could be divided into three classes as follows: Large men, Watson, Hemphill, Jordan, O'Brien, Kerr, Hogue, Britton, Russell, C. Miller, Phelan, Warner, Wolfe and O'Dell.

Medium sized, Sykes, E. Mayer, Dessau, Gentle, Johns, Sitton, W. Miller, Paige, Howard, Alperman, Joynes, Luck and Bailey.

Small men, McMnurray, Atkins, Revelle, Wells, S. Mayer and Menafee.

FRANK WHITNEY MEETS SMITH

Lightweights Do Battle Before Gate City Tuesday Night.

Eddie Smith, who was slated to battle Battling Nelson before the Gate City Athletic Club on March 19, has been matched with Frank Whitney as the feature attraction for the Tuesday night bill. Smith hails from New York, where he is regarded as a good lightweight, having won from many of the good boys in this city during the past few months.

Paddy Ryan, of New York, and Young Murrell, regarded as one of the coming boxers of this section, will be the opponents in the other main attraction, which will go ten rounds to a decision.

Frank Whitney, who boxes Smith, has demonstrated to all that he is right in line for the lightweight title, and the outcome of his 10-round go with Eddie Smith will be closely watched. By winning decisively over Grover Hayes in the mix-up last Tuesday evening, Whitney showed he has a great future before him and a victory over Eddie Smith will give him advanced prestige.

A 6-round and a 4-round bout are yet to be arranged definitely. Matchmaker Brownfield is negotiating with some good preliminary boys, and will be able to announce who the opponents will be in these two contests.

BASKETBALL STAR IS HURT IN SUBWAY

New York, March 8.—Gerald Spencer Shibley, a senior at Columbia university and a member of the Columbia basketball team that has just won the intercollegiate championship, is under the care of surgeons today as the result of injuries received when he was caught in the sliding door of a subway car last night. Shibley started to get off a train when the guard slammed the door and caught him in its iron grip.

PEERLESS HAL HAS REPORTED

Great First-Sacker Joins the Yankees—Gardner Also Reports.

Hal Chase, the great firstbaseman of the New York Americans, blew into the city Friday morning, looking hale and hearty and ready for the fray.

"I am feeling pretty good and in a few days ought to be able to hit my best stride," said Chase. "I had too much to worry me last season but this year I expect to have the best year I have ever enjoyed."

Secondbaseman Earl Gardner was also a Friday arrival. He did not look as fit as some of the other players, but the long trip here from the coast made him appear more fatigued than is his natural wont.

Birdie Cree, the fleet-footed outfielder, whom Hal Chase is touting to be one of the leading outfielders of the country during the coming season, is expected to arrive most any day now.

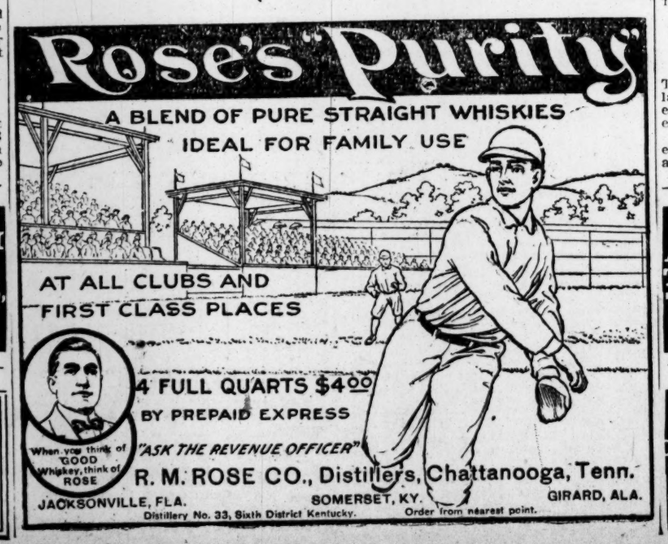

Ed Sweeney, the ex-Cracker receiver, who is a holdout, has not been heard from lately and just when he will report is problematical.

The only other Yankee to be accounted for now is Pitcher Ray Fisher and he will not report here until the middle of the season.

The players now here are:
Pitchers—Ford, McConnell, Martin, Shears, Hoff, Quinn, Clarke, Upham, Caldwell, Vaughan and Warhop.
Catchers—Street, Tonneman Appleby, Bergen and Williams.
Infielders—Priest, Stumpf, Curry, Erhard, Wolverton, Coleman, Dolan, Simmons, Hartzell, Chase and Gardner.
Outfielders—Daniels, Kauff, Zinn, Osborn and Wolter.

Some showers during the day Friday sent the men to the cover of the grandstand, but Manager Wolverton had them working steadily under there chasing bunts, running and playing all kinds of game.

Beginning today, they will have to divide the morning and afternoon practice hours with the Crackers.

REYNOLDS HERE LOOKING FIT

New York Welter Proves to Be the Rugged Type.

Meets Jimmy Perry Before Harry Staten's Club in Main Bout Tonight — Hector and Lee Should Furnish Exciting Semi-Windup.

TONIGHT'S CARD.

Jimmy Perry v. Bobby Reynolds, 10 rounds.
Kid Hector v. Charlie Lee, 8 rounds.
Kid Sills v. Terry Wilson, 4 rounds.
A battle royal.

This is the excellent card that Manager Harry Staten has booked for his club in the Steiner-Emery building tonight, the battle royal opening up the evening's entertainment promptly at 8:30 o'clock. Tickets for the mills can be found on sale at Staten's place directly under his fight club.

Unquestionably this is going to be an excellent card, with lightweights, featherweights and welterweights on the bill. Three classes of boys should prove attractive.

Kid Sills and Terry Wilson follow the battle royal. Sills has fought here before and has always delivered a splendid article as a preliminary boy. Wilson is a newcomer, but Staten believes that he is just the boy to make it interesting for Sills at all times.

Lee v. Hector.

The semi-windup should prove the most exciting semi-windup of the season with "One Round" Charlie Lee and "Battling Greek" Hector as the card in the semi-wind up. The bout came about as the result of a defi flaunted at Lee by Hector, accepted by the local lad and Staten proceeded to match the two boys.

Lee is the rugged, hard hitting, punishment assimilating boxer, while Hector is the light hitting, shifty, scientific kind. Two opposite types against one another always make an interesting go.

The main bout is going to be one of those hammer and tongs affairs. Both boys love to swap punches. As long as the other fellow is willing to mix it, they are willing to stand up and swap punches, hoping that they will get the chance to slip in a wallop that will turn the tide of battle to them.

Reynolds Is Rugged.

Reynolds got into Atlanta Thursday night and looks to be in excellent condition. Perry has been introduced to Atlanta fans, and they know just about what to expect of him. Reynolds is the unknown quantity so a few lines about him would not be amiss.

Reynolds looks just about like Fighting Charlie Kennedy, only more rugged and tanned. He has all the earmarks of a good scrapper and those who have seen him work out say that he really is.

Some of his bouts during the season of 1911 are:

Knocked out Al Freeman at New York in 2 rounds. Won in six rounds over Jack Beckman at New York. Knocked out Bert Griffin at Camden, N. J., in 4 rounds. A draw with Young Sam Langford at White Plains, N. J., 10 rounds. Knocked out Young Joe Grim, of New York, in 2 rounds at New York. Knocked out Billy Hopkins at New York in 2 rounds and has draws of 6 rounds in New York state with Kid Rose, Larry English, Jimmy Jarvis and numerous other boys.

Manager Staten wishes it announced that he has two exits from his club now, a protection to the patrons in the case of fire or anything else that would require a hurried exit.

OFFICERS ARE NAMED BY THE CASCADE CLUB

The South Side Cascade Improvement Club was organized Thursday evening at the Cascade school house by ninety citizens of the county, and the following officers were elected:

J. H. Zaring, president; L. A. Sewell, vice president; S. F. Lee, secretary and treasurer.

It was announced that the purpose of the organization would be to secure better roads and more and better schools.

After a number of addresses were made, the club indorsed W. M. Poole for county commissioner.

"FARMER" ALLEN FIRST MEMPHII TO REPORT

Memphis, Tenn., March 8.—(Special.) "Farmer" Allen, member of the 1910-11 pitching staff, was the first member of the Memphis team to report when he arrived from his home in Warsaw, Mo., today. Other candidates for battery position are due to arrive tomorrow and first practice is scheduled for Monday.

GEORGE KAHLKOFF HAS REPORTED AT MACON

Macon, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—George Kahlkoff, manager of the Macon baseball team, arrived here today from his home in Louisville, Ky. He will order the players, numbering about thirty, mostly from Georgia, to report on March 20. Kahlkoff will be the regular catcher for the team this season. He was formerly with Atlanta and is one of the best known minor league ball players.

Play Ball at Lyerly.

Lyerly, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—The ball park which was put up here last summer will be enlarged at an early date, and the grandstand will be enlarged and re-covered.

The first game of the season is booked for March 16, when the Summerville and Lyerly teams will "cross bats."

FIGHT FOR RETENTION OF MANY ARMY POSTS

Washington, March 8.—Indications of the determined fight that will be made in the senate for the retention of many of the army posts throughout the country which would be abandoned under the war department plan so far as adopted in the army appropriation bill, became apparent today when various senators made inquiries as to the status of the army bill.

Senator William Alden Smith made a general protest against the abandonment of border posts.

Senators Root and Warren concurred in this view.

Court at Lyerly.

Lyerly, Ga., March 8.—On Monday morning Judge John W. Maddox, of the Rome circuit, will convene the March term of Chattooga superior court at Summerville.

Indications are that the court will not be in session longer than four or five days, the civil docket being very light. There are but a small number of prisoners incarcerated in the county jail awaiting trial, and the majority of these are charged with misdemeanors.

SIX LAWYERS ARGUE OVER ONE, LONE COW

Washington, March 8.—W. R. Dennis, of Milano, Milam county, Texas, did not have a lawyer today in the supreme court to tell of the sad ending of his 3-year-old Jersey cow as she stood on a railroad track, but six railroad lawyers presented a brief in opposition to a Texas judgment requiring the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe to pay $75 for killing the cow and also $20 attorney's fees. The six lawyers contended that the Texas statute awarding to Dennis attorney's fees was unconstitutional.

JUDGE PATTERSON IN PRISON BOARD RACE

Griffin, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—While he has made no formal announcement, it is generally conceded that Judge Thomas E. Patterson, of this city, will be a candidate to succeed himself as a member of the state prison board, to which position he was appointed by Governor Hoke Smith to fill the unexpired term of the late Clement A. Evans. Judge Patterson is one of the best-known men in the state, having been judge and solicitor of the city court of Griffin, president of the state convention of the Christian church and taken a prominent part in local and state politics.

TWO MORE DELEGATES GET TAFT INSTRUCTIONS

Tuscaloosa, Ala., March 8.—At the sixth Aabama republican convention here today, Pope M. Long, of Cordova, and Lunsford, of Hackletsburg, were elected delegates to Chicago and for Taft. The alternates chosen were J. O. Hayes, of Boligee, and S. L. Studdard, of Cordova.

Blue Grass as Flower.

Frankfort, Ky., March 8.—After it had been shown to the satisfaction of the state senators that the blue grass has a flower, the upper house of the legislature last night voted to adopt the blue grass as the Kentucky state flower and the tulip as the state tree. Advocates of the goldenrod were able to muster only 12 votes to 16 for the blue grass. The bill now goes to the lower house.

Speaker of Reichstag.

Berlin, March 8.—Johannes Kaempf, the radical deputy for central Berlin, was today definitely elected speaker of the reichstag.

ST. LOUIS BROWNS AT MONTGOMERY

Montgomery, Ala., March 8.—(Special.)—The St. Louis "Browns," of the American League, reached Montgomery this afternoon at 6:30 o'clock for three weeks of spring practice. Accompanying the team of thirty-four strong were President R. M. Hedges, Manager Bob Wallace and several sporting writers. The St. Louis aggregation have taken up quarters at the Gay-Teague hotel.

Since the announcement that the Browns would train in Montgomery, the fans of this city have been in a turmoil of excitement, and this has been the chief topic of discussion in baseball circles. There has been a decided increase in baseball interest, and it is expetced that the training of the Browns in Montgomery will do much toward strengthening the local baseball organization.

With the Browns are Derrill Pratt, second sacker last year on the Billikens, and Bill Bailey, one of the star pitchers of the Montgomery club last year.

The Browns will begin practice tomorrow morning at Capitol Heights, and the hard work will continue during the period of their stay in Montgomery. On Sunday the Browns will play the Billikens an exhibition game, and other games are scheduled to be played between the two teams while the Browns are training in Montgomery.

The Capitol Heights diamond and field have put in good condition, the grandstand and club house have been renovated, and other improvements have been made at the local grounds.

On the arrival of the Oceanic, the collection was moved to a part of the ship where it could easily be taken ashore in case of emergency.

To Settle Aluminum Case.

Washington, March 8.—Negotiations between the government and the Aluminum Company of America for a friendly settlement of the question whether there is an "aluminum trust" will be successful, according to the belief of officials here. Officials of the aluminum company are now studying the contentions of the government. If a mutual solution is found, the case will be presented to the courts for an agreed decree.

SUGGESTS PLAN FOR TENNESSEE

Chairman Mack Advises Two Factions to Appoint Joint Committee.

Nashville, Tenn., March 8.—Norman E. Mack, chairman of the national democratic committee, today took a hand in the settlement of differences in the democratic party in this state when he wired Colonel O. C. Barton and W. O. Vertress, chairmen of the two state democratic executive committees, suggesting a basis of a plan that is intended to unite the two factions of the party. Chairman Mack suggested that each committee name five members of an advisory committee of eleven, these ten to name the eleventh.

The advisory committee is to have full power to promulgate a plan or plans for the nomination of candidates for all party offices, for the selection of a new state executive committee and for the selection of delegates to the Baltimore convention. It is further stipulated that the advisory committee is without authority to act provided organization is not perfected by the naming of the eleventh member before noon March 19.

The telegram was especially timely in view of the fact that simultaneous meetings of the democratic state committees will be held at noon tomorrow at the Maxwell house for the purpose of attempting to reach some agreement for democratic unity in this state.

ATLANTA'S STRIDES, DAY BY DAY

ALL THE NEWS OF REAL ESTATE AND BUILDING

Ten new stores will shortly be built on Walton street, between Cone and Spring streets, which will mean another extension of the retail district of Atlanta.

Wilmer L. Moore announced yesterday that he has changed his plans about building an apartment house on the block and will improve the property with stores, at a cost of about $50,000.

The property which Mr. Moore plans to improve is the site of the old Moore home on the north side of Walton street. The property has a frontage of 200 feet on Walton street, with a depth of 150 feet on Spring and Cone streets. On this lot Mr. Moore will erect ten stores. The buildings will be three stories in height and will be of brick and steel construction.

The announcement of the plans for these stores is another indication of the trend of the retail district towards the northeastern portion of the business district of Atlanta. This district has already invaded Forsyth and Luckie streets and there are plans for the grading of Spring and James streets which will make both of the streets central realty.

LATEST MARKET NEWS

COTTON THE PAST WEEK; REVIEW OF THE MARKET

New York, March 8.—Cotton has advanced, mainly owing to cold, rainy weather at the south and reports that the season there is some three weeks late for crop preparations, and that the crop is liable to get a late start. This has been supplemented by manipulation attributed to big trade interests and buying by Waldorf-Astoria operators, Wall street bulls and Memphis and New Orleans people. The spinners' takings are large. Exports make a big total. Some think they will reach 10,000,000 this season, and that domestic mills will take 5,000,000. The weight of the crop, the bulls insist, is off the market. The spot situation is considered firm. Fertilizer sales are smaller. The trade in fertilizers here is noticeably dull. In the eastern belt it is asserted that the acreage will be curtailed 5 to 10 per cent. The stock at New York is decreasing, as prices here are at so low a point as to forbid shipments hither. The movement of the crop is large. There is believed to be plenty of time for the south to catch up with its delayed preparations for the planting of another crop. Manipulation is apparent in the bull interest. The outside public is not in the speculation.

Waldorf and Wall street bulls have latterly been selling to secure profits, and there are few bears, so that the technical position is not considered so strong as it was recently. The dry goods situation, however, is improving, and there are more bulls than formerly. Further rains are threatened, and Waldorf, Wall street and the south renewed their buying on Thursday. A famous Wall street operator is said to be buying after some years' absence from the market. Today prices closed higher in spite of realizing. Spinners' takings were large for the week.

WEEK'S TRADE REVIEWED.

What Commercial Agencies Say About Business.

New York, March 8.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say that an increased movement of trade reflects the near approach of spring, and what is of greater significance, the admirable conditions prevailing in the winter wheat sections produce a more buoyant feeling in western trade circles and the whole business situation is benefited thereby. This is all the better, because of unsettling influences prevailing in many parts of the world, particularly in Mexico, China, and England.

Notwithstanding unusual handicaps, production of pig iron was on an enlarged scale in February, the output rising to 2,100,815 tons, against 2,057,911 in January, according to The Iron Age. The daily average in February was 72,442 tons, or 6,000 more than in the earlier month, nearly all the gain being provided by the steel companies. These statistics clearly point to heavier operations when the weather becomes more open.

Purchase of round lots of heavy melting steel scrap and of ends of both basic and Bessemer iron, have been made by the leading interests, while foundry grades reflect a hardening tendency. Activity is not pronounced in finished materials, but prices are less unsettled and some manufacturers are more independent in their attitude.

Demand in dry goods steadily broadens, and many evidences of sustained strength are noted. Some advances are noted, notably cotton blankets and staple napped goods, while colored cottons rule steady and tend toward a higher level. There is also a moderate improvement in the outlook for fine yarn cloths. Less than four weeks' product of all kinds of cloths are in stock at Fall River. Export shipments continue good, sales ahead to India being the largest in six years, while demand from the Red sea continues active.

In woolens, jobbers are doing a fair trade and are hopeful of its continuance. Some staples are well sold ahead, and one leading line of colored serges has been withdrawn, being sold up for spring and fall.

Trade in footwear is quiet and supplementary orders for seasonable lines are limited. Higher prices for fall goods retard trade somewhat. Tanners expect more trade in letter as soon as the fall season is about to commence.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, March 8.—The weather in the south is still unsettled, but failed to influence the market, and for the moment prices are at a standstill. The long interests have been a good seller during the day, with the south taking a less gloomy view, and the crop delay is slightly dwelt upon. Liquidation is proceeding, and new buyers are needed to sustain prices. Some pressure was evident upon October delivery, in view of the wide difference. Cables were poor, with no favorable strike news.

The disposition here is to sell on advances, and with the decreasing short interest it may be difficult to hold the market, should Liverpool waver.

MYRTLE HAWKINS MYSTERY PROBED

Fate of North Carolina Girl May Be Solved.

Evidence Before Grand Jury Indicates Girl Was Killed After Criminal Operation Was Attempted—More Arrests Are Expected.

Asheville, N. C., March 8.—The mystery of the death of Myrtle Hawkins, whose dead body was found floating in the waters of Lake Osceola last September, was brought a step nearer to solution this afternoon when the Henderson county grand jury, sitting at Hendersonville, returned true bills charging murder against Abner McCall, his wife, Beatrice McCall, and George Bradley, and a woman "unknown to the jury." Money Bradley, a brother of George, is charged with being an accessory before the fact to said murder, and Dan McCall, father of Mrs. McCall, is charged with being an accessory after the fact.

Immediately following the reading of the bill of indictment, warrants were issued for the indicted parties, and all were arrested and placed in the Henderson county jail. Dan McCall was tonight admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000, but similar action was refused in the case of the others. The Bradleys and McCalls will be tried at the May term of the Henderson county superior court.

The bill of indictment specifies that the parties named therein had guilty knowledge of a criminal operation which resulted in the death of Myrtle Hawkins.

"Boney Bradley, who makes his first appearance in the case, was summoned before the grand jury Wednesday and, partially identified by Dr. J. H. Williams, of Asheville, as being the man who, last June, came to his office and asked that he (Dr. Williams) perform a certain operation, a request which was refused. Dr. Williams identified a photograph of Myrtle Hawkins as being that of the girl who called at his office the next day. She left on Dr. Williams' refusal to aid her.

The body of Myrtle Hawkins was found in Lake Osceola on Sunday, September 13, of last year, in a badly decomposed condition. The first coroner's inquest brought in a verdict to the effect that the deceased had met her death in a manner unknown to the jury. The finding caused much public comment of an unfavorable nature, and this resulted in a statement by the coroner of Henderson county that the verdict was so worded and rendered in the hope of allaying the suspicions of the guilty person or persons. A second inquest was held on September 17, many new witnesses being examined. The verdict following stated that Myrtle Hawkins came to her death "at the hands of a person or persons unknown to the jury."

Since that time Solicitor Hall Johnson, of this district, and the Hendersonville police have worked steadily on the case. Rewards were offered by the county and state amounting in all to $850.

FEAR BAD START FOR THE NEW CROP

Cotton Futures Worked Higher Again in the Late Trading.

New York, March 8.—An opening advance in the cotton market established new high records on the new crop months and, while heavy realizing caused reactions during the middle of the day, offerings were well absorbed, there was no change in the general character of the news and the market worked higher again in the late trading, with the close firm at a net advance of 3@7 points.

The opening was steady at an advance of 4@7 points, in response to firm late cables from Liverpool, predictions for further rains in the south, overnight buying orders and a renewal of bull support. Profit-taking was very active around the initial figures, and prices eased off in consequence, with active months selling back to a shade under the closing figures of last night durin gthe middle of the day. There was little aggressive selling on the decline, however, while the market continued to receive good support at the reaction of some 10 or 12 points from the best, with considerable southern buying in evidence, and as soon as realizing for over the week-end became a little less active, the market firmed up again, with July touching the highest point of the day in the late trading. The close was at practically the best on old crop months within a point or two of the top on new crop positions, March again showed relative firmness compared with May, and there was some further talk of a short interest in that position. Rather a bullish construction of the week-end figures, owing to the comparatively large spinners' takings, probably helped the market in the late trading, together with reports of a continued good spot demand and with higher southern markets. The main factor on the advance, however, still seemed to be the fear of an unfavorable new crop start, and while today's western belt experts claimed to see little chance for improvement in eastern and central belt sections.

Receipts today, 3,725 bales, against 46,246 last week and 13,352 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 2,592, against 1,377 last year; at Galveston, 5,748, against 5,992 last year, and at Houston, 4,649, against 1,365 last year.

Cotton spot closed quiet, 5 points higher; middling uplands, 10.70; do. gulf, 10.95; sales, 900.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, March 8.—Spot cotton firm and unchanged. middling 10 9-16; sales on the spot 1,150 bales; to arrive 1,300; low ordinary 6⅞, nominal; ordinary 7 11-16, nominal; good ordinary 9⅛; strict good ordinary 9½; low middling 9 13-16; strict low middling 10 3-16, middling 10 9-16; strict middling 10⅞; good middling 11¼, strict good middling 11 5-16; middling fair 11⅝; middling fair to fair 12; fair 12⅝, nominal. receipts 2,592; stock 292,933.

Cotton futures opened steady at an advance of 5 to 7 points on the rumor that the English coal strike had been settled. Cables were slightly better than due and the weather map was the worst yet posted this week, indicating wet and cold weather in the cotton region generally. After the call the trading months were 6 to 8 points up, but at this point the receipt of cablegrams from Liverpool stating that there was nothing official to the report that the strike had been settled caused much selling, and prices quickly slumped 10 to 11 points. At the end of the first half hour of business the market was 3 to 4 points under yesterday's close.

Around the middle of the morning cable messages were received from one of the best posted cotton men in England advancing the opinion that the coal strike would be settled within four days. The bear element did not agree with this, but it had some effect on values and caused short selling to slacken. The weather forecast also helped the market, as it called for rain, snow and freezing weather in the cotton belt. Prices recovered slowly from the lowest levels of the morning and at noon were 1 to 2 points under yesterday's close.

In the afternoon the market did not move much. There was no pressure to sell. At 2 o'clock prices were 2 to 5 points over yesterday's last quotations.

Cotton futures closed steady, 1 point down to 2 points up, compared with yesterday's close.

STEEL SHOWED MORE STRENGTH

Further Covering of Short Contracts Caused Extensive Dealings.

New York, March 8.—Prices hardened again on the stock exchange today with an early show of activity, but later trading fell to small proportions and only a part of the rise was held. The local market derived some encouragement from London, where Americans were in better demand than recently, closing with a majority of net gains. Increased strength in United States Steel was again attended by extensive dealings which seemed to represent a further covering of short contracts. The same apparently was true of Reading, in which much of the recent pressure was relaxed. The Harriman issues, United States Steel, Great Northern preferred and some other standard railway shares were in fair demand. Amalgamated Copper continued its upward progress, although falling back upon the publication of the February statement of the Copper Producers' Association, which disclosed a smaller decrease in stocks than had been expected. Other copper shares hold their ground, and the various equipment issues moved up in anticipation of impending railway requirements. In the final hour the market manifested a further tendency toward heaviness, but net results in the main were favorable to the long account.

Developments of the day included a speech by President Taft, which was intended as an offset to recent remarks by Colonel Roosevelt, and was interpreted as a desire on the part of the administration to restore confidence in quarters where that feeling now is lacking.

Advices from Washington, announcing that congress intends to investigate the so-called smelter trust, found no reflection in the securities concerned, which were distinctly strong. The annual report of the American Smelting Company, which is soon to issue, probably will make a better showing than that of the previous year.

Official figures from the department of agriculture at Washington estimated the quantity of wheat on farms March 1 at 122,000,000 bushels, a falling off of about 40,000,000 compared with the corresponding month last year and almost as much under 1910. The amount of corn in reserve according to this report is less by over 280,-000,000 bushels, with very heavy decreases in oats and barley.

The money movement in this city during the week was relatively unimportant, with indications of a moderate cash loss. Opinions differ as to the outcome of loans, which are likely to increase by reason of stock market demands. Advices now at hand show the severe strain to which German financial institutions were put during last autumn's crisis, and which continues to mirror itself in the incessant demands for cash from Berlin. That center reported a more steady tone today with firmness for our stocks.

The sole feature of the local market was the higher rate demanded for short time maturities, sixty-day loans being made at an advance of ¼ per cent.

Bonds were steady, with a narrow margin in the more prominent issues. Total sales, par value, $2,706,000. Government 2s coupon and the 4s advanced ⅛, and 3s ¼ per cent on call.

Hester's World's Visible Supply

New Orleans, March 8.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton, made up from special cable and telegraphic advices, compares the figures of this week with last week, last year and the year before. It shows a decrease for the week just closed of 8,903, against a decrease of 167,007 last year and a decrease of 106,662 year before last.

The total visible is 5,992,447, against 6,001,350 last week, 4,628,883 last year and 4,333,447 year before last. Of this the total of American cotton is 4,778,-447, against 4,841,350 last week, 3,506,-882 last year and 3,018,447 year before last, and of all other kinds, including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc., 1,214,000, against 1,160,000 last week, 1,122,000 last year and 1,315,000 year before last.

The total world's visible supply of cotton as above shows a decrease compared with last week of 8,903, an increase compared with last year of 1,363,565, and an increase compared with year before last of 1,659,000.

Of the world's visible supply of cotton as above, there is now afloat and held in Great Britain and contintntal Europe 3,317,000, against 3,754,000 last year, and 3,323,000 year before last; in Egypt 257,000, against 230,000 last year and 164,00 year before last; in India 625,000, against 497,000 last year and 759,000 year before last; and in the United States 1,7939,000, against 1,143,-000 last year and 1,196,000 year before last.

Coffee.

New York, March 8.—The market for coffee futures opened steady at unchanged prices to an advance of 4 points, in response to a little support from leading trade interests and steady French cables. Trading was very quiet during the morning, but became a little more active after midday, when prices worked a shade higher on reports of an improved spot demand and covering. The close, however, was a little off from the best, under realizing and barely steady, although last prices still showed net gains of from 1 to 9 points. Sales, 48,500 bags.

Havre was unchanged to ¼ franc higher; Hamburg was ¼ pfennig higher. Rio unchanged at 8$375. Santos unchanged; 4s, 8$450; 7s, 7$650.

Receipts at the two Brazilian ports were 17,00 bags, against 11,000 last year. Jundiahy receipts 6,000, against 2,600 last year.

New York warehouse deliveries yesterday 8,921, against 5,815 last year.

Fine weather was reported in most districts of Sao Paulo; cloudy conditions in one district. Today's special Santos cable reported 4s 50 reis lower at 8$400. Sao Paulo receipts 10,000, against 12,000 yesterday.

Spot coffee steady; Rio No. 7, 14 3-8; Santos, No. 4, 15½; mild coffee dull; Cordova, 16@18, nominal. Futures ranged as follows:

FIGURES TOO LATE TOO AFFECT GRAIN

Wheat Speculators Guessed Wrong on Reserve Report.

Chicago, March 8.—Guesses on government figures regarding farm reserves went wrong today and the grain markets all closed weak, while the Washington estimates, which came a minute later, turned out to be of a decidedly bullish sort. The totals, however, were in no case anywhere near so small as some extremists had predicted. Latest trading left wheat ⅛ to ⅛@¼c down, corn ⅛c off to a shade higher, oats up ¼ to 3-8@½c, and hog products at 5@7½ to 17½@20c advance.

Reserves of wheat proved to be the scantiest since 1905. Some scattered longs who lost their courage when it came time to official test, did the most of the selling. The majority of speculators, though, seemed disposed to hold aloof until after the government report was out. A dragging market was the result. Opening prices in the wheat pit showed a rise due to bullish foreign news and to the Ohio state report, which noted a crop condition of 63 per cent, against 83 in December. The foreign strength was largely due to almost exhausted stocks at Liverpool, the port strike in Australia and curtailment of expected shipments from Argentina. On the other hand, cash demand here was at a standstill; in fact, Michigan, Indiana and Illinois districts that usually buy in Chicago at this season were, instead, attempting to market wheat in this city. Accordingly, initial quotations were the best reached during the session. Between the opening and the close, May ranged from $1.03½ to $1.04⅛, with last sales ⅛@¼c net lower, at $1.03½@1.03 5-8c.

In contrast with the fact that corn reserves were found to be less than at any time since 1904, the cereal throughout the day developed only a slow demand. One reason was that the Argentine crop was said to promise to be a bumper. Unloading on the part of smaller longs counted also against the market. May varied from 70 7-8 to 71 3-8, closing ⅛c off at 71@71⅛c. Cash grades were firm. No. 2 yellow was quoted at 68½@69c for car lots.

Speculators in oats, who believed in a radically bullish estimate from Washington, seemed afraid, as a rule, to commit themselves. One leading house did buy, though in a rather gingerly fashion. Their figures were later demonstrated to have been much under those of the government. May sold from 52 5-8 to 53⅛, and in the end was ¼c up at 52 7-8@53c.

Shorts in the provision crowd covered on account of falling off in receipts of hogs. As an outcome pork tonight costs more by 17½ to 17½@20, and the rest of the list exhibited an advance of 57 ½to 7½@10c.

CITY REACHES LIGHT AGREEMENT

were not mentioned in the agreement and which were stricken were:

1. Pay the full amount of tax on gross receipts, and in addition the ad valorem tax on franchises, as well as other ad valorem taxes.

2. All franchises to be limited to 35 years from present date.

3. Pay 2 per cent on gross receipts for fifteen years from date and 3 per cent for twenty years thereafter on all business of the Georgia Railway and Power Company in Fulton and DeKalb counties.

6. Sell twenty-five tickets for car fare for $1, being a 20 per cent reduction.

9. The city to agree that no bonds will be issued within five years for building light and power plant, but the right of the city to build a light and power plant from other income not to be abridged in any way, and the city to have the right to establish a light and power plant in connection with proposed crematory, even though bond money be used for same, either from bonds already issued or to be issued hereafter, and the percentage tax on gross receipts to be paid in full on all receipts, including the business of supplying electric current, even though the city build a light and power plant.

10. The question of current for lights and power for the city's individual use is not included in the foregoing provisions.

Section No. 1 was held open so that the courts might state exactly what the rights the city had in the collection of franchise taxes.

Sections Nos. 2 and 3 were withdrawn by the city.

Section No. 6 was withdrawn by the city.

Sections Nos. 9 and 10 were withdrawn. By the withdrawal of section No. 9, the city reserves the right to do as it wishes about an electric plant.

This left the other sections which were agreed to as stated.

What It Means.

The reduction of the rate for electric lights from 9 to 7 cents per kilowatt hour, net, means that if a person's bill is now $28 a month it will be $21.

If a bill for motor power is now $5.40 it will be $4.50.

In other words, the rate for lights has been reduced 22 per cent, and those for power 20 per cent.

When the agreements have all been ratified, they will not go into effect until next winter, and not later than January 1 of next year.

It is estimated that, under the agreement made relative to street paving, the street car company will pay the city annually about $80,000 instead of $55,000.

When the committee was called to order, a motion was adopted to appoint a subcommittee to confer with President P. S. Arkwright, of the Georgia Railway and Electric Company, and Forrest Adair, of the Georgia Railway and Power Company. The subcommittee was as follows: Councilman Aldine Chambers, Mayor Winn and City Attorney Mayson.

The subcommittee was out about two hours, when it returned and reported that it had reached an agreement.

It was understood the officials of the companies had been assured that council would ratify what the committee did.

When the vote was taken on the subcommittee's report, the only member of the joint committee who dissented was Alderman John E. McClelland, who said he couldn't see how the consumer had been benefited by the reductions. He said that such a settlement was simply farcical, and that he intended to fight it on the floor of council.

"The people have some rights in this matter," he stated, "and they will never be satisfied until they throw off this yoke and bondage and own their own electric light and power plant." Mr. McClelland also stated that he would go into the courts if necessary to prevent the agreement being carried out.

Council will act upon the committee's report next Monday afternoon.

not tolerate the tricks and deceptions and fraud which are inseparable from the kind of politics your characterization implies."

Colonel Roosevelt's manager says in his letter that through political manipulation, particularly in the south, there has been an "absolute stifling of expression on the part of republican voters," and he submits the following questions to Mr. McKinley as manager for President Taft:

Thrown Down Gage.

"I now ask you specifically:

"First, are you willing to join me in an appeal to the republican state committees to provide for an expression of the republican voters of the several states on the choice of the republican presidential candidate?

"Second, will you immediately join with me in a telegram to the republican members of the legislatures in Massachusetts, Maryland and Michigan, which are now in session, where presidential preference bills are now pending and where it is reported your friends are trying to defeat their passage, urging them to support these measures?

"I await your immediate answer to these two propositions because I regard action favorable to the view I take as absolutely essential to party success in November. Trust the republican voters now.

"Very truly yours,

"JOSEPH M. DIXON."

ROOSEVELT BOOMERS HOPE TO SWING NORTH CAROLINA

Charlotte, N. C., Marh 8.—Supporters of Colonel Roosevelt are in session in Greensboro this morning to carry out the expressed intention of organizing a state Roosevelt organization. The call for the conference was signed by Richmond Pearson, former member of congress, and minister to Panama under the Roosevelt and McKinley administrations.

There are about twenty-five leading republicans of the state in attendance upon the conference, which is being held in semi-executive sessions. The fact that the republican state executive committee failed to indorse the Taft administration is said to be the incentive for the predictions of the Roosevelt supporters that the state convention will send the twenty-four delegates from North Carolina to the Chicago convention instructed for the colonel.

Brothers Are Rivals.

Lexington, Ky., March 8.—Local interest in the contest between Taft and Roosevelt forces for the delegation from this county to the seventh congressional district convention is given a touch of piquancy by the announcement that brothers are rival candidates representing the warring factions for chairman of the county convention, which meets April 6. Thomas C. McDowell, widely known as a turfman, is the Roosevelt candidate, and W. A. McDowell, general manager of the Lexington and Eastern railroad, is the Taft candidate.

Aldrich Urges Primary.

Lincoln, Neb., March 8.—Governor Aldrich this evening sent a message to Representative McKinley urging him as director of the campaign of President Taft to arrange for a presidential preferential primary in each state of the union, concluding:

"The party machine may run the steam roller over the rights of the rank and file of the national convention, but they cannot do it at the polls in November."

LETTER TO WIFE PLAYS BIG PART

that Mrs. Grace was accused, that "there is nothing in that, absolutely nothing," was asked over long-distance telephone last night about the letter.

Consult Lamar Hill.

"I will tell you nothing about the letter," he replied. "You can consult Mr. Lamar Hill, the family's attorney in the matter."

As for motive for the alleged crime, it has now narrowed down, according to the family's attorneys, to but one thing—money.

"Mrs. Grace was purely sordid in her wish for her husband's death," said Mr. Arnold. "There is no third party in the case, no man or woman as the cause of the tragedy.

"Mrs. Grace just simply wanted the money which she would get on his insurance policies. She needed it. She collected a $25,000 policy after Opie's somewhat mysterious death, and not long after that she got $10,000 for an alleged jewel robbery. It was money that caused the shooting, and she did the shooting."

Mr. Arnold then told of Grace's story of the nightmare ruse, which is recounted in another place in this paper. Summed up briefly, the family of Grace has retained attorneys, now that their suspicions are so firm as to amount to conviction that Mrs. Grace is guilty.

Must Make Inventory.

The need of money as a motive for the crime, and Mrs. Grace's alleged desire to collect her husband's life insurance, is significant in view of some information which The Constitution has secured regarding a legal detail of Mrs. Grace's inheritance from her former husband, Opie.

The Opie will, leaving her $10,000 in personal property and $5,000 in real estate, was dated February 8, 1911, and was probated February 23, 1911. This was a few days more than one year ago.

Under the Pennsylvania law, an inventory or accounting is required of all beneficiaries. One year and one month is the time allowed for such an accounting of the trust.

In Mrs. Grace's case, no such inventory has been filed.

The time for it is rapidly expiring. She has but a few more days in which to comply with the law.

Taking this in connection with the reputed dwindling of her fortune, and her alleged heavy need of money, and it will be seen, it is said, that the need of funds was great. It could not be learned just what would be done by her in her present predicament toward complying with the Pennsylvania law.

Represent Mr. Grace.

Preston Hill and Lewis Hill, two half-brothers of the wounded man, are the local representatives of the family in the affair, and it is they who have held several consultations with the attorneys.

Grace Friday morning called lawyers to his bedside and made his will. In it he ignored his wife completely. The will is a "blanket" affair, leaving everything to his mother. The property is not specified, and it is not known how much it is worth.

The will includes the insurance policies, now made out to his wife in whose possession they are. A possessory warrant has been served on her for them, but they have not been surrendered, and a legal fight will result in case of Grace's death.

There has been some question raised as to whether or not Mrs. Hill could collect the insurance unless the policies are surrendered and the proper transfer made as required by law. This doubt was strengthened by the supposition that Mrs. Grace may have been paying the premiums on the policies. No statement could be secured as to this from her or her attorneys.

Mrs. Grace Has Cold.

Mrs. Grace is suffering from a cold, and an attendant attack of tonsilitis. It was said at the jail that she was scarcely able to speak above a whisper. She has every attention, and Engineer Howard, of the Tower, Friday personally superintended her meals. Altogether, she is as comfortable as she could be, and the authorities of the Tower have extended her every legitimate courtesy.

J. A. Branch, in the absence of Mr. Moore, gave The Constitution a signed statement denying that any plan of defense for Mrs. Grace had been agreed upon or given out. The statement is as follows:

"No definite plans of defense for Mrs. Grace have been given out.

"Mrs. Grace is locked in a prison cell, without the privilege of making bond, although friends of hers and prominent citizens, who believe in her innocence, are ready to make any reasonable bond for her. We are glad to learn that Mr. Grace is improving.

"Mr. Moore is at Jackson, attending the bedside of his brother, Mr. Threatt Moore, who is seriously ill. I expect him to return to the city tomorrow morning.

"Since she was arrested Tuesday evening, Mrs. Grace has not had access to her personal effects or papers, and, of course, has had no opportunity to transact business concerning any property rights.

(Signed) "J. A. BRANCH."

Discuss Negro Theory.

The last paragraph refers to the insurance policies, over which it seems as if there might be a fight between Mrs. Grace and her husband's family.

Referring to stories of an alleged plan for defense, Mr. Moore said before he left, "We were discussing the negro character and the motive of robbery. The detectives had hooted at robbery, because everything in the room had not been carried off, and I said that was absurd, because negroes often steal money and small articles and pass the more valuable ones over. Because everything was not stolen is no sign that there was no robbery.

"The defense is not planned out at all."

RELATIVES OF MRS. GRACE PROMINENT IN PENNSYLVANIA

Of good old Pennsylvania Dutch stock, closely and intimately connected with the progress of the state, and related to the elite of Philadelphia society, Mrs. Daisy Ulrich Opie Grace, accused of attempting to murder her husband, is being watched with interest by the public there.

Mrs. Grace's mother was Miss Martha Richter, of Selin's Grove, Pa., where she was raised and spent her girlhood. She was educated in Philadelphia, where she received the training that made her an ideal hostess and a belle throughout the state.

Her Mother's Marriage.

Early in life she was married to Stanley Ulrich, Mrs. Grace father. Mr. Ulrich was a lawyer, a graduate of Yale university, and for a time was prominent in the public life of his section. His friendship with prominent men brought many of them to his home, where Mrs. Grace took a prominent part in entertaining them. The Ulrichs lived in Lebanon, one of the oldest and best-known towns of Pennsylvania, reputed for its old-fashioned ways and aristocratic atmosphere.

Mrs. Ulrich, even after her removal to Philadelphia following the death of her husband, spent much of her time in Lebanon. Her sister, Mrs. Calvin B. North, still lives there. She is the wife of Calvin B. North, famous as the oldest active bank cashier in the United States, and is an officer of the First National Bank of Lebanon. He is worth a fortune.

An uncle of Mrs. Grace, John F. Richter, now deceased, was one of the wealthiest farmers of that section, and when he died left an estate valued at several hundred thousands of dollars. Another of her aunts is Mrs. Joseph Cummings, of Sunbury, Pa. All the members of the family are prominent socially, most of them are wealthy, and Mrs. Grace's arrest has created a sensation.

Well Known in Atlanta.

Since moving to Atlanta Mrs. Grace has been well known in Atlanta society, though it is said she has never entertained on an elaborate scale. Only recently had she taken the beautiful home of John F. Kiser, 29 West Eleventh street.

Here, with her husband, she received his friends, and dispensed a hospitality that was lavish, if on a small scale. It is said that for this spring she was planning a series of entertainments, and one notable reception, to ereciprocate the courtesies which had been extended her.

The arrest of Mrs. Grace, following the shooting of her husband, created profound regret. There are many people whose sympathy went out to her, and she has received numerous messages and offers of assistance since her incarceration in the jail.

Three Killings Charged to Negro.—Three men have fallen under the deadly aim of Wallace Warren, the Monticello negro, who was arrested in Atlanta by Detectives Gorman and McHugh for the murder of a negro in Jasper county, according to Sheriff W. F. Persons, who came here to bring the negro back for trial. Warren killed a negro in Birmingham some years ago, and recently he sent Will Webster, a railroad section laborer, to his grave in a city in Tennessee. Sheriff Persons left with his prisoner last night. He was well chained.

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

VOL. XLIV—No. 268. ATLANTA, GA., SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 9, 1912. PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

SECRETARY KNOX WAS NOT INVITED, SAYS COLOMBIA

The Report Given Out by State Department Is Absolutely Denied.

OSPINA WAS NOT RECALLED; GIVEN LEAVE OF ABSENCE

As Consequence, It Is Practically Certain Cartagena Will Be Omitted From Secretary's Itinerary—Wilson Declines to Be Interviewed in Reference to Statements.

Washington, March 8.—Senor Pedro Nel Ospina was not recalled by Colombia as minister to the United States as a result of his alleged insult to this country by informing the state department unofficially that a visit by Secretary Knox to Colombia might be "inopportune."

Senor Roberto Macdouall, charge d'affaires of the Colombian legation, declared tonight that Senor Ospina resigned of his own initiative, and that the state department did not receive a special invitation from Colombia for Mr. Knox to visit there.

As a consequence, it is practically certain that Cartagena will be omitted from the Knox itinerary.

Asked for Leave.

Senor Macdouall tonight explained that Senor Ospina, many weeks before the Knox trip was announced, had applied for a leave of absence of three months on acount of the critical illness of his wife. The Colombian government, he said, in the midst of the tangle over the Knox trip, merely granted to Senor Ospina the leave requested.

The minister, on the other hand, dissatisfied with the attitude of the United States toward Colombia, in failing to answer her notes asking for arbitration of the anama claims, cabled his resignation to Bogota. Only a few days ago, Senor Macdouall added, came the acceptance of Ospina's resignation, with the proviso, however, that it might be convenient for him soon to re-enter the diplomatic service. It is probable that Senor Ospina may be assigned to London.

Senor Macdouall asserted that with the acceptance of Ospina's resignation he was ordered to take charge of the legation here, and was advised by his government that its international policy toward the United States was "unchanged."

Asked whether he had received any instructions concerning the Knox trip, Senor Macdouall said:

Knox Not Invited.

"My government simply cabled me to rectify the impression given by the newspapers that Secretary Knox had been invited to visit Colombia. The government, therefore, authorized me yesterday to announce that no invitation had been issued."

At the state department today Acting Secretary Huntington Wilson said no invitation to visit any country had been solicited or received. Mr. Wilson, on February 14, announced, "unless there is a special invitation from Colombia Mr. Knox will not go there."

Four days ago the state department gave out the following:

"Mr. Dubois, the minister at Bogota, telegraphed that he has been officially informed that the Colombian government will be pleased to have the secretary of state visit Cartagena."

It was said at the same time that the message had been forwarded to Mr. Knox, and that it was for him to decide if he would change his itinerary to include Cartagena.

Senor Macdouall tonight declared he believed his authorization to deny that an invitation had been issued came at this time because press dispatches of the above announcements had just reached Bogota.

Acting Secretary Wilson declined to be seen tonight with reference to the conflicting statements of the Colombian legation and the state department.

In explaining the attitude of the Colombian government in the affair, Senor Macdouall drew a distinction between issuing an invitation to a visitor and saying that he would be welcome if he came. He declared that Colombia had indicated she would welcome Mr. Knox if he came, but had not voluntarily invited him.

Knox in Honduras.

Amapala, Honduras, March 8.—Secretary of State Knox arrived here today on board the United States armored cruiser Maryland from Corinto, Nicaragua.

Mr. Knox came ashore at 1 o'clock and was tendered a luncheon by members of the cabinet. General Manuel Bonila, president of the republic, was unable to attend, owing to illness, and sent his regrets. This afternoon Mr. Knox entertained the cabinet ministers on board the Maryland, and during their visit there were numerous cordial exchanges. No event is scheduled for tonight, but an extensive program in honor of the visit of the American secretary of state has been arranged for tomorrow.

GEORGIANS WORK FOR UNDERWOOD

Mayor Herbert Clay, of Marietta, Writes Strong Letter.

Four Out of Five for Underwood, Says Col. Ed Wight. Speaker Pro Tem. Vinson for Underwood—Progress Pleases Manager Hutchens.

Leading Georgians all over the state are lining up for Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, for president.

Letters are coming in by the score to Manager G. R. Hutchens at Underwood headquarters, Aragon hotel, and callers from all parts of Georgia are there every day, not only to see what is going on, but to find out how they can best serve the Underwood cause.

They came not only with good news of Underwood strength in their home counties, but with proffers of effort of the strenuous sort to put the county in the Underwood column.

Significant and interesting among the letters received by Manager Hutchens was one from Mayor E. H. Clay, of Marietta, an influential leader in Cobb county, and who states he is ready to do all he can to further Mr. Underwood's candidacy.

Mayor Clay's Letter.

Here is what Mayor Clay says in his letter addressed to Manager Hutchens at Underwood headquarters:

"I notice with pleasure that the supporters of Hon. Oscar Underwood, of the state of Alabama, are active in his interests in Georgia in the coming presidential primary. I will take pleasure in doing all I can in the interest of Mr. Underwood's candidacy.

"In the first place he is an old line democrat, true to his party, and has made a record that has not been equaled by any other democrat in years.

"In the second place, he is not only able, but is conservative, and I believe he will have the active support of the conservative element in all parts of the country.

"In the third place, he is a southern man, and the south has always stood by democratic principles. Underwood is the man who should be nominated by all means."

Many Others Like It.

The foregoing is just a sample of hundreds of letters which are coming to Manager Hutchens from all sections of the state.

Among others one was received from Speaker Pro Tem. of the House of Representatives Carl Vinson, of Milledgeville, who announces he will be in Atlanta Monday and will call at Underwood headquarters to tender his services and to render assistance in any way he can do so. Mr. Vinson suggests that the delegates to the national convention should be elected by the people of the state.

"I want to assure you," Mr. Vinson says, "that everything I possibly can do to advance Mr. Underwood's candidacy will be done in this section."

Hon. M. C. Tarver, of Dalton, a well-known lawyer and member of the house of representatives from Whitfield county, writes assuring Manager Hutchens that he is with him in this campaign heart and soul and will cooperate with him in any way that is within his power.

Four Out of Five for Underwood.

Colonel Ed L. Wight returned to Atlanta Friday from a trip to Cuba and Florida with some interesting impressions on the presidential situation. Colonel Wight is well known in Georgia. He has served his state in both branches of the legislature, was formerly mayor of Albany and for years commanded the Fourth Georgia regiment.

"At the time that I started south the candidacy of Mr. Underwood had just commenced to be discussed," he said, "and I took occasion to talk the matter over with Floridians and with many of the large army of northern people who are wintering in Florida, and I never met a person who was opposed to Mr. Underwood's nomination on the ground that he is a southern man, but on the contrary, I found that his candidacy met great favor.

"Since Mr. Underwood's announcement, I have met and talked with many Floridians and Georgians, and I do not exaggerate it when I say that four out of five are for Mr. Underwood. There is not the slightest doubt in my mind of Mr. Underwood's carrying the state of Georgia in the preferential primary by an overwhelming majority.

"Oscar Underwood is the logical man for the democrats to nominate. He represents conservative democracy, and I believe that Mr. Roosevelt's entrance into the fight will result in democrats all over the land flocking to Mr. Underwood's support. The radicals are going to be badly beaten in the coming fight. The real issue is to be the tariff, and neither Mr. Roosevelt or the radical democrats can obscure that issue. Mr. Underwood is the greatest champion of a tariff-for-revenue-only the democratic party has ever produced.

"For years the democrats in the south have sat by and allowed the northern democrats to nominate our president, and it is high time that we of the south were asserting ourselves. Now is the logical time, when even our northern and western brothers are cordially receiving Mr. Underwood's announcement. If we let this chance go by, it may be many years before we have such another opportunity."

Without a Parallel.

Manager Hutchens was elated Friday over the way the Underwood campaign is moving in Georgia. He said:

"Letters are coming in from all parts of the state, giving assurance of active support of Mr. Underood, and so far the progress of the campaign is, to my mind, without a parallel in national politics in Georgia, in the matter of enthusiasm, considering the fact that the campaign has scarcely started.

"No one but Underwood need apply in Georgia, for I believe Georgians are not going to take the chance of being responsible for the defeat of the only candidate for president from the south since the war. Suppose we did turn our back on him and when we got to the national convention found he could be nominated with Georgia's delegation, and for lack of our support he was defeated. Do we want to risk it? I believe he can be nominated, but if he could not, we would lose nothing by sending our delegation for him. If we saw we could not nominate him, we could nominate some other good democrat.

"But Underwood can be nominated, and he can be elected, and we can have a genuine democratic administration of our national government.

"Alabama, we are with you. We will take no chances."

POLE IS REACHED AMUNDSEN WIRES

Famous Norwegian Explorer Says He Got There December 14.

Charts and Other Information of the Expedition Will Be Submitted at Once—English Scientists Believe Claim of Norwegian.

Christiana, March 8.—When Captain Raold Amundsen's brother, Leon, personally took the explorer's telegram announcing that he had attained the South Pole to King Haakon yesterday, his majesty was attending the maneuvers at Sandviken. King Haakon immediately read the dispatch and addressed one to Amundsen at Hobart, Tasmania, saying:

"I thank you for the information. The queen and I beg to send you and all on board the Fraw our most cordial congratulations on the occasion of your results, which are so satisfactory to all of us.

(Signed) "HAAKON."

Many scientific, educational and commercial associations throughout the country cabled congratulations to Amundsen today. Professor Henrik Mohn, the famous meteorologist, in an interview, pointed out the importance of the fact disclosed in Amundsen's message that the explorer had passed four days in close proximity to the Pole. Professor Mohn thought this would indicate that Amundsen took observations all around, and thereby fixed the geographical point of the Pole with scientific exactness.

A national subscription has been opened for funds to finance Amundsen's proposed expedition to the North Pole.

This is all the correspondence that has passed between King Haakon and Captain Amundsen. King George, of Great Britain, and King Frederick, of Denmark, have telegraphed their felicitations to King Haakon.

Two local newspapers today received dispatches from Captain Roald Amundsen announcing that he reached the South Pole on December 14, 1911.

The dispatches were sent from Hobart, Tasmania, where Amundsen arrived yesterday.

The dispatches read:

"Pole reached, fourteenth-seventeenth December." This evidently means that he remained three days in the vicinity of the pole probably for the purpose of taking accurate observations as to his position.

Only One Landed.

Captain Amundsen is the only member of the antarctic expedition who has landed from the Fram. Nobody is allowed to go on board the vessel under any pretext whatever.

The explorer says he is pleased with the results of his expedition, but otherwise maintains absolute silence.

Captain Amundsen intends to stay at Hobart for a few days. He will then go to Australia and give a few lectures there, afterwards departing for Europe via Buenos Ayres, then round Cape Horn up to the Bering Straits and through the northwest passage and the Arctic ocean.

Confirmation of Captain Roald Amundsen's attainment of the South Pole on December 14, 1911, received today from the explorer himself at Hobart, Tasmania, sets at rest the conflicting reports current on the subject yesterday.

A report published by The Daily Express in London yesterday morning, dated Wellington, New Zealand, declared that Amundsen had stated that Scott had reached the South Pole. It was assumed that this declaration indicated that Amundsen himself had not succeeded in attaining the object of his expedition, and credit was generally given to the British explorer.

Nothing has hitherto been heard from Captain Scott and Amundsen now denies that he said or telegraphed anything relative to his brother rival or his expedition.

The honor for the achievement of reaching the South Pole must now be given to the Norwegian explorer until Captain Scott announces the result of his expedition.

Captain Amundsen has for many years been considered one of the most daring and competent of arctic and antarctic explorers. A sailor from his youth, he started polar research at the age of twenty-five when he participated in the Belgian antarctic expedition under the command of Gerlach. He was first officer of the vessel, and the voyage lasted from 1897 to 1899.

On his return he made up his mind to continue polar research, but this time he decided to go to the north to discover the Northwest Passage.

Took Two Years Course.

He prepared himself for the task by undergoing a course of two years' study in magnetism and meteorology. Then he sailed for the north from Christiana on board the Gjoa with a crew of only eight men, on June 16, 1903. Proceeding to Lancaster Sound he sailed past Cape Adelaide, and King William Land and Ross Strait. For many months Amundsen drifted along and finally on August 26, met an American whaler to the east of Cape Rathurst. He ultimately brought his little vessel through the Bering Strait and thus for the first time accomplished the Northwest Passage. During the voyage he determined exactly the position of the magnetic pole. Altogether he was three years away from Norway.

The Fram, which Captain Amundsen selected for his latest expedition, has been used for many years in Arctic exploration. From 1893 to 1896, during the expedition of the Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, she covered a journey of about 7,000 miles in the Arctic ocean, 3,000 miles of this being accomplished while she was frozen solid in the ice. She was not damaged during this voyage.

Captain Amundsen left Buenos Ayres on his present trip toward the close of 1910 with a small party of Norwegians, all of them experienced in arctic work. He took with him a large pack of Siberian dogs and his men were all provided with skis for traversing the glacier ice. Captain Amundsen's party made its base and winter quarters eighty miles nearer the South Pole than his British rival.

Nothing was heard from the expedition for many months until the arrival of the Fram was reported two days ago at Hobart, Tasmania.

Will Submit Charts.

London, March 8.—Captain Amundsen states he will submit his charts and all information as to his expedition without delay, according to dispatches from Hobart, received by a special correspondent at Wellington, New Zealand.

After meeting Captain Scott in the Bay of Whales on January 19, 1911, Captain Amundsen camped with nine men in longitude 164 west, latitude 78. He has not revealed his subsequent movements.

Captain Amundsen has settled his plans to sail from Hobart within a week for Buenos Ayres. From that

CARRYING TWO CATS AS THEIR MASCOTS NEW SUBMARINES MAKE LONG VOYAGE

Two new submarines, the E 1 and the E 2, have voyaged from the Brooklyn navy yard to Norfolk, Va. That their commanders had no idea of submerging them during the trip south was shown by both being canvas covered to the water line. On board the two submarines are two cat mascots. Before many months both these mascots will be deep sea cats, for when they make dives the mascots will remain on board. Naval men are interested in the voyage of these two deep sea fighters, for they are the first to be equipped with the Deisel oil-burning interior combustion engines. They are also the first submarines to be equipped with wireless, and during their journey to Norfolk they will keep in constant touch with land. The vessels are equipped with temporary masts, which will fold up and drop to the deck when a dive is made.

GEORGIANS' FILLIBUSTER CAUSES RAID ON SOCIETY

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, March 8.—(Special.)—Spiritedly resuming the fight on the outrageous pension frauds being perpetrated on the federal treasury under the name of patriotism, Representatives Roddenbery, Tribble and Howard, of Georgia, today gave the house an example of about the most vigorous filibuster that body has experienced in a long time.

From noon until 6 o'clock this evening the battle waged. Then a demand was made for the previous question. The point of "no quorum" was raised, and the sergeant-at-arms and his assistants scurried out over the city to locate and bring in enough members to transact business. From clubs, cafes, theaters and hotels the officers of the house rounded up reluctant members. In the meantime, behind closed doors, members were whiling the time away with songs and jokes.

As a special piece of revenge on the Georgians the republican members and democrats from the middle west sang every verse of "Marching Through Georgia" with great gusto, following it with "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" and "John Brown's Body." No attention was paid to the demonstration by the Three Georgia Musketeers. Finally, at 9:20 o'clock the previous question was ordered, but the house immediately adjourned, resulting in the bills going over.

Howard Joins Battle.

Representative Howard did not join in the battle until the middle of the afternoon, when his fighting blood was aroused by slurs cast upon Georgia by Representative Cyrus Cline, democrat, of Indaiana. Mr. Cline said Georgia was receiving more from the federal government than she contributed, and that the state only contributed a bare $6,000 through internal revenue taxes.

Mr. Howard quoted from official records showing that $642,000 a year were collected from the state in internal revenue taxes, and that on the basis of population Georgia contributed $10,000,000 toward paying pensions. He charged that Indiana was receiving $14,000,000 from the government in pensions, and that Mr. Cline has 6,000 federal pensioners in his own district.

Individual pension payments were opposed by the three Georgians on the ground that the records were defective. In some instances no proof of marriage was shown where the widow of a soldier sought a pension; in other cases bigamy was alleged. But the most outrageous instances shown up were those in which deserting confederate soldiers had served for brief periods averaging from eighteen to forty-six days in the union army and sought pensions of $30 a month as recompense for such treachery.

"It's an infamous fraud," said Mr. Howard, "and I'm not going to see such steals run over this congress. I am in the fight to the last ditch."

"BRIGADE POST AT M'PHERSON IS PRACTICALLY CERTAIN"

---Chairman Military Affairs

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, March 8.—(Special.)—Chairman James Hay, of the house military affairs committee, in a letter today to Representative Howard, expressed confidence that Fort McPherson will shortly be made a brigade post. His letter follows:

"My Dear Mr. Howard: I have your letter urging me to support the bill introduced by you for the purpose of making Fort McPherson a brigade post. It will give me pleasure to aid you in this matter in' any way within my power. I may say that, since you introduced your bill, I have had a talk with General Wood, chief of staff of the army. He tells me of your conversation with him, stating that he regarded the project very favorably.

"I may say to you that I regard it as practically certain that McPherson will be in the near future a brigade post, and you are to be congratulated upon your successful efforts in this direction. Yours, (Signed) "JAMES HAY,

"Chairman."

Representative Slayden, of Texas, wrote Mr. Howard to the same effect. The senate military affairs committee has approved the bill to make Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., near Chickamauga, a cavalry brigade post as provided for in the boyy by Representatives Moon, of Tennessee, and Lee, of Georgia.

UNDERWOOD'S SPEECHES ARE PLACED IN RECORD

Washington, D. C., March 8.—(Special.)—Representative William Schley Howard, of the fifth district, who is an ardent supporter of Oscar W. Underwood for the democratic nomination, today had put in the Congressional Record the speeches delivered by Mr. Underwood before the Southern Society of New York on December 15, last, on "The Protection of Profits," and also the speech on "George Washington" before the Society of the Cincinnati of Philadelphia, on February 22, and a speech before the American Automobile Association convention in January, on "The Federal Government and Public Roads."

Mr. Howard said the three were splendid public addresses, and he wanted them given the widest possible circulation.

HER PURSE SNATCHED BY A DARING NEGRO

While Mrs. E. C. McChesney, of 22 Markham street, was on her way home last night she discovered when she was near the Terminal station that she was being followed by a husky negro.

"Help!" she shouted and ran into the yard of one of the houses in the neighborhood. Undeterred, the negro followed, snatched the purse she hugged close to her breast and beat a retreat in the darkness. Several men hastened to the aid of the distressed lady, but they were too late to frustrate the robbery.

ATLANTA TO SHOW WHAT SHE MAKES

Manufacturers' Exposition Is Planned for Fall.

Decision Is Reached at a Meeting of Committee of the Chamber—Moving Exhibits Will Be Made by Many Manufacturers.

The world-at-large is to be shown what Atlanta manufactures at an Atlanta manufacturers' exposition to be held at the Auditorium-Armory next fall.

There are more than 800 manufacturers, large and small, in the city, and quite a number of others just outside. These men are to display their manufactured products at the exposition so that all who will may know just what and in what grades Atlanta manufactures.

Manufacturers Present.

The definite decision to hold the exposition, which is to be known as the "Atlanta Manufacturers' Exposition of Atlanta-Made Goods," was reached at a meeting of the manufacturers' committee of the chamber of commerce, Friday afternoon. In attendance at this meeting there were upward of twenty-five of the city's most prominent manufacturers, who are not members of the committee, but were invited to be present by Chairman Brooks Morgan. Without exception, these manufacturers were every bit as enthusiastic over the plan to hold such an exhibition as are the committeemen, and all promised to do everything in their power to make the project an unqualified success.

It was the consensus of opinion of all those present at the meeting that even Atlantans have no adequate idea of the almost endless variety ofthings manufactued here. This being the case, they point out, it is hardly to be expected that Georgians, as a whole, and southerners-at-large, should be acquainted with the facts. And were these facts better known, believe these men, thousands of people who now go or send elsewhere for their goods, would come or send here.

Put On Moving Exhibits.

It is proposed that at least 100 of the manufacturers will put on live or moving exhibits, i. e. that shoe manufacturers put on machinery to make shoes; cotton goods manufacturers put on machinery to make cotton goods; manufacturing jewelers put on machinery to manufacture jewelry.

It is also proposed that the manufacturers give away souvenirs and samples of goods made at the exposition.

In order that the matter can be presented to all the manufacturers, a meeting of Atlanta manufacturers will be held in the rooms of the chamber of commerce on Friday afternoon, March 15, at 4 o'clock, at which hour every manufacturer of Atlanta, however small, and whether or not a member of the chamber of commerce, is invited to be present.

FIVE ARE KILLED AND 12 INJURED ON GEORGIA ROAD

Train Order Was Misread, and Then Passenger and Freight Crashed Together.

VAUGHAN, FIRST WHITE MAN TO BE KILLED ON THE ROAD

Engineer of the Passenger Had Premonition That Something Was Going to Happen—Injured Brought to Atlanta and Doing Well—Operators Knew Wreck Was Coming.

A train order which was misread was the cause of the wreck on the Georgia railroad, on the main line at Social Circle, yesterday morning, according to the investigation made by railroad officials who went to the scene in the wrecking train which left here immediately following the news of the disaster. W. C. Vaughan, engineer of the passenger train, and one of the oldest trainmen in Georgia, died at 5:15 o'clock Friday afternoon, at the Tabernacle sanatorium, from a fracture at the base of the skull. Four negroes were killed in the crash.

"He is the first white man to be killed on the main line," declared L. S. Davis, chief of division No. 323, of the B. L. E., last night.

Woman the First Victim.

The first victim claimed by the road was a woman. She was killed by pipes falling from a fast moving freight train on the Montgomery branch. The accident occurred six months ago. The woman was standing alongside the tracks when she was struck by one of the falling pipes. Her head was nearly severed from her body.

Engineer Vaughan never regained consciousness. He was rushed to the Tabernacle sanatorium upon the arrival of the relief train in the city. Surgeons worked on the injured man, making a heroic effort to lift a bit of splintered skull bone from the brain. The wife of the unfortunate engineman, accompanied by her sons and daughters, reached his bedside shortly after noon, and remained until the end. The body will be sent to Augusta at 7 o'clock this morning, and will be interred there Sunday afternoon.

That Engineer Vaughan was blameless for the accident, is another statement made last night said to have been authorized by the officials of the Georgia railroad. Being a fast passenger, and having the right of way over all other trains, he naturally supposed that the track was clear. That he was powerless to prevent the crash is evident from the location of the accident. The freight train, which was in charge of Conductor Jake Fitzgerald and Engineer S. G. Willerford, was just making the circle and her lights were hidden.

Negro Leaps From Cab.

When the lights of the freight loomed up in the darkness, Engineer Vaughan shouted to the fireman to jump. The negro leaped from the cab and escaped serious injury. Vaughan, who was 60 years old, also made a leap from the engine, but he struck a pile of crossties and crushed his head. He was found limp and helpless about fifty feet from the spot where the trains crashed.

Before leaving his home to make his run Vaughan told some of the members of his family that he was not feeling right.

"I might have the blues," he declared, "but I feel that something is wrong. Something is going to happen."

He did not mention the fact to his wife, but he told one of his relatives and a friend. He also told the fireman of his strange premonition.

The officials of the road deplore the accident, for it has been a record probably not equaled by any other railroad in the world.

Engineer Vaughan was a native of Augusta. He was 60 years old and has been in the employ of the Georgia railroad for more than thirty years. Many of the engineers on the road fired for him and are now running on the road. He is survived by a widow, two sons, Charles Vaughan, of Augusta; Henry, of Harlem; three sisters, Mrs. C. C. Blackman, of Athens; Mrs. Shepherd and Mrs. Singleton, of Clarkston.

Injured Doing Well.

The injured were all reported to be resting easy at a late hour last night. They are:

W. F. Clark, of Thomson, Ga., a passenger, painfully injured; cut about the head and face and his left ear torn off.

F. D. Bailey, of Harlem, Ga., painfully injured; cut about the face and head.

W. F. Clark, mail clerk, Atlanta, leg fractured, painfully injured.

W. E. Carey, mail clerk, Atlanta, fractured arm, cut about the face, painfully injured.

F. J. Poole, mail clerk, Atlanta, cut about head and face.

Joe Brown, fireman of No. 4, cut about the head.

George Reid, porter, cut about the head and face.

An unidentified negro, seriously hurt.

Waited for Crash.

Augusta, Ga., March 8.—Reminding one of the grim executioner who orders the coffin before the guillotine or gallow's rope has done its work, was the wreck on the Georgia railroad early Friday morning when four were killed and a dozen injured.

Three men, in the stillness of the night, knew that the wreck was going to occur, and waited breathlessly for the impact of two giant locomotives running at high speed. There was a freight train running in two sections, and both were to meet the passenger train at Rutledge, Ga. As the first section was moving out of Rutledge the second section came up, and Conductor Allen, of the second section, remembered that both were to meet the passenger there. He could see the lights of the first section of the train in the dim distance, and he could not stop it. He secured his train telephone and called up Social Circle, the next station, and asked if "No. 4," meaning the passenger, had left.

They Are Coming Together.

The reply was, "Yes."

"My God, they are going together!" said Allen.

"Yes, that's true," said the Social Circle operator.

The latter called the dispatcher at Augusta and told him to get his wrecking train ready. "Two trains are going together," he said, "and I cannot prevent them."

And, in the stillness of the night, when the sound of a crash or an explosion is magnified by the stillness, the trains met.

The Social Circle operator said to Augusta:

"They have come together. I heard the crash."

And the wrecking train, ready to leave, went out.

POLE IS REACHED AMUNDSEN WIRES

port he will go round Cape Horn to San Francisco and then on to the Bering straits. Then he will drift with the ice across the Arctic ocean, and expects to emerge at some point between Greenland and Spitsbergen.

Captain Scott's agent in New Zealand expresses the opinion taht Scott must have changed his plans and proceeded with new exploring and scientificwork, thus possibly delaying the returnof the Terra Nova for some weeks.

Royal Society Accepts Claim.

The Royal Geographical Society accepts unqualifiedly Captain Amundsen's claim that he reached the South Pole, and takes it for granted that he was the first explorer to reach the goal, although Amundsen's brief dispatch does not mention that fact.

Geographers point out, however, that Captain Amundsen and Captain Scott may both have been there and within a mile of each other, without knowing it, and scientists here are awaiting further details before accepting definitely the defeat of the British expedition.

In response to cable instructions to ask Captain Amundsen point-blank whether Captain Scott reached the South Pole, the correspondent of The London Evening Star at Hobart today telegraphed the following statement: "Amundsen refuses to say anything on the question as to whether Scott reached the South Pole or not."

Knows Nothing of Scott.

New York, March 8.—The New York Times received a dispatch today from Roald Amundsen at Hobart, Tasmania, saying that he knew nothing about Captain Scott, the British explorer, and his expedition.

This message was in reply to one sent by The Times asking Amundsen if he knew anything about Captain Scott, and was brought out by the dispatch from Hobart, published first by a London newspaper yesterday, to the effect that Amundsen, upon his arrival at Hobart, had declared that Captain Scott had discovered the South Pole.

Another dispatch to the same effect as the one from Amundsen was received from Henry D. Baker, the American consul at Hobart.

Little Surprise Shown.

New York, March 8.—Herbert L. Bridgman, secretary of the Arctic Club of America, expressed little surprise when he received the news that the Amundsen dash to the South Pole had been successful.

"I have been in the business too long," he explained.

"Nothing can surprise me very much. Ever since I knew anybody was making a serious try at the South Pole I was confident that the discovery would be made. I rather expected it would be Scott, and I should not wonder at all if we should hear in a few days that he had reached the pole also.

"I have a high opinion of Amundsen. He has shown before that he was a fine navigator, and in earnest. As far as the comparative difficulty of the two poles is concerned, there is no question in my mind that the attainment of the South Pole was much easier than the north. Europe has looked upon the South Pole as her own field of exploration. It was agreed at the international conference of 1905 that the North Pole should be left to the Americans.

"The most important thing is that the dashes and races are over and hereafter explorers will go out seriously to discover the facts of the earth. In time the map will be without any unknown land."

Anthony Fiala, secretary of the Explorers' Club, and commander of a North Pole expedition in 1903-1905, said:

"Amundsen won. It is likely Scott, too, may have reached the goal. If so he was probably a week or two later than Amundsen. Scott could hardly fail in his attempt, for he was equipped as no other party that ever penetrated polar regions."

No Controversy.

Professor Henry Fairfield Osborn, head of the American Museum of Natural History, which has contributed to the equipment of several American polar expeditions, said that his study of the plans of the rival explorers had convinced him that Amundsen would win.

"One thing is certain," said Professor Osborne.

"There will be no controversy over the accuracy of Amundsen's claim. He has a world-wide reputation and scientists will believe him without hesitation."

Captain Bradley S. Osborn, former secretary of the Arctic Club, who is a warm personal friend of Amundsen, said when he heard the news:

"Well, I knew he would do it. The race has never meant anything in my mind but victory for Amundsen. He was the most experienced of the various rivals and he knew the ice packs as a farmer does his fields."

Dr. Frederick A. Cook heard the news at his uptown hotel, where he had just returned from a lecture tour.

"It is not only possible that Scott and Amundsen crossed each other, but it is likely that both men met at the pole," said Dr. Cook.

Captain Scott, at the very latest, ought to be heard from in ten days.

Peary Comments.

Washington, March 8.—"Some word is likely to be heard from Captain Scott at any moment," said Rear Admiral Peary today.

"And when it does come," he continued, "it undoubtedly will contain the disclosure that he also reached the goal."

In the absence of details of the discovery of the South Pole, Admiral Peary said he preferred not to discuss the matter until something was heard. Captain Scott, he explained, had an advantage of Captain Amundsen in that the former knew his road to within 100 miles of the goal.

THREE DOUGLASVILLE STORES BURGLARIZED

Douglasville, Ga., March 8.—(Special.)—Three stores were burglarized here last night and one of the burglars was shot by Policeman Davis, but thus far has not been captured. The stores of B. F. Rowland, N. B. & J. T. Duncan and M. B. Watson were entered and an attempt was made to break into the Southern railway freight depot.

The night operator at the freight depot fired at one man and at about the same time Policeman Davis discovered another coming out of Rowland's store and fired at him, causing him to drop his gun. He made his escape, leaving a trail of blood behind. The sheriff and a posse are in pursuit.

STATE OF GEORGIA—COUNTY OF FULTON.

After four weeks' notice, pursuant to Section 3065 of the Code of Georgia of 1910, application will be made to the Judge of the Superior Court of Fulton county, at the Courthouse in said county, on the 25th day of March, 1911, or as soon thereafter as a hearing can be had, for authority and order to sell at private sale an undivided one-fourth interest in remainder in the following described parcels of land in Meriwether county, to wit:

Fifty (50) acres, more or less, of land known as the J. D. Waggoner old home place, being part of Land Lot 105, except one (1) acre, more or less, in front of the house known as the "Gin House Lot." Also fifty (50) acres, more or less, of land known as the Coleman place, part of Land Lot 104, including a four-room house and four (4) acres, more or less, in the southeast corner, known as the house and lot sold to Major Cochran, but which was redeemed from said Cochran. Also sixty-two and one-half (62½) acres of land down on the Creek lot, the west side of Lot 137, starting at south, running north forty-four (44) chains and ten (10) links, and north to south forty-four (44) chains and ten (10) links; west to east fourteen (14) chains and seventeen (17) links; and east to west fourteen (14) chains and seventeen (17) links. Being the same property described in a deed from J. D. Waggoner to M. A. Hogan, dated October 23, 1895, recorded in Deed Book 3, Folios 126 and 127, of the land records of Meriwether county.

Said sale will be applied for by the undersigned as guardian of Martha Gene Chambers, and the interest sought to be sold is the undivided remainder interest (which is one-fourth) which the said Martha Gene Chambers is entitled to by virtue of the deed aforesaid from J. D. Waggoner, which deed vested the title to said property in M. A. Hogan for life, with remainder to her body heirs. Said sale will be for the purpose of reinvestment. The reasons for making said application for sale and reinvestment, are, that said property bears a very small income, and that it is advisable and for the best interests of said ward that said property be sold and the proceeds reinvested in other property that will bring a better income.

February 20, 1912.

STATE OF GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY—Notice is hereby given that on March 30, 1912, the undersigned will apply to the Judge of the Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, at the courthouse in said county, for an order authorizing him, as guardian for L. P. Grant, Jr., to sell, for the purpose of reinvestment, the following property of his said ward, to wit:

First Parcel—Tract or parcel of land in the City of Atlanta, and being a portion of land lot forty-four of the fourteenth district of Fulton County, Georgia, commencing on the eastern side of Oakland Avenue sixty-five feet southwardly from Fair Street and running thence southwardly along the eastern side of Oakland Avenue forty-one feet and extending back eastwardly same width as front one hundred and ninety feet to an alley.

Second Parcel—Tract or parcel of land in the City of Atlanta, being a portion of land lot fifty-three of the fourteenth district of Fulton County, Georgia, described as follows, to wit: Commencing on the western side of Ami Street eighty-five feet northwardly from Glenn Street and running thence northwardly eighty-five feet and extending back westwardly, same width as front one hundred and sixty feet to an alley.

The reason for making said application and sale is that the first parcel above described yields only a small income which is insufficient to pay for its maintenance, taxes, repairs and insurance and yield a fair income on its value, and the second parcel above described is vacant property yielding no income to said estate, but is, on the contrary, an expense to said estate.

This notice is given under and pursuant to section 3065 of the Code of Georgia of 1910.
